Dr. Aaron Gluck, 80, Dies In Martinsburg

Rev. Dr. Aaron Manns Gluck, 80, prominent in the Evangelical and Reformed Church and a minister for more than half a century, died Wednesday at Martinsburg, W. Va.

A native of Franklin County, Dr. Gluck served only two pastorates, at Emmitsburg, and 42 years at Christ Church, Martinsburg, where he retired in 1954. He was a former president of the Potomac Synod and Virginia Classis of his church, was a director of the Hoffman Orphanage at Littlestown since its founding more than 30 years ago, and was president of the board of Massanutten Military Academy, Woodstock, Va., for 30 years.

Funeral services Friday at 2 p.m. at Christ Church, Martinsburg. Interment in the family cemetery near Lemaster.

BLACK WALNUT DISTRICT OVER GOAL FOR 1957

The Black Walnut Boy Scout District now has 712 boy members in 27 units, William Kerschner, organization and extension chairman for the district, reported at a meeting of the district committee Wednesday evening at the court house.

The number was described as "by far the largest number of boys in Scouting in the history of district." The district had set as its goal for membership this year 697 boy members. In addition to the boys in Scouting "there are approximately 250 adults including committeemen, leaders, den mothers, etc.," Kerschner said.

Three new units have been added since the beginning of the year, the latest being Cub Pack 89 at York Springs, Kerschner said. He added that he anticipates several additional units will "ready for chartering within a month."

Crosby N. Hartzell, camping and activities chairman, reported on plans for a family picnic at the South Mountain Fairgrounds June 30, the first affair of its kind ever planned in the district. Attendance is expected to total several thousand. "Complete information will be sent all Scoutmasters, Cubmasters and Explorer advisors as well as troop committee chairmen and den mothers. The picnic will be held throughout the afternoon and evening so that all will be able to come

FILE ACTION IN FATAL ACCIDENT

An action in trespass has been brought by C. M. Powell, Quicksall, Camden, N. J., administrator of the estate of Albert S. Engle, late of Collingswood, N. J., against Joseph M. Condon, Emmitsburg R. D.

The suit filed in Adams County court is based on an auto accident March 7, 1956, at 4:30 p.m. on the Fairfield Rd. 6½ miles west of here in which Engle's and Condon's autos collided.

Quicksall has filed suit for Janet H. Engle, widow of the 29-year-old sales engineer, who, according to the complaint, earned $11,000 per year, and their three small children.

Engle, who suffered a number of compound fractures and simple fractures of the arms and legs and other injuries, died sometime following the accident. Quicksall is also seeking $3,000 hospital, medical and funeral expenses as administrator of the estate.

The complaint was filed with the prothonotary by Attorney John A. MacPhail of the law firm of Brown, Swope and MacPhail.

SHEALERS WED 50 YEARS AGO IN BALTIMORE

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Shealer, 108 Baltimore St., are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary today. They were married June 6, 1907, at Baltimore by the Rev. William Way.

Mrs. Shealer is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Dillman, Gettysburg. Mr. Shealer is a son of Mrs. Eleanor Shealer, 56 Chambersburg St., who observed her 98th birthday Tuesday, and the late George W. Shealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shealer's eight children are giving a family dinner this evening at the Peace Light Inn. Later in the evening a reception for family and friends will be held at the Shealer home.

Guiding For 42 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Shealer have lived all of their lives in Gettysburg. They are the parents of four boys and four girls and have 16 grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Before his marriage, Mr. Shealer was engaged in the livery business with his father and guided excursion parties on tours of the battlefield. With the formation of the Battlefield Guides' service under supervision of the National Park Office in 1915, Mr. Shealer became one of the first licensed guides and has continued that work as his full-time occupation since that time. Mr. Shealer works every day from Lincoln Square.

They will now be permitted to finish their military service with a local Army Reserve or National Guard unit West attended Fairfield High School.

NEW C-D DIRECTOR

Governor George Leader today announced the appointment of Leonard Myers as Civil Defense director for East Berlin. Myers has been serving in that post for some time under temporary appointment by Adams County Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver. Weaver said today that eventually a Civil Defense director is to be appointed for each borough and township in the county.

FIRE CHIEFS TO MEET

The Adams County Association of Fire Chiefs will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at Bonneauville, President Paul Wolf has announced.

When Mark Van Boren and his son, Charles, were named Father and Son Team of the year by the National Father's Day Committee recently their responses created a great public stir. Their remarks have been called classics in modern English.

We urge every father and son to read what these two men had to say as follows:

* * *

Mark Van Doren: "Ladies and gentlemen, you must not doubt that my son and I appreciate with equal depth the honor done to us today. At least on this occasion I know that I can speak for him as well as myself. Such occasions, I am happy to add, are rare; and the point I shall try to make is that they should be rare. If I believe anything, I believe that every person speaks at last for himself. Charlie has done so all his life; and the highest compliment I can pay him now is to

PLAN HYMN SING

The Upper Marsh Creek Church of the Brethren will hold an "old fashioned hymn sing" Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church near Knoxlyn. Rev. M. C. Valentine, pastor, will be in charge of the hymn sing to which the public is invited.

PAST GRANDS TO MEET

The Gettysburg lodge of Odd Fellows will be host to the Past Grands Association of Adams County at its meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the IOOF hall, Chambersburg St.

900 ENROLLED FOR RED CROSS SWIM CLASSES

Approximately 900 children and adults already are enrolled in what promises to be the biggest summer water safety program ever conducted by the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross. The classes open June 17.

Miss Peggy P. Hill, Red Cross executive secretary, said next Monday is the deadline for registration for the summer classes.

The Gettysburg College and the Battlefield pools at Gettysburg, Crouse's pool at Littlestown and a private pool in East Berlin will be used for the Red Cross classes.

Classes For Adults Too

Six weeks of lessons for boys and girls will begin Monday, June 17, at the Battlefield pool with one-hour classes to run from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. five days a week. Each instruction period will cover two weeks and there will be three periods of instruction running into the end of July.

The college pool will be used, starting the same date, and will offer afternoon classes, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., for intermediates, swimmers, and junior and senior

Call Firemen Tonight

13 Killed In Fiery Truck Crash At N.C. Intersection

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP)— A flat-bed truck loaded with migrant workers and a tractor-trailer truck slammed together in a fiery crash at a road intersection today and killed 13 persons, the State Highway Patrol reported.

The Highway Patrol said 21 persons were taken to hospitals of this area and 14 of them were in critical condition.

Fire that broke out caused most of the deaths, the patrol said.

Like Ball Of Fire

"It looked like a ball of fire," said Joe Lozak of Berwick, Pa., who saw the crash in the rear-view mirror of his potato truck "Men, women and children were lying all over the highway."

The patrol said 41 laborers, from several states, were aboard the truck which pulled into the path of the tractor-trailer at the intersection of Highways 301 and 102, nine miles north of Fayetteville, at 7:15 a.m.

One laborer said the workers, after camping overnight near Mount Olive, N.C., were en route to Dunn, N.C., to harvest beans.

Gilbert Robert Peters, 25, of Route 2, Watwallopen, Pa., the tractor-trailer driver, was slightly hurt. The flat-bed truck driver was among those killed.

The scene, about 50 miles south of Raleigh, was one of utmost confusion as the truck blazed, injured groaned and wailed, and ambulances sirened in among patrol cars and traffic to pick up the victims.

In Chicago the National Safety Council said the number of deaths apparently set a new record for a truck-bus collision. According to its records, the Council said, the previous high was 10 killed in South Carolina in September 1950.

In Chicago the National Safety Council said the crash did not set a record in number of deaths in a collision of trucks. Nineteen persons were killed in Texas in August 1947 in a similar crash.

Elks Plan Annual Flag Day Program

The Gettysburg Lodge of Elks will hold its annual public Flag Day program Friday evening, June 14, at 8 o'clock at the Elks Home.

Music will be furnished by the Gettysburg High School band.

Officers of the lodge will conduct the program.

A flag will be presented to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 15, by the Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion.

ST. JAMES S.S. WILL OBSERVE CHILDREN'S DAY

Announcement was made today of the program for the annual Children's Day observance to be held at St. James Lutheran Church during the regular Sunday School hour on Sunday morning. Pupils of the Nursery, Beginners, Primary, Junior and Intermediate departments will take part.

After an opening song, the Intermediate department will conduct devotions with Caroline Guise reading scripture and Joy Fair offering prayer. After announcements, the Beginners' department will present a Daisy Drill Song with these children taking part: Sharon Bush, Georgetta Keefer, Susan Singley, Leslie Orner, Karen Culp, Linda Stevens, Karen Hikes, Kim Hughes, Kathy Ford, and Debbie Kuhn. There will be songs and finger plays.

The offering will be received by the pastor, the Rev. Paul L. Reaser, with the following serving as ushers from the Intermediate department: Gilson Sheffer, Don Smith, Skip Sheely, William Swope, Robert Baker and Barry Bixler. There will be a trombone solo by John Longanecker accompanied by his father, Edwin Longanecker.

Pupils of the Nursery department will present songs and fing r plays. Then pupils from the Primary department will present a section of the program assisted by three members of the Junior Department. "The Zephyr" will be recited by Elsa Heimemer, Barbara Allison and Linda Sterner with motions by members of the First grade.

"Children's Day" will be recited by this group of Primary youngsters with each one representing a

CONCERT GROUP PLANS FOR FALL

The last week in September was set as the date for the annual membership campaign of the Gettysburg Concert Association at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Jacob W. Heikkinen, Springs Ave.

Organizational strategy and pre-campaign plans were discussed at the meeting at which Miss Camilla Campbell, of Community Concerts Inc., was a special guest.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler was appointed as dinner chairman for the workers. Mrs. Henry M. Scharf was named publicity chairman and Dr. Clarence Bartholomew, appointments chairman.

The next meeting of the board of directors will be held September 9 at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Wednesday evening an executive committee meeting preceded the board meeting at 8 o'clock.

Stops At Crossing, Car Is Hit In Rear

Damage totaled $90 when two cars collided at the intersection of Baltimore and Middle Sts. at 12:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Borough police said Isabella N. Wills, Fairfield, was turning north from E. Middle St. into Baltimore and halted her car to permit pedestrians to cross when an auto driven by Julianne Orner, 33 E. Middle St., struck the rear fender of the Wills auto. Damage was $40 to the Wills car, $50 to the Orner vehicle.

Commissioners Name Group To Make "Thorough Study" Of County Home Situation

The Adams County commissioners Wednesday afternoon announced the appointment of a non-partisan committee to "make a thorough and intensive study of the Adams County home situation."

Named to the committee were A. W. Butterfield, Gettysburg R. D. farmer and Gettysburg College instructor, who will serve as chairman; Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist; Mrs. John S. Rice, prominent in many community activities; Lee M. Hartman, local realtor, and Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, active in Littlestown community affairs.

Following a meeting with Butterfield Wednesday afternoon the commissioners said October 1 had been set as the date for the report by the committee.

The committee will study the operation of the home in the past, present and its future operation.

Poses Many Questions

The committee may present any number of recommendations: renovation of the present home, a new county home, at possibly a new site, or a sort of "foster home" plan.

The committee was urged by the commissioners to make a thorough study.

Public hearings may be held, the commissioners said, by the committee during its study, or by the commissioners after the final report is presented.

E. Donald Scott, chairman of the board of commissioners, said: "Whatever decision is reached by the commissioners, it will be a decision affecting the county for a long time. That is the reason we have asked this committee to make a thorough study, so that any decision will be based on all facts and represent the best possible solution. Ours is not the only county in which there is a county home problem. Nor is this a problem simply of buildings and grounds. People are living longer, and with the advance of medical science and increased spread of social security and pension plans it is obvious that there will be changes in needs in future years.'"

Middies Will Cheer Countian

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A Californian will be last in the line of 850 midshipmen receiving diplomas from the U.S. Naval Academy tomorrow, and a Pennsylvanian will be last.

But Hanvey's applause probably won't be any louder than that for "anchor man" Robert L. Daughenbaugh, New Oxford, captain of the wrestling team. For his feat of having finished last and still managing to graduate, cheering classmates will hoist Daughenbaugh to their shoulders and he'll wave a papier mache anchor as his company gets its diplomas.

ONE INJURED IN THREE CRASHES; $2,600 DAMAGES

One person was injured and damage totalled $2,600 in three automobile accidents investigated by state police from the local sub-station Wednesday afternoon.

Upsets In Ditch

A car and a tractor trailer were involved in an accident seven miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. at 1:30 o'clock.

State police said Florine McAlphine, 50, St. Petersburg, Fla., was driving north when an unidentified car entered the Emmitsburg Rd. from a private drive and Mrs. McAlphine slowed her sedan to avoid striking the car. Elmer H. Drum, 28, Cogan Station R. 2, Pa., driving

EX-GOP HEAD HELPS PARTY

John H. Basehore, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee for 16 years until he declined to seek another term a little more than a year ago, has learned that his long and faithful service to the GOP in Pennsylvania has not come to and end.

When George Bloom, chairman of the Pennsylvania committee, learned that only one Adams Countian had purchased a $100 ticket to the GOP-sponsored performance of the Ringling Bros. circus in the Hershey sports arena Friday night, he appealed to Basehore to get back in harness.

Bloom telephoned Basehore and informed him that no effort was being made in Adams County to sell tickets to help replenish the depleted Republican treasury. He asked the former chairman to "come to the aid of his party." Basehore accepted the challenge.

Today Basehore forwarded $1,400 to the state chairman . . . fourteen Adams Countians, personally solicited by Basehore, had willingly purchased tickets.

"No one said no," Basehore said. "The only trouble was that nobody made an effort to sell the tickets."

LICENSED TO MARRY

Marriage licenses have been issued in Westminster to the following: Roland L. Coshun, Detour, Md., and Cindy Y. Lescalleet, Taneytown; Charles L. Reynolds, Hanover, and Miriam Ruth Branon Henry, Gettysburg; Franklin A. Ridenour, Thurmont, and Audrey Yvonne Angell, R. 2; George L. Hughes and DeAnna Louise Salley, both of Taneytown; Glenn E. DEALERS TO MEET

The Adams County Retail Beverage Association will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at Bill's Place, Orrtanna R. 1.

JAIL 3 YOUTHS FOR BURGLARY

Russell William Millhimes, 22, and Donald LeRoy Himes, 20, were in the Adams County jail today on charges arising from a $92 burglary occurring two years ago.

Implicated with the two is George Eugene Smead, aged about 20, currently on probation from another charge, who is to be picked up by probation authorities. All three are from Biglerville.

The three are accused of entering the Wagner service station on March 13, 1955, and stealing a man's gold watch valued at $37.50, a $10 pocket watch, a tire worth $25 and ten boxes of shotgun and rifle shells valued at $20.

Papers Are Filed In Three Estates

The will of Dr. Albert Woomer, late of Gettysburg, has been entered for probate at the office of the Adams County register and recorder. The First National Bank of Gettysburg and Lee M. Hartman, 56 Hanover St., are executors of the "in excess of $35,000" estate.

The will of Jeanette S. Mehring, late of Littlestown, has also been entered for probate. Edward J. Mehring, York, is executor of the $7,000 estate.

An administration bond in the $850 estate of Mervin U. Bream, late of Gettysburg, has been filed with the register and recorder by the widow, Elizabeth V. Bream, 310 N. Stratton St.

3 TREATED AT HOSPITAL

Michael Hankey, 2½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hankey, R. 5, was treated Wednesday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of the right arm.

Miss Helen Millhimes 42, New Oxford R. 2, received treatment after being bitten on the right hand by a dog Wednesday.

Raymond Etheridge, 37, Rocky Ridge, Md., was treated for lacerations of the tips of the second, third and fourth fingers received while using an electric table saw.

Dr. Aaron Gluck, 80, Dies In Martinsburg

Rev. Dr. Aaron Manns Gluck, 80, prominent in the Evangelical and Reformed Church and a minister for more than half a century, died Wednesday at Martinsburg, W. Va.

A native of Franklin County, Dr. Gluck served only two pastorates, at Emmitsburg, and 42 years at Christ Church, Martinsburg, where he retired in 1954. He was a former president of the Potomac Synod and Virginia Classis of his church, was a director of the Hoffman Orphanage at Littlestown since its founding more than 30 years ago, and was president of the board of Massanutten Military Academy, Woodstock, Va., for 30 years.

Funeral services Friday at 2 p.m. at Christ Church, Martinsburg. Interment in the family cemetery near Lemaster.

BLACK WALNUT DISTRICT OVER GOAL FOR 1957

The Black Walnut Boy Scout District now has 712 boy members in 27 units, William Kerschner, organization and extension chairman for the district, reported at a meeting of the district committee Wednesday evening at the court house.

The number was described as "by far the largest number of boys in Scouting in the history of district." The district had set as its goal for membership this year 697 boy members. In addition to the boys in Scouting "there are approximately 250 adults including committeemen, leaders, den mothers, etc.," Kerschner said.

Three new units have been added since the beginning of the year, the latest being Cub Pack 89 at York Springs, Kerschner said. He added that he anticipates several additional units will "ready for chartering within a month."

Crosby N. Hartzell, camping and activities chairman, reported on plans for a family picnic at the South Mountain Fairgrounds June 30, the first affair of its kind ever planned in the district. Attendance is expected to total several thousand. "Complete information will be sent all Scoutmasters, Cubmasters and Explorer advisors as well as troop committee chairmen and den mothers. The picnic will be held throughout the afternoon and evening so that all will be able to come

An action in trespass has been brought by C. M. Powell, Quicksall, Camden, N. J., administrator of the estate of Albert S. Engle, late of Collingswood, N. J., against Joseph M. Condon, Emmitsburg R. D.

The suit filed in Adams County court is based on an auto accident March 7, 1956, at 4:30 p.m. on the Fairfield Rd. 6½ miles west of here in which Engle's and Condon's autos collided.

Quicksall has filed suit for Janet H. Engle, widow of the 29-year-old sales engineer, who, according to the complaint, earned $11,000 per year, and their three small children.

Engle, who suffered a number of compound fractures and simple fractures of the arms and legs and other injuries, died sometime following the accident. Quicksall is also seeking $3,000 hospital, medical and funeral expenses as administrator of the estate.

The complaint was filed with the prothonotary by Attorney John A. MacPhail of the law firm of Brown, Swope and MacPhail.

SHEALERS WED 50 YEARS AGO IN BALTIMORE

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Shealer, 108 Baltimore St., are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary today. They were married June 6, 1907, at Baltimore by the Rev. William Way.

Mrs. Shealer is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Dillman, Gettysburg. Mr. Shealer is a son of Mrs. Eleanor Shealer, 56 Chambersburg St., who observed her 98th birthday Tuesday, and the late George W. Shealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shealer's eight children are giving a family dinner this evening at the Peace Light Inn. Later in the evening a reception for family and friends will be held at the Shealer home.

Guiding For 42 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Shealer have lived all of their lives in Gettysburg. They are the parents of four boys and four girls and have 16 grandchildren and a great-grandson.

Before his marriage, Mr. Shealer was engaged in the livery business with his father and guided excursion parties on tours of the battlefield. With the formation of the Battlefield Guides' service under supervision of the National Park Office in 1915, Mr. Shealer became one of the first licensed guides and has continued that work as his full-time occupation since that time. Mr. Shealer works every day from Lincoln Square.

COMPLETE TRAINING

Pvt. Donald C. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. West, Fairfield R. 1, and Pvt. Gary L. Cassatt, son of George M. Cassatt, New Oxford, have completed six months of active duty training under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox, Ky. They will now be permitted to finish their military service with a local Army Reserve or National Guard unit. West attended Fairfield High School.

NEW C-D DIRECTOR

Governor George Leader today announced the appointment of Leonard Myers as Civil Defense director for East Berlin. Myers has been serving in that post for some time under temporary appointment by Adams County Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver. Weaver said today that eventually a Civil Defense director is to be appointed for each borough and township in the county.

FIRE CHIEFS TO MEET

The Adams County Association of Fire Chiefs will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at Bonneauville, President Paul Wolf has announced.

When Mark Van Doren and his son, Charles, were named Father and Son Team of the year by the National Father's Day Committee recently their responses created a great public stir. Their remarks have been called classics in modern English.

We urge every father and son to read what these two men had to say as follows:

* * *

Mark Van Doren: "Ladies and gentlemen, you must not doubt that my son and I appreciate with equal depth the honor done to us today. At least on this occasion I know that I can speak for him as well as myself. Such occasions, I am happy to add, are rare; and the point I shall try to make is that they should be rare. If I believe anything, I believe that every person speaks at last for himself. Charlie has done so all his life; and the highest compliment I can pay him now is to

PLAN HYMN SING

The Upper Marsh Creek Church of the Brethren will hold an "old fashioned hymn sing" Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church near Knoxlyn. Rev. M. C. Valentine, pastor, will be in charge of the hymn sing to which the public is invited.

PAST GRANDS TO MEET

The Gettysburg lodge of Odd Fellows will be host to the Past Grands Association of Adams County at its meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the IOOF hall, Chambersburg St.

900 ENROLLED FOR RED CROSS SWIM CLASSES

Approximately 900 children and adults already are enrolled in what promises to be the biggest summer water safety program ever conducted by the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross. The classes open June 17.

Miss Peggy P. Hill, Red Cross executive secretary, said next Monday is the deadline for registration for the summer classes.

The Gettysburg College and the Battlefield pools at Gettysburg, Crouse's pool at Littlestown and a private pool in East Berlin will be used for the Red Cross classes.

Classes For Adults Too

Six weeks of lessons for boys and girls will begin Monday, June 17, at the Battlefield pool with one-hour classes to run from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. five days a week. Each instruction period will cover two weeks and there will be three periods of instruction running into the end of July.

The college pool will be used, starting the same date, and will offer afternoon classes, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., for intermediates, swimmers, and junior and senior

Call Firemen Tonight

General Chairman Glenn Weishaar of the fire department's anniversary committee today appealed to all firemen to report at the rec field at 6:30 o'clock tonight to assist in completing the laying of the sewer and water lines, if it is not raining.

13 Killed In Fiery Truck Crash At N.C. Intersection

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. (AP)— A flat-bed truck loaded with migrant workers and a tractor-trailer truck slammed together in a fiery crash at a road intersection today and killed 13 persons, the State Highway Patrol reported.

The Highway Patrol said 21 persons were taken to hospitals of this area and 14 of them were in critical condition.

Fire that broke out caused most of the deaths, the patrol said.

Like Ball Of Fire

"It looked like a ball of fire," said Joe Lozak of Berwick, Pa., who saw the crash in the rear-view mirror of his potato truck "Men, women and children were lying all over the highway."

The patrol said 41 laborers, from several states, were aboard the truck which pulled into the path of the tractor-trailer at the intersection of Highways 301 and 102, nine miles north of Fayetteville, at 7:15 a.m.

One laborer said the workers, after camping overnight near Mount Olive, N.C., were en route to Dunn, N.C., to harvest beans.

Gilbert Robert Peters, 25, of Route 2, Watwallopen, Pa., the tractor-trailer driver, was slightly hurt. The flat-bed truck driver was among those killed.

The scene, about 50 miles south of Raleigh, was one of utmost confusion as the truck blazed, injured groaned and wailed, and ambulances sirened in among patrol cars and traffic to pick up the victims.

In Chicago the National Safety Council said the number of deaths apparently set a new record for a truck-bus collision. According to its records, the Council said, the previous high was 10 killed in South Carolina in September 1950.

In Chicago the National Safety Council said the crash did not set a record in number of deaths in a collision of trucks. Nineteen persons were killed in Texas in August 1947 in a similar crash.

Elks Plan Annual Flag Day Program

The Gettysburg Lodge of Elks will hold its annual public Flag Day program Friday evening, June 14, at 8 o'clock at the Elks Home.

Music will be furnished by the Gettysburg High School band.

Officers of the lodge will conduct the program.

A flag will be presented to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 15, by the Albert J. Lentz Post of the American Legion.

ST. JAMES S.S. WILL OBSERVE CHILDREN'S DAY

Announcement was made today of the program for the annual Children's Day observance to be held at St. James Lutheran Church during the regular Sunday School hour on Sunday morning. Pupils of the Nursery, Beginners, Primary, Junior and Intermediate departments will take part.

After an opening song, the Intermediate department will conduct devotions with Caroline Guise reading scripture and Joy Fair offering prayer. After announcements, the Beginners' department will present a Daisy Drill Song with these children taking part: Sharon Bush, Georgetta Keefer, Susan Singley, Leslie Orner, Karen Culp, Linda Stevens, Karen Hikes, Kim Hughes, Kathy Ford, and Debbie Kuhn. There will be songs and finger plays.

The offering will be received by the pastor, the Rev. Paul L. Reaser, with the following serving as ushers from the Intermediate department: Gilson Sheffer, Don Smith, Skip Sheely, William Swope, Robert Baker and Barry Bixler. There will be a trombone solo by John Longanecker accompanied by his father, Edwin Longanecker.

Pupils of the Nursery department will present songs and fing r plays. Then pupils from the Primary department will present a section of the program assisted by three members of the Junior Department. "The Zephyr" will be recited by Elsa Heimemer, Barbara Allison and Linda Sterner with motions by members of the First grade.

"Children's Day" will be recited by this group of Primary youngsters with each one representing a

CONCERT GROUP PLANS FOR FALL

The last week in September was set as the date for the annual membership campaign of the Gettysburg Concert Association at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday evening at the home of Dr. Jacob W. Heikkinen, Springs Ave.

Organizational strategy and pre-campaign plans were discussed at the meeting at which Miss Camilla Campbell, of Community Concerts Inc., was a special guest.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler was appointed as dinner chairman for the workers. Mrs. Henry M. Scharf was named publicity chairman and Dr. Clarence Bartholomew, appointments chairman.

The next meeting of the board of directors will be held September 9 at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Wednesday evening an executive committee meeting preceded the board meeting at 8 o'clock.

Stops At Crossing, Car Is Hit In Rear

Damage totaled $90 when two cars collided at the intersection of Baltimore and Middle Sts. at 12:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Borough police said Isabella N. Wills, Fairfield, was turning north from E. Middle St. into Baltimore and halted her car to permit pedestrians to cross when an auto driven by Julianne Orner, 33 E. Middle St., struck the rear fender of the Wills auto. Damage was $40 to the Wills car, $50 to the Orner vehicle.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

TAKEN TO JAIL

Clarence Atteberry, 21, formerly of Florida, was committed to jail Wednesday evening in default of bail by Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder after he had pleaded guilty to a morals charge involving a 14-year-old girl.

Commissioners Name Group To Make "Thorough Study" Of County Home Situation

The Adams County commissioners Wednesday afternoon announced the appointment of a non-partisan committee to "make a thorough and intensive study of the Adams County home situation."

Named to the committee were A. W. Butterfield, Gettysburg R. D. farmer and Gettysburg College instructor, who will serve as chairman; Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist; Mrs. John S. Rice, prominent in many community activities; Lee M. Hartman, local realtor, and Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, active in Littlestown community affairs.

Following a meeting with Butterfield Wednesday afternoon the commissioners said October 1 had been set as the date for the report by the committee.

The committee will study the operation of the home in the past, present and its future operation.

Poses Many Questions

The committee may present any number of recommendations: renovation of the present home, a new county home, at possibly a new site, or a sort of "foster home" plan.

The committee was urged by the commissioners to make a thorough study.

Public hearings may be held, the commissioners said, by the committee during its study, or by the commissioners after the final report is presented.

E. Donald Scott, chairman of the board of commissioners, said: "Whatever decision is reached by the commissioners, it will be a decision affecting the county for a long time. That is the reason we have asked this committee to make a thorough study, so that any decision will be based on all facts and represent the best possible solution. Ours is not the only county in which there is a county home problem. Nor is this a problem simply of buildings and grounds. People are living longer, and with the advance of medical science and increased spread of social security and pension plans it is obvious that there will be changes in needs in future years.'"

Middies Will Cheer Countian

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — A Californian will be first in the line of 850 midshipmen receiving diplomas from the U.S. Naval Academy tomorrow, and a Pennsylvanian will be last.

But Hanvey's applause probably won't be any louder than that for "anchor man" Robert L. Daughenbaugh, New Oxford, captain of the wrestling team. For his feat of having finished last and still managing to graduate, cheering classmates will hoist Daughenbaugh to their shoulders and he'll wave a papier mache anchor as his company gets its diplomas.

ONE INJURED IN THREE CRASHES; $2,600 DAMAGES

One person was injured and damage totalled $2,600 in three automobile accidents investigated by state police from the local sub-station Wednesday afternoon.

Upsets In Ditch

A car and a tractor trailer were involved in an accident seven miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. at 1:30 o'clock.

State police said Florine McAlphine, 50, St. Petersburg, Fla., was driving north when an unidentified car entered the Emmitsburg Rd. from a private drive and Mrs. McAlphine slowed her sedan to avoid striking the car. Elmer H. Drum, 28, Cogan Station R. 2, Pa., driving

EX-GOP HEAD HELPS PARTY

John H. Basehore, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee for 16 years until he declined to seek another term a little more than a year ago, has learned that his long and faithful service to the GOP in Pennsylvania has not come to and end.

When George Bloom, chairman of the Pennsylvania committee, learned that only one Adams Countian had purchased a $100 ticket to the GOP-sponsored performance of the Ringling Bros. circus in the Hershey sports arena Friday night, he appealed to Basehore to get back in harness.

Bloom telephoned Basehore and informed him that no effort was being made in Adams County to sell tickets to help replenish the depleted Republican treasury. He asked the former chairman to "come to the aid of his party." Basehore accepted the challenge.

Today Basehore forwarded $1,400 to the state chairman . . . fourteen Adams Countians, personally solicited by Basehore, had willingly purchased tickets.

"No one said no," Basehore said. "The only trouble was that nobody made an effort to sell the tickets."

LICENSED TO MARRY

DEALERS TO MEET

JAIL 3 YOUTHS FOR BURGLARY

Russell William Millhimes, 22, and Donald LeRoy Himes, 20, were in the Adams County jail today on charges arising from a $92 burglary occurring two years ago.

Implicated with the two is George Eugene Smead, aged about 20, currently on probation from another charge, who is to be picked up by probation authorities. All three are from Biglerville.

The three are accused of entering the Wagner service station on March 13, 1955, and stealing a man's gold watch valued at $37.50, a $10 pocket watch, a tire worth $25 and ten boxes of shotgun and rifle shells valued at $20.

Papers Are Filed In Three Estates

The will of Dr. Albert Woomer, late of Gettysburg, has been entered for probate at the office of the Adams County register and recorder. The First National Bank of Gettysburg and Lee M. Hartman, 56 Hanover St., are executors of the "in excess of $35,000" estate.

The will of Jeanette S. Mehring, late of Littlestown, has also been entered for probate. Edward J. Mehring, York, is executor of the $7,000 estate.

An administration bond in the $850 estate of Mervin U. Bream, late of Gettysburg, has been filed with the register and recorder by the widow, Elizabeth V. Bream, 310 N. Stratton St.

3 TREATED AT HOSPITAL

Michael Hankey, 2½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hankey, R. 5, was treated Wednesday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of the right arm.

Miss Helen Millhimes, 42, New Oxford R. 2, received treatment after being bitten on the right hand by a dog Wednesday.

Raymond Etheridge, 37, Rocky Ridge, Md., was treated for lacerations of the tips of the second, third and fourth fingers received while using an electric table saw.

HUBCAP STOLEN

Earl Walmer, 457 W. Middle St., reported to borough police at 7:15 o'clock this morning that a locked hub cap had been stolen from his car during the night.

SEEKS TO SAVE LIFE OF MOON, JUDGE SLAYER

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Theodore H. Schmidt (D-Allegheny) yesterday introduced a bill which he said he hopes will save the life of the condemned judge killer, Norman W. Moon of Connellsville.

Schmidt's proposal, referred to the Senate Judiciary General Committee, would force the courts to accept the decision of a sanity commission that a prisoner condemned to death is insane. At present the court can disregard the recommendation.

"Yes, this is introduced because of the Moon case," Schmidt said after submitting the proposal. "I hope it does save him—it's intended to, if possible."

Last Thursday the State Supreme Court refused to set aside the death penalty for Moon. He was convicted of the fatal pistol slaying of Judge Allison D. Wade in January, 1954, in the Warren County Court.

"Mentally Ill"

A sanity commission named by the lower court, as requested by Moon, found him to be mentally ill and said he should be sent to a mental institution. But the court declared him sane and sentenced him to death.

The Schmidt bill would prevent any person found insane by two qualified physicians from being executed "until such time as he has been re-examined and found to be sane by two qualified physicains or a sanity commission properly convened."

It states that when a convicted killer is found insane "it shall be the duty of the court to order the transfer of such person to a state hospital for patients convicted of crime."

Other new Senate bills would:

Allow school districts to provide transportation for parochial and private school students—Barr (D-Allegheny).

Create a state highway planning commission of 15 members to be approved by the governor—Dent (D-Westmoreland), Wade (R-Cumberland).

ORRTANNA — A Children's Day program will be presented by the Mt. Carmel EUB Sunday School June 23 at 11 a.m. The Rev. Roger E. Burtner is the pastor.

Approximately $275 was cleared from the turkey supper held at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church May 18. The proceeds have been applied to the building fund.

A pilgrimage will be taken Sunday afternoon, June 8, by members of the Mt. Carmel EUB Sunday School and Church to the Isaac Long barn, near Lancaster the scene of great revivals in the past. The pastor, Rev. Roger Burner, will accompany the group.

Thirty-five pupils were enrolled at a two-week Bible School at the local Methodist Church Monday morning. Mrs. Margaret King is the superintendent with the following teachers in charge: Juniors, Mrs. Althea March; Intermediate, Mrs. Mary Tressler; Primary, Mrs. Ruth Donaldson, and Kindergarten, Mrs. Betty Donaldson. The Rev. Eugene Steiner preached his farewell sermon to the congregation Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bowman and children, Glenda and John, Chambersburg R. 5, visited Sunday with the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Saum, at the H. B. Saum home.

Miss Joyce Musselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Musselman, and Danny Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roth, have completed their Junior year as students at Bluffton College, Bluffton, Ohio, and have returned to their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tressler entertained on Sunday their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas Jr., and son, Mark, York.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hughes, York R. 2, and Gene Funt, York, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Carl McDannel, step-father and mother of Gene and Mrs. Hughes. Gene returned on May 22 from Phoenix, Ariz., where he spent six months due to ill health. He is reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wentz and family, Hanover, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chapman, parents of Mrs. Wentz.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Martz and son, George, York, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shulley and son, Albert, Charmian, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Shulley, parents of Raymond and Mrs. Martz.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fox and family moved last Friday from the Ditzler apartment here to a property of the C. H. Musselman Co., Gettysburg R. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pepple and son, Lowell, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Brady Hill, Chambersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapman visited Saturday with Mr. Chapman's cousin, Mrs. David Eline, New Oxford, who is a patient at the Hanover Hospital.

Mrs. Wilmer Wetzel, Arthur Wetzel and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stansbury returned Sunday from a five-day 800-mile auto trip to Williamsburg, Jamestown and Monticello, Va., and other points of interest.

Miss Helen Lee Kittinger and Bernard Tucker, Lancaster, spent Sunday with the former's uncl. and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Donaldson.

The first Ph.D. degree presented in the United States was at Yale in 1861.

CHARGES STATE "PERSECUTED" THOMAS EVANS

By BOB HOLTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Pottsville attorney today accused the Commonwealth of persecuting the former chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission in the multimillion dollar conspiracy trial.

H.G. Stutzman said the state's charges that former Chairman Thomas J. Evans conspired with others to defraud the turnpike of 19½ million dollars was "not prosecution—but persecution."

Evans and eight others are on trial in Dauphin County Court on indictments recommended by a special grand jury which spent six months investigating turnpike operations under former Republican control.

Used Discretion

"Mr. Evans and Mr. Torrance have always exercised sound discretion in awarding contracts," Stutzman told the court.

James F. Torrance, Export, suspended commissioner, and Evans are charged with misconduct in office and conspiracy.

The charges center around mine void filling contracts between the commission and Manu - Mine Research and Development Co., Reading.

"Had it been necessary for the commission to spend billions of dollars for safety . . . if one life were saved, it would have been worthwhile," Stutzman said.

Called "Dedicated"

Ernest S. Burch, Harrisburg, spoke for Torrance in an opening statement and described him as a man "dedicated" to the safe operation of the turnpike. Burch noted that Torrance's 10-year term as a commission member expired last Tuesday—the day the conspiracy trial began.

Meanwhile, another attorney for Evans said he would rely "greatly" on commonwealth witnesses to win his case.

STUDY FALLOUT OF BOMB TESTS

LONDON (AP) — Air Commodore Denis Wilson, a leading British radiologist, arrived home today with the eyewitness claim that the second British H-bomb exploded last week was "clean" — for the time being.

He told newsmen: "There was no fallout at all. But ultimately the fallout will come down — sometime in the next year or two."

Within an hour of the exposion Wilson flew in a light Canberra bomber through the huge cloud of atom dust hanging in the stratosphere. The radioactive samples he collected were analyzed at Christmas Island, the British test base, and later flown to London.

Wilson is due to return to Christmas Island at the weekend. His report, believed to concentrate mainly on health dangers from fallout, will be studied by Prime Minister Macmillan and Sir William Penney, British nuclear chief.

The News Chronicle said today that initial findings on the second test explosion "indicate that Britain now leads the world with its nuclear weapons."

Numismatists Form County Society Here

The Gettysburg Numismatic Society was organized by 18 charter members at a meeting at the courthouse Wednesday evening and Edward L. Weikert was elected as the first president.

The other officers are E. Ward Russell, Silver Spring, Md., vice president, and Mrs. Lolita Charles, Cashtown, secretary-treasurer. Each person present told how he or she had started a coin collection. They ranged from finding an old coin in a potato patch to having been handed an odd foreign coin in exchange for service or merchandise. George Olinger, Norbert Oyler, Alex Chritzman and Mrs. Weikert displayed coin collections and described them.

The next meeting will be held July 9 in the meeting room in the courthouse basement. All coin collectors are invited to attend.

STEELS, OILS GAIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels and some oils made gains as the stock market moved generally higher in fairly active early trading today.

Leading issues rose from fractions to around a point but there was a good scattering of small losers.

The steels were ahead moderately except for Lukens which gained more than 2. Youngstown Sheet advanced more than a point. Gains by U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic steel were fractional.

Reports of rising prices for steel scrap in the Pittsburgh district accompanied the advance in steels.

CORRECTION

The Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church met at the parish house Wednesday evening for their last meeting of the season. The new president, Mrs. George Montgomery, outlined the program for the coming year's work when the emphasis will be on missions both domestic and foreign.

Plans were discussed for expanding the active membership of the auxiliary and members will adopt as a summer project a program of calling upon women of the church to urge them to support the auxiliary more actively. An invitation will be sent to Mrs. Marc Bodine, dioceson president, t attend the September meeting of the local group as guest speaker that evening.

These chairmen were appointed: United Thank Offering, Mrs. Walter Powell; Supply Missions, Mrs. Marvin Pond; Worship, Mrs. Charles Brinton; and Christian Social Relations, Mrs. Clifton Lowe. Mrs. Nathaniel Knowles, superintendent of the Church School, told of the need for summer substitute teachers. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

400 MOTORISTS GUIDE PLANE TO SAFE LANDING

KANE, Pa. (AP)—Some 400 motorists turned their autos into a mobile power unit last night and safely guided a small plane caught in a violent electrical storm, to a safe anding on a golf course.

The plane, a Piper tri-seater, ran into the storm over Kane en route from Pittsburgh to Watertown, N.Y. Unable to fly through the pilot began circling Kane in hopes of attracting attention.

The plane droned over this small northern Pennsylvania community of about 6,000, about 40 miles southeast of Erie, Pa., for 30 minutes before a fire alarm brought a stream of cars to the Kane Country Club.

State police and volunteer firemen lined them up on both sides of a fairway paralleling Route 6 and lighted an improvised runway with their headlights.

The plane circled for about 15 minutes more and then landed on the No. 3 fairway. It crossed the green and bounced off a bunker over into another runway.

The pilot, Walter Peterson, of Watertown, N.Y., and his passengers, Ted Detchner, also of Watertown, and Warren Brown of Adams, N.Y., climbed out of the plane unhurt, grinning happily.

Peterson told state police he was unable to make radio contact for static from the storm. He said he also was unable to see the lights of the Bradford-McKean Airport, about 15 miles from Kane.

Urges Study Of Cleric's Salary

BOSTON (AP) — The salary of the clergy should hold first priority in any increase in parish budgets, according to Episcopal Bishop Frederic C. Lawrence of the Massachusetts Diocese.

Bishop Lawrence, speaking at his annual diocesan convention, said his greatest impression since he took office "has been the dedication and sacrifice of the great body of clergy of this diocese and of their wives."

". . . Nevertheless, in many rectories the financial problem deserves serious attention," he went on. "Clergy salaries have fallen far behind in the salary scale. Particularly this is true where clergy have been serving the same parish for a number of years."

Lutheran Groups Help Hungarians

NEW YORK (AP) — Life has begun anew on the tree-shaded campuses of American colleges for 26 Hungarian refugee youths.

Six months ago they were fighting for their lives in the streets of Budapest. Today they have swapped their rifles and "Molotov cocktails" for textbooks and other paraphernalia of the U. S. college freshmen.

The students, whose entry to this country was sponsored by the Lutheran Refugee Service, are enrolled under scholarships at Lutheran colleges and universities in 11 states.

Urges Passage; Correct Spelling

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — Although the Senate General Affars Committee said it was recommending passage of two freedom-of-information bills, one of the measures reached the Senate with a recommendation for amendment.

The bills, advocated by the North Dakota Press Assn. and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, would require that records and meetings of boards, commissions and other public bodies be open.

The amendment?

To correct the spelling of "Accessible."

Brings 10-Pound Alibi To Court

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — A motorist charged with driving while his license was suspended and leaving the scene of a property-damage accident brought a 10-pound alibi to traffic court and won dismissal of his case.

He pleaded he was rushing his wife to a hospital when his car struck another. Offered as an exhibit to substantiate the alibi was a new daughter, born a few hours after the accident.

Judge James O'Brien cleared the motorist of the charges, saying the dismissal was a gift to the mother.

IKE WILL SEE NAVAL MIGHT ON SARATOGA

His plane, the Columbine III, landed at Mayport just east of Jacksonville. The President immediately went aboard the Saratoga.

He was accompanied by three Cabinet officers and other officials.

Returns Friday

Eisenhower will be aboard the 60,000-ton carrier until early tomorrow afternoon, when he will go ashore at the Mayport base and fly back to Washington.

The Saratoga is planning both daylight and after-dark spectacular demonstrations for the President 60 to 100 miles off the Florida east coast.

The schedule includes an exhibition of aircraft techniques used in the firing of atomic and conventional weapons, the launching of three types of guided missiles, and a demonstration of antisubmarine warfare tactics.

Offense Today

The training exercises arranged for today call for concentration on offense, to show the striking power of the supercarrier and its aircraft. Tomorrow the emphasis will be on air defense.

This is the final stage of the Saratoga's "training up" for deployment soon to the Mediterranean, where she will join the U. S. 6th Fleet on patrol duty.

In the presidential party are Secretary of Defense Wilson; Secretary of State Dulles; Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey; Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Secretary of the Navy Gates; Arthur Larson, chief of the U. S. Information Agency; Budget Director Percival Brundage; Gordon Gray, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization; Eisenhower's son John, an Army major assigned temporarily to the White House; and several White House staff members.

Joining up on the Saratoga were Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, and Rear Adm. Robert B. Pirie, commander of the Saratoga task group of warships.

Princess Eases Her Aching Foot

LONDON (AP) — Not since Adlai Stevenson got caught with a hole in his sole has a foot been such news.

In five of the six other papers Meg's tootsy made page one.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The last contingents of the 33,000 Chinese Nationalist troops rushed here to quell anti-American demonstrations May 24 were withdrawn from the city today. Troops normally stationed in Taipei remained. The martial law proclaimed after the riots also remained in force, but conditions generally were normal.

Off-Beat Circuit Offers Opportunity

NEW YORK (AP) — Off-Broadway's current boom in dramas of social themes and minority problems is providing opportunity galore to talent that might wait long for its big chance on the Great White Way.

The latest addition is "Simply Heavenly" which opens in May with an all-Negro cast. Luther Langston Huges has been described by one critic as "the Moliere of Harlem," and the play is based on his prize-winning novel "Simple Takes a Wife."

Two other attractions with Negro casts scored heavily with the critics previously, "A Land Across the River" and "Take A Giant Step."

GRATE PLAN

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The government is giving away oil stoves to small landowners in some areas in a campaign to preserve the forests.

Forests in many places are being cut for use as firewood, although only dead wood is supposed to be used for that purpose

Premex, the government petroleum monopoly, donates the stoves. They are distributed by Agrarian Department officials, who explain at the same time the value of trees to agriculture.

President George Washington received an honorary degree in 1790 from Brown University in Rhode Island.

KILLS HERSELF AFTER QUARREL

LINDLEY, N. Y. (AP)—A teen-age girl ended a quarrel with a boy friend in a roadside inn last night by running along a highway and throwing herself to her death in the path of a moving automobile.

The authorities said that the victim, Miss Emma Jean Short, 19, of Osceola, Pa., committed suicide.

Several witnesses told police they saw the girl running along Route 15 and suddenly throw herself into the path of a northbound auto. The scene of the tragedy was about two miles north of the Pennsylvania border.

The girl's companion, Gordon Jessup, 25, also of Osceola, told police that he and the girl had quarreled a moment before in a roadside inn nearby.

Jessup said that he was trying to calm the girl down when she broke away from him and ran to her death.

The police did not say what the couple quarreled about.

Coroner Wayne Templer of Steuben County said he would issue a certificate of accidental death.

A horse and automobile collided recently near Knoxville, Tenn. The car was completely demolished. The horse's jaw had a slight fracture, nothing serious.

IKE WILL SEE NAVAL MIGHT ON SARATOGA

His plane, the Columbine III, landed at Mayport just east of Jackonsville. The President immediately went aboard the Saratoga.

He was accompanied by three Cabinet officers and other officials.

Returns Friday

Eisenhower will be aboard the 60,000-ton carrier until early tomorrow afternoon, when he will go ashore at the Mayport base and fly back to Washington.

The Saratoga is planning both daylight and after-dark spectacular demonstrations for the President 60 to 100 miles off the Florida east coast.

The schedule includes an exhibition of aircraft techniques used in the firing of atomic and conventional weapons, the launching of three types of guided missiles, and a demonstration of antisubmarine warfare tactics.

Offense Today

The training exercises arranged for today call for concentration on offense, to show the striking power of the supercarrier and its aircraft. Tomorrow the emphasis will be on air defense.

This is the final stage of the Saratoga's "training up" for deployment soon to the Mediterranean, where she will join the U. S. 6th Fleet on patrol duty.

In the presidential party are Secretary of Defense Wilson; Secretary of State Dulles; Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey; Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Secretary of the Navy Gates; Arthur Larson, chief of the U. S. Information Agency; Budget Director Percival Brundage; Gordon Gray, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization; Eisenhower's son John, an Army major assigned temporarily to the White House; and several White House staff members.

Joining up on the Saratoga were Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of naval operations, and Rear Adm. Robert B. Pirie, commander of the Saratoga task group of warships.

at the time most convenient to them and stay for all or part of the program," Hartzell said.

Hartzell also asked aid of Scouters "and all others interested" in constructing the replica of the Peace Light which will be the gateway for the York-Adams Boy Scout Council delegation at the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge in July.

One hundred seventy-one boys from the York-Adams area, including 21 from the Black Walnut district, will attend the jamboree at Valley Forge July 12 to 18. The gateway will be transported to the campsite July 7.

Expect To Reach Goal

Dean W. E. Tilberg reported that the district "will complete its finance drive by the end of this week. V have every confidence that our goal of $4,100 will be reached."

Allen Stauffer, public relations chairman, reported that "we have made all arrangement asked by other Boy Scout Councils for visits by their Scouts here while enroute to Valley Forge for the Jamboree." George Olinger gave a listing of units who will visit here overnight or for a meal enroute to the national encampment.

Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, advancement chairman, reported that Donald Carver, of Troop 73, Gettysburg, had been approved for Star Scout rank and Paul Bowman, of Post 84, had been approved for Life Scout at a meeting of the board of review prior to the district meeting.

83 For Tuckahoe

Reports at the meeting showed 83 boys have been registered so far for Camp Tuckahoe. June 15 was announced as a "work date at Tuckahoe for all Scout officials to prepare the camp for the summer.

Riley who reported on the success of a paper drive by Troop 78 and of plans for Troop and Post 78 to attend the Catholic Scout retreat next week.

Princess Eases Her Aching Foot

LONDON (AP) — Not since Adlai Stevenson got caught with a hole in his sole has a foot been such news.

In five of the six other papers Meg's tootsy made page one.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The last contingents of the 33,000 Chinese Nationalist troops rushed here to quell anti-American demonstrations May 24 were withdrawn from the city today. Troops normally stationed in Taipei remained. The martial law proclaimed after the riots also remained in force, but conditions generally were normal.

CHARGES STATE "PERSECUTED" THOMAS EVANS

By BOB HOLTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Pottsville attorney today accused the Commonwealth of persecuting the former chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission in the multimillion dollar conspiracy trial.

H.G. Stutzman said the state's charges that former Chairman Thomas J. Evans conspired with others to defraud the turnpike of 1¾ million dollars was "not prosecution—but persecution."

Evans and eight others are on trial in Dauphin County Court on indictments recommended by a special grand jury which spent six months investigating turnpike operations under former Republican control.

Used Discretion

"Mr. Evans and Mr. Torrance have always exercised sound discretion in awarding contracts," Stutzman told the court.

James F. Torrance, Export, suspended commissioner, and Evans are charged with misconduct in office and conspiracy.

The charges center around mine void filling contracts between the commission and Manu - Mine Research and Development Co., Reading.

"Had it been necessary for the commission to spend billions of dollars for safety . . . if one life were saved, it would have been worthwhile," Stutzman said.

Called "Dedicated"

Ernest S. Burch, Harrisburg, spoke for Torrance in an opening statement and described him as a man "dedicated" to the safe operation of the turnpike. Burch noted that Torrance's 10-year term as a commission member expired last Tuesday—the day the conspiracy trial began.

Meanwhile, another attorney for Evans said he would rely "greatly" on commonwealth witnesses to win his case.

STUDY FALLOUT OF BOMB TESTS

LONDON (AP) — Air Commodore Denis Wilson, a leading British radiologist, arrived home today with the eyewitness claim that the second British H-bomb exploded last week was "clean" — for the time being.

He told newsmen: "There was no fallout at all. But ultimately the fallout will come down — sometime in the next year or two."

Within an hour of the exposion Wilson flew in a light Canberra bomber through the huge cloud of atom dust hanging in the stratosphere. The radioactive samples he collected were analyzed at Christmas Island, the British test base, and later flown to London.

Wilson is due to return to Christmas Island at the weekend. His report, believed to concentrate mainly on health dangers from fallout, will be studied by Prime Minister Macmillan and Sir William Penney, British nuclear chief.

The News Chronicle said today that initial findings on the second test explosion "indicate that Britain now leads the world with its nuclear weapons."

Numismatists Form County Society Here

The Gettysburg Numismatic Society was organized by 18 charter members at a meeting at the courthouse Wednesday evening and Edward L. Weikert was elected as the first president.

The other officers are E. Ward Russell, Silver Spring, Md., vice president, and Mrs. Lolita Charles, Cashtown, secretary-treasurer. Each person present told how he or she had started a coin collection. They ranged from finding an old coin in a potato patch to having been handed an odd foreign coin in exchange for service or merchandise. George Olinger, Norbert Oyler, Alex Chritzman and Mrs. Weikert displayed coin collections and described them.

The next meeting will be held July 9 in the meeting room in the courthouse basement. All coin collectors are invited to attend.

STEELS, OILS GAIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels and some oils made gains as the stock market moved generally higher in fairly active early trading today.

Leading issues rose from fractions to around a point but there was a good scattering of small losers.

The steels were ahead moderately except for Lukens which gained more than 2. Youngstown Sheet advanced more than a point. Gains by U S Steel, Bethlehem and Republic steel were fractions.

Reports of rising prices for steel scrap in the Pittsburgh district accompanied the advance in steels.

CORRECTION

The cutlines underneath the three-column photograph of the Bendersville garage in Wednesday's edition should have read as follows: Dale R. Orner, L. J. Orner, manager, Francis J. Mum And Glum

Dave Beck Jr. presented this glum appearance in Washington Tuesday as he testified before the Senate rackets investigating committee during its probe of Teamster union affairs. The son of the union president was mum when questioned. He invoked the Fifth Amendment 19 times in eight minutes, even declining to say whether he knew his father. (AP Wirephoto)

400 MOTORISTS GUIDE PLANE TO SAFE LANDING

KANE, Pa. (AP)—Some 400 motorists turned their autos into a mobile power unit last night and safely guided a small plane caught in a violent electrical storm, to a safe anding on a golf course.

The plane, a Piper tri-seater, ran into the storm over Kane en route from Pittsburgh to Watertown, N.Y. Unable to fly through the pilot began circling Kane in hopes of attracting attention.

The plane droned over this small northern Pennsylvania community of about 6,000, about 40 miles southeast of Erie, Pa., for 30 minutes before a fire alarm brought a stream of cars to the Kane Country Club.

State police and volunteer firemen lined them up on both sides of a fairway paralleling Route 6 and lighted an improvised runway with their headlights.

The plane circled for about 15 minutes more and then landed on the No. 3 fairway. It crossed the green and bounced off a bunker over into another runway.

The pilot, Walter Peterson, of Watertown, N.Y., and his passengers, Ted Detchner, also of Watertown, and Warren Brown of Adams, N.Y., climbed out of the plane unhurt, grinning happily.

Peterson told state police he was unable to make radio contact for static from the storm. He said he also was unable to see the lights of the Bradford-McKean Airport, about 15 miles from Kane.

Urges Study Of Cleric's Salary

BOSTON (AP) — The salary of the clergy should hold first priority in any increase in parish budgets, according to Episcopal Bishop Frederic C. Lawrence of the Massachusetts Diocese.

Bishop Lawrence, speaking at his annual diocesan convention, said his greatest impression since he took office "has been the dedication and sacrifice of the great body of clergy of this diocese and of their wives"

". . . Nevertheless, in many rectories the financial problem deserves serious attention," he went on. "Clergy salaries have fallen far behind in the salary scale. Particularly this is true where clergy have been serving the same parish for a number of years."

Lutheran Groups Help Hungarians

NEW YORK (AP) — Life has begun anew on the tree-shaded campuses of American colleges for 26 Hungarian refugee youths.

Six months ago they were fighting for their lives in the streets of Budapest. Today they have swapped their rifles and "Molotov cocktails" for textbooks and other paraphernalia of the U. S. college freshmen.

The students, whose entry to this country was sponsored by the Lutheran Refugee Service, are enrolled under scholarships at Lutheran colleges and universities in 11 states.

Urges Passage; Correct Spelling

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — Although the Senate General Affars Committee said it was recommending passage of two freedom-of-information bills, one of the measures reached the Senate with a recommendation for amendment.

The bills, advocated by the North Dakota Press Assn. and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, would require that records and meetings of boards, commissions and other public bodies be open.

The amendment?

Brings 10-Pound Alibi To Court

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — A motorist charged with driving while his license was suspended and leaving the scene of a property-damage accident brought a 10-pound alibi to traffic court and won dismissal of his case.

He pleaded he was rushing his wife to a hospital when his car struck another. Offered as an exhibit to substantiate the alibi was a new daughter, born a few hours after the accident.

Judge James O'Brien cleared the motorist of the charges, saying the dismissal was a gift to the mother.

Today's Talk

THE LONELY ROAD

I have a painting called "The Lonely Road." It is done by the fine American painter Eugene Higgins. It is the picture of a man much past middle life, I would say. He is ascending a steep hill, looking quite burdened, with a heavy staff as a help. A dog travels behind him, treading silently but undoubtedly in his dog meditative mood.

The painting is rather somber in color, but very beautifully done. It attracted me many years ago, and I have speculated in my mind about it for years. It has seemed to me to be a picture of life, when loneliness captures so much of one and when the burdens get heavy, with only God and man's best earthly friend as a guidance and as an assurance against loneliness itself.

As I have looked upon this work of art I have been intrigued. Where are that burdened man and his dog going? Did he have a family, children, friends? What could his destination be? Do we all, to some extent, arrive at a time of life when loneliness throws us back upon ourselves and tells us how dependent we are? I am reminded of that line in Burton's "The Kasidah" where he says: "From none but self expect applause." And there is that statement by Dr. Samuel Johnson to a young friend: "The thought just comes to me that there are no letters delivered to the grave."

Wendell Phillips, the brilliant orator, met Nora Perry, the poet, upon the street of Boston one day and inquired where she was going. She said: "To see a friend." "Oh, take me with you," said Phillips. "I want to meet one!" Loneliness is no respecter of people. Lincoln was a very lonely man. His favorite poem was that one by William Knox, "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal Be Proud?" The greater a person is the loneller he is apt to be.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "This Thing Called Love"

Just Folks

LUCKY LAD

Dear Mother, in a cap and gown
Your little boy appeared.
I wonder were you looking down
And was your spirit cheered,
And did you know, so far away
When he was at your knee,
That possibly would come the day
When honored he would be?

That little boy of bygone days—
You loved whate'er occurred —
Was wondering when they spoke to praise
If what was said you heard.
Friends never know, and never can,
Just what has been achieved;
But what they say unto a man
Your little boy received.

The man who wore that cap and gown,
Forgetting all behind,
The up-hill struggle to renown,
That day had you in mind.
And though his hair is silver gray,
Grateful and proud and glad,
Was still, as oft you used to say,
"Your lucky little lad."

GIRARD PICKS WAR CRIMES TRIALS VET FOR DEFENSE

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—GI William Girard has picked a Japanese veteran of World War II war crimes trials to head his defense against charges of causing the death of a Japanese woman on a military firing range.

The Army announced today the Ottawa, Ill., soldier had selected Itsuro Hayashi as his chief attorney compiled by the U. S. Embassy. Girard is scheduled to be tried by a Japanese court. No date has been set.

Hayashi, defense counsel before the International Military Tribunal for the Far East from 1946-49, said he planned to meet Girard for the first time tomorrow. He told reporters he could make no announcement of defense plans yet.

Others To Assist

"Everything about the entire case will depend upon my discussions with Girard tomorrow," he said.

The Army announcement said Girard also had asked Maj. Stanley F. Lebin, 49, Hollywood, Calif., to serve as his personal legal adviser. Levin is a member of the judge advocate's office of the 1st Cavalry Division.

In Ottawa, Louis Girard, brother of the accused soldier, said he had hired Earl J. Carroll, a former Air Force major who has been prominently identified with the defense of GIs overseas, to serve as defense counsel.

To Ask Injunction

Carroll said in New York he would file a writ of habeas corpus in U. S. District Court in Washington today, charging the U. S. government violated Girard's constitutional rights by authorizing his trial in a Japanese court. Carroll said he would ask the court to order the Army to deliver the soldier to Washington for a hearing.

Carroll said he also plans to seek an injunction restraining the Army from turning Girard over to Japanese authorities for trial.

"National interest is at stake in the outcome of this case," Carroll declared. "How can you drag a man away from his home and business, take him over to Japan and turn him over to the jurisdiction of that country's court for trial without violating his constitutional guarantee?"

International Issue

Girard, an Army specialist third class, has been indicted on charges of "inflicting bodily injury causing death" of the Japanese woman, a charge similar to a manslaughter indictment in the United States. He is accused of firing an empty cartridge case from a grenade launcher and killing Mrs. Naka Sakai, 46, while she picked up scrap metal on a firing range.

The case developed into an international issue when Japanese authorities contended the soldier was not on duty when the fatality occurred and claimed Japan had the right to try him under the status-of-peace agreement with the United States.

Governor Is Accused Of "Blocking" Legislation

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader was under Republican attack today for Democratic roadblocks on money-spending legislation.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, said the governor masterminded a one-two punch that just about scuttled a GOP timetable calling for final adjournment of the 1957 Legislature June 15:

1. The house defeated a 24-million-dollar appropriation to state-aided hospitals when Democrats refused to help Republicans put up the necessary two-thirds vote for passage.

2. Sen. William J. Lane (D—Washington), after a filibuster threat, forced postponement until next Monday of the final senate vote on the mammoth $1,107,000,000 general appropriations bill.

Johnson said Leader dictated the Democratic policy, describing it as "a malicious abuse of the legislative process."

"The constitution was never intended to be used as a bludgeon over the Legislature," said Johnson.

Rep. Albert S. Readinger, floor leader, emphasized his party's vote against the hospital grants was taken only to give the lawmakers more time to act on appropriations.

"It may be necessary to reduce some of these appropriations before the House—should the Senate increase the general appropriations bill," he told the House.

Thirty-six special appropriations totaling nearly 92 million dollars were held up because of the two-thirds majority requirement.

Threaten Filibuster

Republicans backed down on a move to bring the general appropriations bill to a vote today or tomorrow when Lane told them any such action would result in a Democratic filibuster.

The Senate Appropriations Committee scheduled a meeting for today to release the general appropriations bill to the floor. The question was just how the measure would be changed to affect a GOP plan to cut the governor's budget by 94½ million dollars.

Other legislative developments:

Fiscal Information—The Senate approved over Democratic objections a proposal to give the Legislature departmental budget information now considered only within scope of the executive.

Pass Parents Bill

Juvenile Delinquency — The House passed and sent to the Senate legislation to make parents liable for the wrongful acts of their teen-age children in a move to curb juvenile delinquency.

Tie-in Sales — Tie-in sales of magazines and newspapers would be outlawed under a measure unanimously approved by the House and sent to the Senate. The ban would apply if one of the required periodicals are obscene.

Elective Attorney General—By a 123-73 vote the House approved a Senate-passed proposal to amend the constitution to require the attorney general to be elected.

HERE AND THERE

say that I respect and love him as much as I would if he were not my son.

"I claim no credit for his being what he is. Another belief I hold is that people make their own intellectual and moral characters. If he was helped in making his by me—or by his mother, who between you and me might really have been responsible, or by his brother John, whose singular sweetness and generosity and intelligence it would have been a privilege for anybody to grow up with, as in a sense I can say that I have done—if Charlie was helped, I mean, in any way at all, it was he who decided to accept the help. The decision in such matters is finally with ourselves. To say that responsibility begins at home should mean, I think, that it begins—and ends, too — in the individual. Sooner or later he must help himself. There are no alibis.

"Yet as I think of my own father, another Charles Van Doren, I must admit that he was responsible for the very thing I am saying. He was a country doctor in Illinois; and just two days ago, on the 21st of May, he would have been a hundred years old if he had lived. The more I think of him, and of my mother who in this respect was exactly like him, the more I wonder at the faith he had in me and in each of my four brothers. He never doubted us. He was ambitious for us, but he never directed our lives. The main thing was that he left no doubt in our mind, that he loved and trusted us. He was a playful, affectionate man who enjoyed his own life first of all, but who then seemed to consider that the best thing about it was the presence in it of his children. Of course I owe him more that I can say. But that, perhaps, is precisely it. I owe him more than I can say because I owe him more than I shall ever know, unless I know that love and trust are everything.

"So it could be that Charlie has been helped by the affection he has always known his family had for him. I return, however, to my original position. It was a free gift which he was free not to accept. If it had any value as a gift, he gave it that value by his decision, deliberate or otherwise, to receive it as he did those other gifts, from God knows where, which make him what he is today."

Charles Van Doren: "Ladies and Gentlemen: This is the first time I have ever had to speak on the same platform as my father, and I find that it is a very difficult thing to do. Aside from the fact that he was an accomplished speaker before I was born, which means that he is at least thirty-one years up on me, the fact that the occasion is what it is, and that his words were what they were, has moved me more than I can say. There is nothing new about this, however. He has been able to move me, to laughter and to tears, for as long as I can remember.

"Both in public and in private—and that's of the greatest importance. For my father has been, to me, both a public and a private man. Oh, perhaps not as public a man as I have become recently. We have laughed about this, he and I. I doubt if anyone has had a better time that he in this strange and hectic last few months. And his generosity in this respect has given me great joy.

• • •

"But my experience has reminded me of something that he taught me—not consciously, I'm sure, but as an example. For the extraordinary thing about my father is that his public face, and his private face, have been the same. He has been the same man to the world that he has been to his family. And that is harder than it sounds.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Inmates at Wisconsin State Prison are rarely "put in solitary" anymore — instead they lose their radio earphones or other recreational privileges.

The system, according to Warden John Burke, is very effective.

"We had a fellow who actually asked for 'solitary' instead of a 5-day loss of radio privileges," Burke said. "He didn't want to miss the weekend football games."

ONE INJURED IN

a tractor trailer owned by the Lycoming Furniture Co., Williamsport, also headed north, applied his brakes, but his vehicle skidded into the McAlphine car, forcing it off the highway into a ditch where it turned over on its side. Damage was estimated at $150 to the tractor-trailer, $100 to the car.

Two Cars Collide

Damage totaled $200 when two cars collided three miles north of here on the Biglerville Rd. at 1:45 o'clock.

Police said Regina Margaret Asper, 35, Gettysburg R. 3, traveling west on a private drive, turned into the Gettysburg-Biglerville Rd. and headed south. John Rex Evans, 44, Gettysburg R. 1 salesman, operating a car owned by the Central Chemical Corporation, was driving south on the Biglerville Rd. He applied his brakes and sought to drive off the highway to avoid striking Mrs. Asper's car. However, the left rear of Evans' vehicle struck the right rear of the Asper car, causing $50 damage to that vehicle. The Evans car skidded down an enbankment and damage to it was estimated at $150.

PUBLIC RECORDS BILL APPROVED BY HOUSE 175-11

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House today approved 175-11 a bill requiring state and local governmental agencies to open their records to the people.

The plan was approved without debate.

Under the measure public records would be open for examination and inspection by any citizen of Pennsylvania. The only restriction is that the examination be made at "reasonable times."

Goes To Senate

The bill goes to the Senate.

Any citizen also would have the right to make extracts or copies of public records.

The measure was amended to exclude records such as child adoption proceedings or other records closed to the public by the courts which would "prejudice or impair a person's reputation or personal security."

Violators could be fined $100.

Yankees Unload 4 Home Runs And 16 Hits To Breeze Past Tribe 13-3; Redlegs Cool Off Phillies

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Is it only Cleveland's beat-up pitching staff that makes the New York Yankees look good, or have the world champions finally decided to cut the comedy and get down to business in the American League pennant race?

It wasn't until they quit home and pulled into Cleveland that the Yankees managed to regain any kind of an attack, running up 20 runs on 28 hits in two games. The champs had scored only 20 runs in the previous six games—against tailenders Baltimore and Washington—and had lost four of them.

Then they started swinging against the Injuns' weary staff, overworked with the loss of injured Herb Score and Bob Lemon and without a complete game since May 26.

Sixth Loss For Wynn

Early Wynn lost his sixth last night as the Yankees unloaded four home runs and 16 hits for a 13-3 breeze. It was their third in a row, but left them five games behind the first-place White Sox and also left them without catcher Yogi Berra, who suffered a broken nose when a foul tip broke his mask.

The White Sox kept their surprising pace—winning 19 of 24—with a 6-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Detroit moved into a fourth place tie with Boston by defeating Washington 3-2 in 11 innings. Kansas City defeated Baltimore 3-2.

In the National, Cincinnati's Redlegs cooled off Philadelphia 4-2 in 11 innings for a two-game lead. The Phils slipped to third, 2½ back, as Brooklyn took over second with a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Fourth-place Milwaukee, three games behind, beat New York 9-8 in a game that had nine home runs, six by the Giants. St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 5-1.

5 RBI's For McDougald

Wynn, a 37-year-old knuckleballer retired the first 10 Yankees before Gil McDougald belted the first of his two home runs and Mickey Mantle followed with his 12th homer in a four-run sixth. McDougald homered again in a seven-run fifth and singled in his next at bat for a total of five runs batted in. Bill Skowron homered and drove in four runs.

Dick Donovan won his fifth for the White Sox, who took a 3-2 lead in the fifth with a pair of runs on Billy Klaus' two-out error and a bases-loaded walk by loser Tom Brewer. Donovan gave eight hits—two to Ted Williams, who now is hitting .401—but permitted only two after the third inning.

Pinch Single Wins

Bill Tuttle, benched for weak hitting, delivered a pinch single in the 11th to win for the Tigers. Paul Foytack won his sixth, relieving in the ninth when the Senators tied it against starter Frank Lary.

Home runs by Gus Zernial and Lou Skizzas won for the A's. Arnie Portocarrero won it, with relief help.

The Redlegs handed the Phils their third defeat in the last 10 games on an error, Jerry Lynch's pinch triple and Roy McMillan's single for two 11th-inning runs against losing reliever Dick Farrell. Ed Bouchee's inside-the-park homer had given the Phils a 2-1 lead in the sixth, but Cincy tied it in the ninth, again with the help of an error. Johnny Klippstein won it in relief.

1st Shutout For Don

Sophomore Don Drysdale claimed his first major league shutout for the Brooks with a five-hitter. He struck out nine. Gino Cimoli drove in two runs, with his sacrifice fly breaking up a duel with Don Kaiser in the sixth. The Dodgers, winning their third in a row, iced it with three in the eighth.

An eighth-inning triple by Bob Malkmus—his first major league hit in 14 at bats—and a passed ball won for the Braves and reliever Ernie Johnson, who smacked a three-run homer. Joe Adcock and Bobby Thomson also homered for the Braves while Red Schoendienst and Hank Sauer slugged two each and Willie Mays and Whitey Lockman swatted one apiece for the Giants.

Lindy McDaniel won his fifth with a five-hitter after the Cards, who hung a sixth defeat on Bob Friend with a four-run first inning.

AWARD HARNEY PROTEST OVER BONNEAUVILLE

Harney was awarded a forfeit over Bonneauville at a meeting of the South Penn Baseball League which was held Wednesday evening at the American Legion.

The Maryland outfit had protested after it appeared at Bonneauville May 21 to make up a game which had been rained out on May 19. Bonneauville's field was not in condition to play on May 21 but, according to Harney officials, the team was not notified and consequently reported for the makeup game.

It was reported that all teams of the South Penn and Pen-Mar Leagues were in favor of staging an inter-league All-Star game at Littlestown but officials have failed to get together to plan arrangements. Efforts will be made iron out the problem in the near future.

Denny Hartzell, a member of the Mummasburg squad, was elected secretary-treasurer to replace Bobby Miller who has enlisted in the Marines and will report for duty August 1.

Final rosters were approved. Robert Krichten, Brushtown, league president, presided. All teams were represented with the exception of Mummasburg and Littlestown.

Rosters follow:

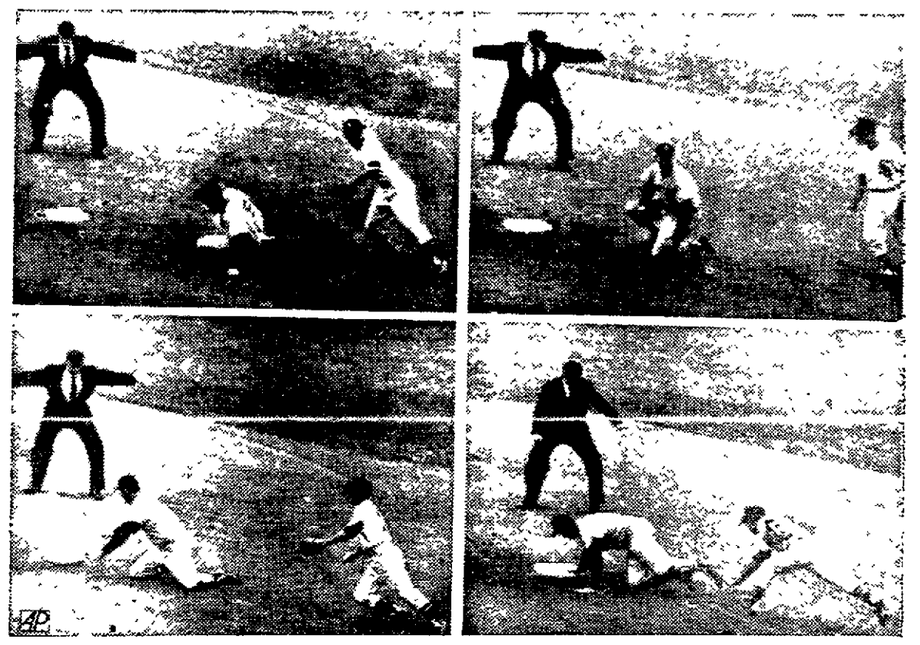
Penalty In Penna.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvanians who invoked the Fifth Amendment to questions about subversive activities would be ineligible for unemployment compensation if a bill sent to Gov. George M. Leader today becomes law. The measure passed in the State Senate 34-8 last night.

Tenth wedding anniversary is, naturally, "the tin anniversary."

Incident At Second



Shortstop Luis Aparicio, of the White Sox, thought he'd forced sliding Ted Williams, of the Boston Red Sox, in the first inning at Chicago Wednesday. But umpire Bill Runge ruled Aparicio's foot pulled off bag by bad toss from second baseman Nels Fox, not shown, who fielded the ball. Aparicio then noticed Williams hadn't even reached the bag with his slide, chased him, but crawling Williams just made it. (AP Wirephoto)

TURNER GOES TO HOSPITAL AFTER VICTORY

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A "blood swelling" on the forehead put Gil Turner in a hospital last night after the busy Philadelphia battler had won a split decision over Yama Bahama in a 10-round television fight.

Dr. Samuel Kaplan, physician for the Miami Beach Boxing Commission, said Turner had a blood bli - "the size of half an apple" on his forehead when he emerged from the vigorous scrap with his opponent from Bimini in the Bahama Islands.

On the chance that Turner might have suffered a concussion, Kaplan ordered him into a hospital.

Avenges Beating

"I felt he should be placed under observation," the physician said. "If he is bright and chipper in the morning, it may be all right for him to go home. But to be on the safe side I think he should remain in the hospital three or four days."

Turner's victory avenged a beating he took from Bahama a year ago but there was a great difference of opinion over who actually won last night's rousing scrap in the Miami Beach Auditorium.

There were loud boos from the crowd of 2,068 when it was announced that Turner had been given a split decision. Judge Gus Jacobson voted for Turner 96-95 and Referee Cy Gottfried gave Turner a 97-96 edge.

Judge Stu Winston gave Bahama a 97-94 margin and The Associated Press also voted for Bahama 98-97.

Hanover's Dizzy Dean will lead the NASCAR drivers back into action Saturday night at the Lincoln Speedway, near Abbottstown. Dean finished his first feature race last Saturday in the second spot behind George Kessler, York. Both will enter Saturday's race.

The close competition is shown by the fact that in four features this year there have been four winners—Troy Funk, Bob Able, Gene Goodling and George Kessler.

Among the 40-odd drivers who will take part in the program which starts at 8:30 will be Will Musselman, Russ Delp, Jimmy Winnbrenner, Tommy Starner. Goodling Stan Thomas and Buzz Wilson.

Two Ex-Champions In Tourney Finals

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Two college girls and two former champions tee off in the Central Pennsylvania Women's Amateur Golf Championship today in semifinals regarded as perhaps the best matched in the tournament's history.

Miss Rutherford took the spotlight in yesterday's quarterfinals with a 5 and 4 victory over the defending champion, Mrs. Roger Hetzel of Lancaster.

Miss Fehl moved into the semifinal with a 7 and 5 victory over Mrs. C. B. Heath of Lancaster, Mrs. Dyson advanced 4 and 2 over Mrs. Thomas Outland of Harrisburg. Miss Sullivan scored a 3 and 1 victory over Mrs. T. D. Owings of York.

FORM LITTLE LOOP AT N.O.

The following officers were elected at a meeting for the organization of a baseball program for the 8 to 12-year-old group of boys in the New Oxford area: President, Clyde Garber; vice president, Henry J. Stack; secretary, Lavere Breighner, and treasurer, Ralph M. Alwine.

The name adopted for this program is the New Oxford Twilight Little Baseball League. Seven teams compose the league with 16 boys on each team roster. Games will be played each Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the New Oxford High School diamond. Wednesdays will be held open for playing postponed games.

New Oxford business firms who will sponsor the teams are Aero Oil Co, Alwine Brick Co., L. P. Kooken Co., Lions Club, New Oxford Social and Athletic Club, Winter Gardens and Paul Wagner Inc. The New Oxford Chamber of Commerce will donate an amount equal to that of the team sponsors which will be used to insure all boys and their managers while they are playing.

Those who are working with the teams are Fabe Lawrence, Phil Beamer, Rowlen Huffman, Lloyd Stock Jr., Elvin Harner, Wilbur Wentz, Warren Berkheimer, Fred Smith, Guy Miller, Joe Bievenour, Ben Alwine, Ed McSherry, Rodney Staub, Gene Phiel, Lee Byers, Sam Sipling, Don Kemp, Lavere Breighner and Dave Alwine.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Eastern League standings remained unchanged today as all first division clubs posted victories last night.

Bob Prescott's ninth-inning home run threw Syracuse for a 5-4 setback at Springfield, Gerry Claycomb's pinch-hit single scored Schenectady's winning tally as visiting Reading went down 7-6, and Binghamton pinned loss No. 3 in a row onto Albany, 7-3, at Binghamton.

Binghamton paces the Class A league with a 25-14 record. Schenectady is one game behind and Springfield is two and a half.

Reading is four games off the pace, Albany and Syracuse are way down in the deep freeze, 12 and 13½ games behind respectively.

Little Loop Game Is Washed Out

The Emmitsburg Little League which opened its season Monday, was rained out Wednesday night. Games will be played every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 6:15 p.m.

The first half schedule follows:

FAN MAY HAVE COST PHILLIES IMPORTANT WIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A spectator at the Philadelphia-Cincinnati game last night probably cost the Phillies the victory — and wound up in jail.

In the third inning with one out and the Phillies' Richie Ashburn on first Grannie Hamner lined one down the right-field line. Ashburn was home and Hamner rounded second with the ball still bouncing along when Thomas Harrison of Wilmington, Del. leaned out of the stands and grabbed it.

Ashburn was sent back to third and Hamner to second when the umpires ruled a ground rule double. On the next play Ashburn scored on a slow roller but Hamner who would have been on third but for the interference never reached home.

Needed Protection

Cincinnati later won 4-2 in 11 innings.

And Harrison?

He was escorted from the park by an usher and turned over to police who charged him with disorderly conduct.

Harrison was probably glad of the police protection from the Phillies' fans who saw their team lose a chance to come within a half game of league-leading Cincinnati and drop to third place instead.

FAVOR TEXAS IN COLLEGE SERIES

OMAHA (AP)—As is most often the case, pitching probably will be the determining factor in the winning of the NCAA college world series in the eight team tourney opening Saturday morning.

And because of a mound staff labelled as "good and deep" Texas is getting the role of favorite as the early guesses are made.

The nod to Texas is largely because the Longhorns have two red-hot pitchers in Harry Taylor and Howard Reed, who cooled off a hard hitting Arizona club in the Dist. 6 playoff, and behind them a strong second line.

Texas, the only school to win two straight series (1949-50) opens the series against Connecticut at 10 a.m. (EST), with Penn State, a club that hasn't lost this year over a 19 game schedule, playing Florida State University, at 1 p.m. (EST).

California, the only other series winner (1947) in this year's tourney, opens the night program against Colorado State College at 5 p.m. (EST) with Notre Dame and Iowa State playing at 7 p.m. (EST).

Yankees Unload 4 Home Runs And 16 Hits To Breeze Past Tribe 13-3; Redlegs Cool Off Phillies

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Is it only Cleveland's beat-up pitching staff that makes the New York Yankees look good, or have the world champions finally decided to cut the comedy and get down to business in the American League pennant race?

It wasn't until they quit home and pulled into Cleveland that the Yankees managed to regain any kind of an attack, running up 20 runs on 28 hits in two games. The champs had scored only 20 runs in the previous six games—against tailenders Baltimore and Washington—and had lost four of them.

Then they started swinging against the Injuns' weary staff, overworked with the loss of injured Herb Score and Bob Lemon and without a complete game since May 26.

Sixth Loss For Wynn

Early Wynn lost his sixth last night as the Yankees unloaded four home runs and 16 hits for a 13-3 breeze. It was their third in a row, but left them five games behind the first-place White Sox and also left them without catcher Yogi Berra, who suffered a broken nose when a foul tip broke his mask.

The White Sox kept their surprising pace—winning 19 of 24—with a 6-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Detroit moved into a fourth place tie with Boston by defeating Washington 3-2 in 11 innings. Kansas City defeated Baltimore 3-2.

In the National, Cincinnati's Redlegs cooled off Philadelphia 4-2 in 11 innings for a two-game lead. The Phils slipped to third, 2½ back, as Brooklyn took over second with a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Fourth-place Milwaukee, three games behind, beat New York 9-8 in a game that had nine home runs, six by the Giants. St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 5-1.

5 RBI's For McDougald

Wynn, a 37-year-old knuckleballer retired the first 10 Yankees before Gil McDougald belted the first of his two home runs and Mickey Mantle followed with his 12th homer in a four-run sixth. McDougald homered again in a seven-run fifth and singled in his next at bat for a total of five runs batted in. Bill Skowron homered and drove in four runs.

Dick Donovan won his fifth for the White Sox, who took a 3-2 lead in the fifth with a pair of runs on Billy Klaus' two-out error and a bases-loaded walk by loser Tom Brewer. Donovan gave eight hits—two to Ted Williams, who now is hitting .401—but permitted only two after the third inning.

Pinch Single Wins

Bill Tuttle, benched for weak hitting, delivered a pinch single in the 11th to win for the Tigers. Paul Foytack won his sixth, relieving in the ninth when the Senators tied it against starter Frank Lary.

The Redlegs handed the Phils their third defeat in the last 10 games on an error, Jerry Lynch's pinch triple and Roy McMillan's single for two 11th-inning runs against losing reliever Dick Farrell. Ed Bouchee's inside-the-park homer had given the Phils a 2-1 lead in the sixth, but Cincy tied it in the ninth, again with the help of an error. Johnny Klippstein won it in relief.

1st Shutout For Don

Sophomore Don Drysdale claimed his first major league shutout for the Brooks with a five-hitter. He struck out nine. Gino Cimoli drove in two runs, with his sacrifice fly breaking up a duel with Don Kaiser in the sixth. The Dodgers, winning their third in a row, iced it with three in the eighth.

An eighth-inning triple by Bob Malkmus—his first major league hit in 14 at bats—and a passed ball won for the Braves and reliever Ernie Johnson, who smacked a three-run homer. Joe Adcock and Bobby Thomson also homered for the Braves while Red Schoendienst and Hank Sauer slugged two each and Willie Mays and Whitey Lockman swatted one apiece for the Giants.

Lindy McDaniel won his fifth with a five-hitter after the Cards, who hung a sixth defeat on Bob Friend with a four-run first inning.

AWARD HARNEY PROTEST OVER BONNEAUVILLE

Harney was awarded a forfeit over Bonneauville at a meeting of the South Penn Baseball League which was held Wednesday evening at the American Legion.

The Maryland outfit had protested after it appeared at Bonneauville May 21 to make up a game which had been rained out on May 19. Bonneauville's field was not in condition to play on May 21 but, according to Harney officials, the team was not notified and consequently reported for the makeup game.

It was reported that all teams of the South Penn and Pen-Mar Leagues were in favor of staging an inter-league All-Star game at Littlestown but officials have failed to get together to plan arrangements. Efforts will be made iron out the problem in the near future.

Denny Hartzell, a member of the Mummasburg squad, was elected secretary-treasurer to replace Bobby Miller who has enlisted in the Marines and will report for duty August 1.

Final rosters were approved. Robert Krichten, Brushtown, league president, presided. All teams were represented with the exception of Mummasburg and Littlestown.

Rosters follow:

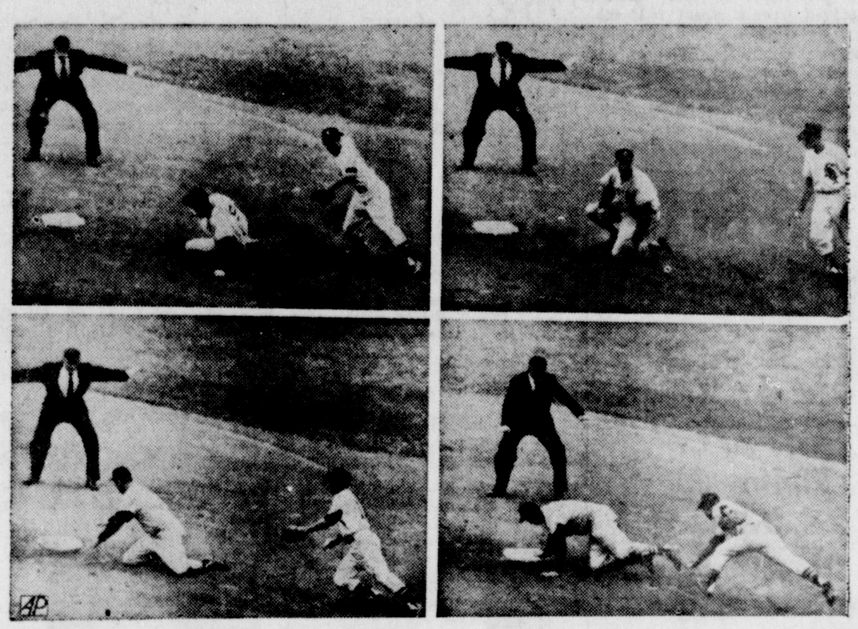
Penalty In Penna.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvanians who invoked the Fifth Amendment to questions about subversive activities would be ineligible for unemployment compensation if a bill sent to Gov. George M. Leader today becomes law. The measure passed in the State Senate 34-8 last night.

Tenth wedding anniversary is, naturally, "the tin anniversary."

Incident At Second



Shortstop Luis Aparicio, of the White Sox, thought he'd forced sliding Ted Williams, of the Boston Red Sox, in the first inning at Chicago Wednesday. But umpire Bill Runge ruled Aparicio's foot pulled off bag by bad toss from second baseman Nels Fox, not shown, who fielded the ball. Aparicio then noticed Williams hadn't even reached the bag with his slide, chased him, but crawling Williams just made it. (AP Wirephoto)

TURNER GOES TO HOSPITAL AFTER VICTORY

By BEN FUNK

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A "blood swelling" on the forehead put Gil Turner in a hospital last night after the busy Philadelphia battler had won a split decision over Yama Bahama in a 10-round television fight.

Dr. Samuel Kaplan, physician for the Miami Beach Boxing Commission, said Turner had a blood bli[illegible] "the size of half an apple" on his forehead when he emerged from the vigorous scrap with his opponent from Bimini in the Bahama Islands.

On the chance that Turner might have suffered a concussion, Kaplan ordered him into a hospital.

Avenges Beating

"I felt he should be placed under observation," the physician said. "If he is bright and chipper in the morning, it may be all right for him to go home. But to be on the safe side I think he should remain in the hospital three or four days."

Turner's victory avenged a beating he took from Bahama a year ago but there was a great difference of opinion over who actually won last night's rousing scrap in the Miami Beach Auditorium.

There were loud boos from the crowd of 2,068 when it was announced that Turner had been given a split decision. Judge Gus Jacobson voted for Turner 96-95 and Referee Cy Gottfried gave Turner a 97-96 edge.

Judge Stu Winston gave Bahama a 97-94 margin and The Associated Press also voted for Bahama 98-97.

FORM LITTLE LOOP AT N.O.

The following officers were elected at a meeting for the organization of a baseball program for the 8 to 12-year-old group of boys in the New Oxford area: President, Clyde Garber; vice president, Henry J. Stack; secretary, Lavere Breighner, and treasurer, Ralph M. Alwine.

The name adopted for this program is the New Oxford Twilight Little Baseball League. Seven teams compose the league with 16 boys on each team roster. Games will be played each Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the New Oxford High School diamond. Wednesdays will be held open for playing postponed games.

New Oxford business firms who will sponsor the teams are Aero Oil Co., Alwine Brick Co., L. P. Kooken Co., Lions Club, New Oxford Social and Athletic Club, Winter Gardens and Paul Wagner Inc. The New Oxford Chamber of Commerce will donate an amount equal to that of the team sponsors which will be used to insure all boys and their managers while they are playing.

Those who are working with the teams are Fabe Lawrence, Phil Beamer, Rowlen Huffman, Lloyd Stock Jr., Elvin Harner, Wilbur Wentz, Warren Berkheimer, Fred Smith, Guy Miller, Joe Bievenour, Ben Alwine, Ed McSherry, Rodney Staub, Gene Phiel, Lee Byers, Sam Sipling, Don Kemp, Lavere Breighner and Dave Alwine.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Eastern League standings remained unchanged today as all first division clubs posted victories last night.

Bob Prescott's ninth-inning home run threw Syracuse for a 5-4 setback at Springfield, Gerry Claycomb's pinch-hit single scored Schenectady's winning tally as visiting Reading went down 7-6, and Binghamton pinned loss No. 3 in a row onto Abany, 7-3, at Binghamton.

Binghamton paces the Class A league with a 25-14 record. Schenectady is one game behind and Springfield is two and a half.

Reading is four games off the pace. Albany and Syracuse are way down in the deep freeze, 12 and 13½ games behind respectively.

FAN MAY HAVE COST PHILLIES IMPORTANT WIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A spectator at the Philadelphia-Cincinnati game last night probably cost the Phillies the victory — and wound up in jail.

In the third inning with one out and the Phillies' Richie Ashburn on first Grannie Hamner lined one down the right-field line. Ashburn was home and Hamner rounded second with the ball still bouncing along when Thomas Harrison of Wilmington, Del. leaned out of the stands and grabbed it.

Ashburn was sent back to third and Hamner to second when the umpires ruled a ground rule double. On the next play Ashburn scored on a slow roller but Hamner who would have been on third but for the interference never reached home.

Needed Protection

Cincinnati later won 4-2 in 11 innings.

And Harrison?

He was escorted from the park by an usher and turned over to police who charged him with disorderly conduct.

Harrison was probably glad of the police protection from the Phillies' fans who saw their team lose a chance to come within a half game of league-leading Cincinnati and drop to third place instead.

FAVOR TEXAS IN COLLEGE SERIES

OMAHA (AP)—As is most often the case, pitching probably will be the determining factor in the winning of the NCAA college world series in the eight team tourney opening Saturday morning.

And because of a mound staff labelled as "good and deep" Texas is getting the role of favorite as the early guesses are made.

The nod to Texas is largely because the Longhorns have two red-hot pitchers in Harry Taylor and Howard Reed, who cooled off a hard hitting Arizona club in the Dist. 6 playoff, and behind them a strong second line.

Texas, the only school to win two straight series (1949-50) opens the series against Connecticut at 10 a.m. (EST), with Penn State, a club that hasn't lost this year over a 19 game schedule, playing Florida State University, at 1 p.m. (EST).

California, the only other series winner (1947) in this year's tourney, opens the night program against Colorado State College at 5 p.m. (EST) with Notre Dame and Iowa State playing at 7 p.m. (EST).

Today's Talk

I have a painting called "The Lonely Road. It is done by the fine American painter Eugene Higgins. It is the picture of a man much past middle life. I would say He is ascending a steep hill, looking quite burdened, with a heavy staff as a help A dog travels behind him, treading silently but undoubtedly in his dog meditative mood

The painting is rather somber in color, but very beautifully done. It attracted me many years ago, and I have speculated in my mind about it for years It has seemed to me to be a picture of life, when loneliness captures so much of one and when the burdens get heavy, with only God and man's best earthly friend as a guidance and as an assurance against loneliness itself

As I have looked upon this work of art I have been intrigued. Where are that burdened man and his dog going? Did he have a family, children, friends? What could his destination be? Do we all, to some extent, arrive at a time of life when loneliness throws us back upon ourselves and tells us how dependent we are? I am reminded of that line in Burton's "The Kasidah" where he says: "From none but self expect applause." And there is that statement by Dr. Samuel Johnson to a young friend: "The thought just comes to me that there are no letters delivered to the grave"

Wendell Phillips, the brilliant orator, met Nora Perry, the poet, upon the street of Boston one day and inquired where she was going. She said: "To see a friend." "Oh, take me with you," said Phillips "I want to meet one!" Loneliness is no respecter of people. Lincoln was a very lonely man. His favorite poem was that one by William Knox, "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal Be Proud?" The greater a person is the lonelier he is apt to be.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "This Thing Called Love"

Just Folks

LUCKY LAD

Dear Mother, in a cap and gown
Your little boy appeared.
I wonder were you looking down
And was your spirit cheered,
And did you know, so far away
When he was at your knee,
That possibly would come the day
When honored he would be?

That little boy of bygone days—
You loved whate'er occurred —
Was wondering when they spoke to praise
If what was said you heard.
Friends never know, and never can,
Just what has been achieved;
But what they say unto a man
Your little boy received.

The man who wore that cap and gown,
Forgetting all behind,
The up-hill struggle to renown,
That day had you in mind.
And though his hair is silver gray,
Grateful and proud and glad,
Was still, as oft you used to say,
"Your lucky little lad."

GIRARD PICKS WAR CRIMES TRIALS VET FOR DEFENSE

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—GI William Girard has picked a Japanese veteran of World War II war crimes trials to head his defense against charges of causing the death of a Japanese woman on a military firing range.

The Army announced today the Ottawa, Ill., soldier had selected Itsuro Hayashi as his chief attorney compiled by the U. S. Embassy. Girard is scheduled to be tried by a Japanese court. No date has been set.

Hayashi, defense counsel before the International Military Tribunal for the Far East from 1946-49, said he planned to meet Girard for the first time tomorrow. He told reporters he could make no announcement of defense plans yet.

Others To Assist

"Everything about the entire case will depend upon my discussions with Girard tomorrow," he said.

The Army announcement said Girard also had asked Maj. Stanley F. Lebin, 49, Hollywood, Calif., to serve as his personal legal adviser. Levin is a member of the judge advocate's office of the 1st Cavalry Division.

In Ottawa, Louis Girard, brother of the accused soldier, said he had hired Earl J. Carroll, a former Air Force major who has been prominently identified with the defense of GIs overseas, to serve as defense counsel.

To Ask Injunction

Carroll said in New York he would file a writ of habeas corpus in U. S. District Court in Washington today, charging the U. S. government violated Girard's constitutional rights by authorizing his trial in a Japanese court. Carroll said he would ask the court to order the Army to deliver the soldier to Washington for a hearing.

Carroll said he also plans to seek an injunction restraining the Army from turning Girard over to Japanese authorities for trial

"National interest is at stake in the outcome of this case," Carroll declared. "How can you drag a man away from his home and business, take him over to Japan and turn him over to the jurisdiction of that country's court for trial without violating his constitutional guarantee?"

International Issue

Girard, an Army specialist third class, has been indicted on charges of "inflicting bodily injury causing death" of the Japanese woman, a charge similar to a manslaughter indictment in the United States. He is accused of firing an empty cartridge case from a grenade launcher and killing Mrs. Naka Sakai, 46, while she picked up scrap metal on a firing range.

The case developed into an international issue when Japanese authorities contended the soldier was not on duty when the fatality occurred and claimed Japan had the right to try him under the status-of-peace agreement with the United States.

Governor Is Accused Of "Blocking" Legislation

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader, said the governor masterminded a one-two punch that just about scuttled a GOP timetable calling for final adjournment of the 1957 Legislature June 15:

1. The house defeated a 24-million-dollar appropriation to state-aided hospitals when Democrats refused to help Republicans put up the necessary two-thirds vote for passage.

2. Sen William J Lane (D—Washington), after a filibuster threat, forced postponement until next Monday of the final senate vote on the mammoth $1,107,000,000 general appropriations bill.

Johnson said Leader dictated the Democratic policy, describing it as "a malicious abuse of the legislative process."

"The constitution was never intended to be used as a bludgeon over the Legislature," said Johnson.

Rep. Albert S. Readinger, floor leader, emphasized his party's vote against the hospital grants was taken only to give the lawmakers more time to act on appropriations.

"It may be necessary to reduce some of these appropriations before the House—should the Senate increase the general appropriations bill," he told the House.

Thirty-six special appropriations totaling nearly 92 million dollars were held up because of the two-thirds majority requirement.

Threaten Filibuster

Republicans backed down on a move to bring the general appropriations bill to a vote today or tomorrow when Lane told them any such action would result in a Democratic filibuster.

The Senate Appropriations Committee scheduled a meeting for today to release the general appropriations bill to the floor. The question was just how the measure would be changed to affect a GOP plan to cut the governor's budget by 94½ million dollars.

Other legislative developments:

Fiscal Information—The Senate approved over Democratic objections a proposal to give the Legislature departmental budget information now considered only within scope of the executive.

Pass Parents Bill

Juvenile Delinquency — The House passed and sent to the Senate legislation to make parents liable for the wrongful acts of their teen-age children in a move to curb juvenile delinquency.

Tie-in Sales — Tie-in sales of magazines and newspapers would be outlawed under a measure unanimously approved by the House and sent to the Senate. The ban would apply if one of the required periodicals are obscene.

Elective Attorney General—By a 123-73 vote the House approved a Senate-passed proposal to amend the constitution to require the attorney general to be elected.

say that I respect and love him as much as I would if he were not my son.

"I claim no credit for his being what he is. Another belief I hold is that people make their own intellectual and moral characters. If he was helped in making his by me—or by his mother, who between you and me might really have been responsible, or by his brother John, whose singular sweetness and generosity and intelligence it would have been a privilege for anybody to grow up with, as in a sense I can say that I have done—if Charlie was helped, I mean, in any way at all, it was he who decided to accept the help. The decision in such matters is finally with ourselves. To say that responsibility begins at home should mean, I think, that it begins—and ends, too — in the individual Sooner or later he must help himself. There are no alibis.

* * *

"Yet as I think of my own father, another Charles Van Doren, I must admit that he was responsible for the very thing I am saying He was a country doctor in Illinois; and just two days ago, on the 21st of May, he would have been a hundred years old if he had lived. The more I think of him, and of my mother who in this respect was exactly like him, the more I wonder at the faith he had in me and in each of my four brothers. He never doubted us He was ambitious for us, but he never directed our lives. The main thing was that he left no doubt in our mind. that he loved and trusted us. He was a playful, affectionate man who enjoyed his own life first of all, but who then seemed to consider that the best thing about it was the presence in it of his children Of course I owe him more that I can say. But that, perhaps, is precisely it. I owe him more than I can say because I owe him more than I shall ever know, unless I know that love and trust are everything.

"So it could be that Charlie has been helped by the affection he has always known his family had for him. I return, however, to my original position. It was a free gift which he was free not to accept. If it had any value as a gift, he gave it that value by his decision, deliberate or otherwise, to receive it as he did those other gifts, from God knows where, which make him what he is today"

* * *

Charles Van Doren: "Ladies and Gentlemen. This is the first time I have ever had to speak on the same platform as my father, and I find that it is a very difficult thing to do. Aside from the fact that he was an accomplished speaker before I was born, which means that he is at least thirty-one years up on me, the fact that the occasion is what it is, and that his words were what they were, has moved me more than I can say. There is nothing new about this, however. He has been able to move me, to laughter and to tears, for as long as I can remember.

"Both in public and in private —and that's of the greatest importance. For my father has been, to me, both a public and a private man. Oh, perhaps not as public a man as I have become recently. We have laughed about this, he and I. I doubt if anyone has had a better time that he in this strange and hectic last few months. And his generosity in this respect has given me great joy.

* * *

"But my experience has reminded me of something that he taught me—not consciously, I'm sure, but as an example. For the extraordinary thing about my father is that his public face, and his private face, have been the same. He has been the same man to the world that he has been to his family. And that is harder than it sounds.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Inmates at Wisconsin State Prison are rarely "put in solitary" anymore — instead they lose their radio earphones or other recreational privileges.

The system, according to Warden John Burke is very effective.

"We had a fellow who actually asked for 'solitary' instead of a 5-day loss of radio privileges," Burke said. "He didn't want to miss the weekend football games."

a tractor trailer owned by the Lycoming Furniture Co., Williamsport, also headed north, applied his brakes, but his vehicle skidded into the McAlphine car, forcing it off the highway into a ditch where it turned over on its side. Damage was estimated at $150 to the tractor-trailer, $100 to the car.

Two Cars Collide

Damage totaled $200 when two cars collided three miles north of here on the Biglerville Rd. at 1:45 o'clock

Police said Regina Margaret Asper, 35, Gettysburg R. 3, traveling west on a private drive, turned into the Gettysburg-Biglerville Rd. and headed south. John Rex Evans, 44, Gettysburg R. 1 salesman, operating a car owned by the Central Chemical Corporation, was driving south on the Biglerville Rd. He applied his brakes and sought to drive off the highway to avoid striking Mrs. Asper's car. However, the left rear of Evans' vehicle struck the right rear of the Asper car, causing $50 damage to that vehicle. The Evans car skidded down an enbankment and damage to it was estimated at $150.

PUBLIC RECORDS BILL APPROVED BY HOUSE 175-11

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House today approved 175-11 a bill requiring state and local governmental agencies to open their records to the people.

The plan was approved without debate.

Under the measure public records would be open for examination and inspection by any citizen of Pennsylvania. The only restriction is that the examination be made at "reasonable times."

Goes To Senate

The bill goes to the Senate.

Any citizen also would have the right to make extracts or copies of public records.

The measure was amended to exclude records such as child adoption proceedings or other records closed to the public by the courts which would "prejudice or impair a person's reputation or personal security."

Violators could be fined $100.

AERIAL QUEEN WITH CIRCUS

HERSHEY, Pa.—Queen of the hundreds of aerial performers who will be seen with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus at the Sports Arena this week is blonde Antoinette Bisbini.

Member of the famous Bisbini family of circus performers, Antoinette is featured over ring number one, an honor reserved for only the top stars. She climaxes her sensational performance by hanging from the swinging trapeze bar by her neck.

Famous Juggler

On the ground there is Lottie Brunn, from Germany, with a near duplicate of her famous brother's spectacular juggling routine.

Horsemanship, always a big feature of Ringling shows, is also in the capable hands of the so-called weaker sex. Marion Seifert is back with an exciting demonstration of dressage and haute ecole equestrianism, and Gena Moroski helps her husband, Charles, with the presentation of the famous Ringling Liberty horses.

Then there are some 300 unsung ladies of the ensemble, who double as clothes horses for the colorful costumes of the four eye-filling "specs," and also soar aloft in the exciting web routines which serve to background the appearance by Miss Shawn.

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — Mrs Robert B. Meyner, New Jersey's new first lady, noted the other day that in about two months of marriage to the governor she has heard him make numerous public addresses.

"When he speaks in public," she remarked, "I tremble. But when I speak in private, he trembles."

That's what she said, ladies.

Senate Committee Probes Into Alleged Scandals In Bakers' Union Of 160,000

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate rackets probers sought today to show who got expensive automobiles and tens of thousands of dollars allegedly misappropriated from Bakers Union funds.

They also want to know whether, as has been reported, certain union officials exchanged favors with employers with whom they had collective bargaining dealings.

Allegations on these and other scores have split the 160,000-member union into warring camps and led to investigation by the special Senate committee seeking evidence of wrongdoing in labor unions and industry.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) and committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy announced they were calling Anthony Conforti, president, and George Stuart, resigned former vice president, and other listed key witnesses.

Misuse Of Funds

Meanwhile, Sen. Mundt (R-SD) made public a letter in which he proposed hearings dealing with alleged misuse of their companies' funds by some corporation officials. He did not name them.

Mundt included this as one of six points of inquiry he said he felt should be completed by the committee. His letter to McClellan said these should include hearings on secondary boycotts and alleged misdeeds by unions and employers.

McClellan in a statement prepared for the start of the Bakers Union hearings said he expected the testimony will touch upon:

"1. The misuse of union funds. The officials involved will be given ample opportunity to explain some transactions which appear to be irregular.

Receive Many Complaints

"2. The operation of certain local unions under trusteeship. . . . We have received a large number of complaints from dues-paying members about dictatorial and undemocratic practices. . . .

"3. Certain relationships between management and labor officials which, if not satisfactorily explained, must lead to the inference of impropriety and collusion between these individuals to the apparent disservice of members of the union."

McClellan said there had been an exchange of "substantial favors" and that whether "extortion practiced by corrupt union officials or bribery practiced by corrupt management or both" was involved was not entirely clear.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter and hope you will kindly print it. In The Times on Monday, June 3, there was published an article about the black topping of Fred Green's road. I don't know of any road being owned by anyone. If it is by living along it the longest that belongs to me. As I have owned a house and lived along this road for 41 years.

What they did not say is that it was the section left of the Ridge the state did not take. The link mentioned leads from 01054-0013 which is between two bathing places. There are not four dwelling places, there are nine families in this area.

Let's not find fault with the supervisors for giving this road a once over, as it has one half of its length along Marsh Creek.

The cost of keeping anything on it is great. I should know as I was a supervisor for 14 years and had this road to repair.

We did not have the money from the state to help us build any roads. If we had, I would have to take the same that the supervisors now get. So let's be fair to the supervisors. How would you like to live also, the road that was just mentioned for 41 years with the traffic of today on a dirt road? The supervisors acted in their best judgment to save the taxpayers money.

Next, I hope all you people of Windbriar Lane would place yourselves along a road like I just mentioned for 41 years. You surely would not have the same attitude. I hope the supervisors can take over your development soon, and then just have patience for 40 years.

Wants Training In Government

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. George M. Leader says all professional schools would do well to offer government courses for the many professional graduates who enter public service.

He told La Salle College graduates last night one of his hardest jobs had been to find "enough competent people to man our key professional, technical and administrative positions." Leader suggests that technical schools teach greater "knowledge of and sensitivity to the processes and broader problems of government."

Chops Safe In Cash Register; $400 Gone

Asking police help in getting it back, Underwood explained he'd wrapped the bills to keep in his cash register overnight.

AERIAL QUEEN WITH CIRCUS

HERSHEY, Pa.—Queen of the hundreds of aerial performers who will be seen with the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus at the Sports Arena this week is blonde Antoinette Bisbini.

[illegible] family of circus performers. Antoinette is featured over ring number one, an honor reserved for only the top stars. She climaxes her sensational performance by hanging from the swinging trapeze bar by her neck.

Famous Juggler

On the ground there is Lottie Brunn, from Germany, with a near duplicate of her famous brother's spectacular juggling routine.

Horsemanship, always a big feature of Ringling shows, is also in the capable hands of the so-called weaker sex. Marion Seifert is back with an exciting demonstration of dressage and haute ecole equestrianism, and Gena Moroski helps her husband, Charles, with the presentation of the famous Ringling Liberty horses.

Then there are some 300 unsung ladies of the ensemble, who double as clothes horses for the colorful costumes of the four eye-filling "specs" and also soar aloft in the exciting web routines which serve to background the appearance by Miss Shawn.

TIMELY ADVICE

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A sign on a classroom clock at Jefferson Davis Junior High School here: "Time will pass. Will you?"

MEYNER ADDRESS

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — Mrs. Robert B. Meyner, New Jersey's new first lady, noted the other day that in about two months of marriage to the governor she has heard him make numerous public addresses.

"When he speaks in public," she remarked, "I tremble. But when I speak in private, he trembles."

That's what she said, ladies.

Latin baseball players have led the American League in stolen bases in five of the last six years—Minnie Minsos three times and Jim Rivera and Luis Aparacio once.

13-YEAR-OLD SCHOOLBOY IS CHESS GENIUS

"Impossible," whispered one of the onlookers, "Byrne is losing to a 13-year-old nobody."

"Mate," said this "nobody," and the game was over. Bobby had earned his first victory in the Lessing J. Rosenwald Trophy Tournament.

"Game Of Century"

Chess Review Magazine called it the "game of the century—a stunning master piece of combination play performed by a boy of 13 against a formidable opponent, matching the finest on record in the history of chess prodigies."

Bobby didn't win the Rosenwald tournament—the trophy went to Sammy Reshevsky, the ranking U.S. player—but the crew-cut youngster who would rather play chess than eat established himself as a young man to watch.

Best For Age

Hans Kmoch, secretary-manager of the Manhattan Chess Club, says:

"For his age, I don't think there is any better chess player in the world. He is a genuine prodigy and one of the best players in our club."

Bobby appears embarrassed by all the attention he has drawn since he defeated Byrne.

"I just made the moves I thought were best," he says modestly. "I was just lucky."

Where did he learn the game?

"My sister taught me when I was six," he says. "She was 12 and didn't know too much about the game, but she told me where and how to move the pieces. I liked it and have been playing it ever since."

Could Play All His Life

"I could play chess all my life," he answers shyly. "I like tournaments and would like to play in a lot of them. As for being great, I don't know about that."

Kmoch, however, has fewer reservations:

"The outlook is brilliant. If he continues to proceed the way he has the past year or two, he's likely to become one of the greatest players of all time."

STARS, STRIPES SANDWICHES GET HOLIDAY SALUTE

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The Associated Press

Stars and stripes sandwiches are fun to serve on July 4. Along with a big pitcher of lemonade, a salad and dessert, they'll make a good lunch or supper snack. And you can prepare this menu ahead.

These sandwiches look mighty pretty with their creamy base of hard-cooked egg mixed with mayonnaise and seasonings, their "stripes" of boiled or baked ham and "stars" of green pepper. If you want to serve these open sandwiches with a fork, as we do, you can compensate by using attractive disposable paper plates. Use a tiny star cutter for the green pepper garnish. Our miniature cutter of this sort came along with eleven other small cutters — of different shapes — in a round tin box. We found our set in the housewares section of a large department store, but these sets are also available in some gift shops. We sometimes use the tiny shapes for cutting out pimiento garnishes.

Stars And Stripes Sandwiches

Ingredients: 4 hard-cooked eggs, ½ teaspoon salt, white pepper, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon finely grated onion, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ¼ cup (about) mayonnaise, 6 slices white bread, 2 tablesoons butter or margarine (softened), 2 slices boiled or baked ham (about ¼-inch thick, ½ medium-sized green pepper (cut into ¼-inch stars).

Method: Mash eggs fine or put through ricer; mix with salt, pepper to taste, mustard, onion, lemon juice and mayonnaise. Trim crusts from bread; spread with butter. Spread bread with egg mixture; cut in half. Cut ham into narrow strips. Arrange ham strips on egg mixture to resemble stripes. Arrange green-pepper stars in upper lefthand corner. Chill. Serve with celery sticks if desired.

Note: Tiny sprigs of parsley may be substituted for the green-pepper stars.

VERSATILE DOORMAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard Reich, stage doorman at a Broadway theater, is finding spare time playwriting profitable.

Reich has written previously for television, now has had his mystery drama "The Tin Cup" optioned for stage production next season by Fred F. Finklehoffe. The play previously tried out at the Margo Jones Theater in Dallas.

The doorman, however, isn't tapering off, reports he has completed another script in which actress Eva Bartok has expressed a

GIVE RECIPE FOR "FAILPROOF" BRIDE'S STEW

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

So many brides lament that they cannot produce a savory stew — the sort their husbands relish — that we hope this easy recipe will help them. We've streamlined this stew-and dumpling formula; it should be failproof.

We use large shoulder lamb chops in this stew because it is easy to cut away excess fat from them and have substantial lean servings of meat of which a man will approve. Canned tomatoes, rather than water, are the liquid added for savory flavor.

Old Fashioned Pan

We use an oldfashioned black iron frying pan for browning the lamb, then we transfer the meat to a deep copper-clad stainless steel skillet with a domeshaped cover—for simmering and cooking the dumplings. But other sorts of frying pans, skillets or kettles can, of course, be used advantageously.

The dumpling recipe that accompanies this stew produces dumplings that have a dry and airy texture.

This stew looks as good as it tastes: the meat brown, the gravy tomato-colored and the dumplings snow white. Serve bright green peas on the same plate as the stew and you'll have an extremely attractive-looking combination.

Skillet Lamb Stew With Dumplings

Ingredients. 4 large (1¾ pounds) round-bone lamb shoulder chops (at least ½ inch thick), 1 can (1 pound) peeled tomatoes, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ½ teaspoon tomato seasoning power, 4 medium - small yellow onions (peeled and cut into halves), Marjoram Dumplings.

Method: Cut each chop into 5 or 6 pieces, removing most of the fat. Do not cut away any of the bones; they add flavor to the stew. Grease a very hot heavy skillet (about 10 inches) with a bit of lamb fat: add the meat and brown on both sides over high heat. Pour off any fat in skillet. Add tomatoes, salt, pepper, tomato seasoning powder; place onion halves underneath pieces of meat. Cover tightly and simmer about 1 hour. Skim excess fat from surface of stew with a large spoon. Add more salt to stew if necessary. Bring to a gentle boil; pile several pieces of meat on top of each other if necessary so dumpling batter can rest on them. Drop dumpling batter by spoonfulls on top of meat in 8 portions. Cook uncovered, keeping stew boiling gently, for 10 minutes; cover tightly and cook 10 minutes longer. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Note: The tomato seasoning powder called for in this recipe comes in a 3ounce jar and includes savory, onion, garlic, celery, salt, pepper.

Marjoram Dumplings

Ingredients: 1 cup of self-rising flour (do not sift before measuring), ¼ teaspoon dried crumbled marjoram, ½ cup milk.

Method: Stir flour and marjoram together in a mixing bowl. Stir again with a fork while gradually adding milk; stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; do not beat smooth. Mixture will be on the thin side. Cook as directed at end of recipe for Skillet Lamb Stew with Dumplings.

Note: If the self-rising flour called for in tihs recipe is not available, use 1 cup sifted flour and sift it again with 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt.

ROCK KNOCKED

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — The theater marquee proclaimed: "Don't Knock the Rock." But the "Rock" got knocked right off the screen. An explosion in a power company conduit shut off power to a theater showing the rock 'n role movie. Management had to refund 150 admissions, some to teen-agers sitting through a second showing

MANY WHAT?

Love is a Many Splendored
Edge of Hell Thing.

BLENDING COLORS

DALLAS, Tex (AP) — A switch in the color of license plates from black and orange to black and white seems to have lowered Texas Motorists' sales resistance.

Tax Collector Ben Gentle says he sold more tags earlier this season

"The orange and black we used last year didn't seem to go with the colors on the new cars," he said.

TAG VANDALS?

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Climaxing a heated debate on the floor of the Wisconsin Legislature Assemblyman Elmer Genzmer offered a tongue-in-check amendment to a bill which sets penalties for vandalism committed by children. Under Genzmer's proposal, a child would be exempt from damages if he wore a sign reading: "Beware of Wild Child."

The proposal was ruled out of order.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

So many brides lament that they cannot produce a savory stew — the sort their husbands relish — that we hope this easy recipe will help them. We've streamlined this stew-and dumpling formula; it should be failproof.

We use large shoulder lamb chops in this stew because it is easy to cut away excess fat from them and have substantial lean servings of meat of which a man will approve. Canned tomatoes, rather than water, are the liquid added for savory flavor.

Old Fashioned Pan

We use an old1fashioned black iron frying pan for browning the lamb, then we transfer the meat to a deep copper-clad stainless steel skillet with a domeshaped cover—for simmering and cooking the dumplings. But other sorts of frying pans, skillets or kettles can, of course, be used advantageously.

The dumpling recipe that accompanies this stew produces dumplings that have a dry and airy texture.

This stew looks as good as it tastes: the meat brown, the gravy tomato-colored and the dumplings snow white. Serve bright green peas on the same plate as the stew and you'll have an extremely attractive-looking combination.

Skillet Lamb Stew With Dumplings

Ingredients: 4 large (1¾ pounds) round-bone lamb shoulder chops (at least ½ inch thick), 1 can (1 pound) peeled tomatoes, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ½ teaspoon tomato seasoning power, 4 medium - small yellow onions (peeled and cut into halves), Marjoram Dumplings.

Method: Cut each chop into 5 or 6 pieces, removing most of the fat. Do not cut away any of the bones; they add flavor to the stew. Grease a very hot heavy skillet (about 10 inches) with a bit of lamb fat; add the meat and brown on both sides over high heat. Pour off any fat in skillet. Add tomatoes, salt, pepper, tomato seasoning powder; place onion halves underneath pieces of meat. Cover tightly and simmer about 1 hour. Skim excess fat from surface of stew with a large spoon. Add more salt to stew if necessary. Bring to a gentle boil; pile several pieces of meat on top of each other if necessary so dumpling batter can rest on them. Drop dumpling batter by spoonfuls on top of meat in 8 portions. Cook uncovered, keeping stew boiling gently, for 10 minutes; cover tightly and cook 10 minutes longer. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Note: The tomato seasoning powder called for in this recipe comes in a 3ounce jar and includes savory, onion, garlic, celery, salt, pepper.

Marjoram Dumplings

Ingredients: 1 cup of self-rising flour (do not sift before measuring), ¼ teaspoon dried crumbled marjoram, ½ cup milk.

Method: Stir flour and marjoram together in a mixing bowl. Stir again with a fork while gradually adding milk; stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; do not beat smooth. Mixture will be on the thin side. Cook as directed at end of recipe for Skillet Lamb Stew with Dumplings.

Note: If the self-rising flour called for in tihs recipe is not available, use 1 cup sifted flour and sift it again with 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt.

ROCK KNOCKED

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — The theater marquee proclaimed: "Don't Knock the Rock." But the "Rock" got knocked right off the screen. An explosion in a power company conduit shut off power to a theater showing the rock 'n role movie. Management had to refund 150 admissions, some to teen-agers sitting through a second showing.

MANY WHAT?

Love is a Many Splendored
Edge of Hell Thing.

BLENDING COLORS

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A switch in the color of license plates from black and orange to black and white seems to have lowered Texas Motorists' sales resistance.

Tax Collector Ben Gentle says he sold more tags earlier this season.

"The orange and black we used last year didn't seem to go with the colors on the new cars," he said.

TAG VANDALS?

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Climaxing a heated debate on the floor of the Wisconsin Legislature Assemblyman Elmer Genzmer offered a tongue-in-check amendment to a bill which sets penalties for vandalism committed by children. Under Genzmer's proposal, a child would be exempt from damages if he wore a sign reading: "Beware of Wild Child."

The proposal was ruled out of order.

13-YEAR-OLD SCHOOLBOY IS CHESS GENIUS

Two players were Donald Byrne, a chess master, and Bobby Fischer, a 13-year-old Brooklyn schoolboy playing in his first major tournament.

Maybe said this "nobody," and the game was over. Bobby had chalked his first victory in the Lessing J. Rosenwald Trophy Tournament.

"Game Of Century"

Chess Review Magazine called it the game of the century—a stunning masterpiece of combination play performed by a boy of 13 against a formidable opponent, matching the finest on record in the history of chess prodigies."

Bobby didn't win the Rosenwald tournament—the trophy went to Sammy Reshevsky, the ranking U.S. player—but the crew-cut youngster who would rather play chess than eat established himself as a young man to watch.

Best For Age

Hans Kmoch, secretary-manager of the Manhattan Chess Club, says:

"For his age, I don't think there is any better chess player in the world. He is a genuine prodigy and one of the best players in our club."

Bobby appears embarrassed by all the attention he has drawn since he defeated Byrne.

"I just made the moves I thought were best," he says modestly. "I was just lucky."

Where did he learn the game?

"My sister taught me when I was six," he says. "She was 12 and didn't know too much about the game, but she told me where and how to move the pieces. I liked it and have been playing it ever since."

Could Play All His Life

"I could play chess all my life," he answers shyly. "I like tournaments and would like to play in a lot of them. As for being great, I don't know about that."

Kmoch, however, has fewer reservations:

"The outlook is brilliant. If he continues to proceed the way he has the past year or two, he's likely to become one of the greatest players of all time."

STARS, STRIPES SANDWICHES GET HOLIDAY SALUTE

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The Associated Press

Stars and stripes sandwiches are fun to serve on July 4. Along with a big pitcher of lemonade, a salad and dessert, they'll make a good lunch or supper snack. And you can prepare this menu ahead.

These sandwiches look mighty pretty with their creamy base of hard-cooked egg mixed with mayonnaise and seasonings, their "stripes" of boiled or baked ham and "stars' of green pepper. If you want to serve these open sandwiches with a fork, as we do, you can compensate by using attractive disposable paper plates. Use a tiny star cutter for the green pepper garnish. Our miniature cutter of this sort came along with eleven other small cutters — of different shapes — in a round tin box. We found our set in the housewares section of a large department store, but these sets are also available in some gift shops. We sometimes use the tiny shapes for cutting out trimmings to garnishes.

Stars And Stripes Sandwiches

Ingredients: 4 hard-cooked eggs, ½ teaspoon salt, white pepper, ¼ teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon grated onion, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ¼ cup (about) mayonnaise, 8 slices white bread, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (soft-ened), 2 slices boiled or baked ham ¼-inch thick, ½ medium-green pepper (cut into ¼-inch

Mash eggs fine or put through ricer, mix with salt, pepper, mustard, onion, lemon juice and mayonnaise. Trim crusts from bread, spread with butter. Spread with egg mixture, cut. Cut ham into narrow strips. Arrange ham strips on egg mixture in the stripes. Arrange green-pepper stars in upper lefthand corner. Serve with celery sticks.

Tiny sprigs of parsley may be substituted for the green-pepper stars.

BILL PROVIDES FOR ELECTIONS ON MERGERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House has unanimously approved legislation to allow a school district to hold special elections on proposed mergers with other districts.

The bill would amend the 1949 school law authorizing mergers. Votes on mergers now can be taken only during a general election. Under the proposals a special election could be called 90 days after first merger petitons.

Other bills passed on Tuesday would:

Include the Italian American War Veterans and the Polish Legion of American Veterans with other statewide veterans organizations for appropriations and information on burial of deceased service personnel—(201-0, to Senate).

Allow summary arrest by police officers in third class cities in traffic violation cases if the motorist is a nonresident of the state—(201-0, to Senate).

Require the Revenue Department to issue duplicate registration cards to motor vehicle owners on payment of a 50-cent fee—(189-19, to Senate).

Allow dump trucks hauling excavated material to exceed maximum weights by up to 10 per cent—(198-3, to Senate).

Other Measures

Give school districts up to 60 days to fill vacancies fo president, principal or superintendent of institutions, nstead of the present 30 days—(201-0, to Senate).

Luncheon On Capitol Hill

President Eisenhower takes a leg of chicken from his box lunch as he sits with House Minority Leader Joe Martin (R-Mass) on Capitol Hill Monday. ZOLI'S WIN IS SOURED BY VOTE

ROME (AP)—Christian Democrat Premier Adone Zoli's new one-party government won its first parliamentary vote of confidence Wednesday. But victory was soured by unsolicited Fascist - Monarchist support.

The 132-93 vote came after a stormy night Senate session in which Zoli blasted Communist and Fascist deputies alike and told them he did not want their help.

Word spread after the predawn vote that 69-year-old Zoli might resign because of the unwanted rightist support.

The Christian Democratic organ Il Popolo pointed out, however, that Zoli would have squeezed through with a one-vote majority if the 9 Monarchists and 8 Fascist votes he got had been cast against him.

If he does stay on, he faces a similar test in the 590-seat Chamber of Deputies, probably this week. Since his party has only 263 seats there, he again will need outside help.

REVERSE SWITCH

The opening may be in the spring of 1958.

Hammerstein said that the main problem will be addition of plot complications, possibly another song or two.

RUSSIA NOW HAS SECOND LARGEST NAVY IN WORLD

LONDON (AP)—Russia, which has never built an aircraft carrier and last laid down the keel of a battleship in 1909, has replaced Great Britain as the world's second ranking naval power.

This development, which comes as a shock to many a naval traditionalist, is conceded for the first time this year by Jane's Fighting Ships, inofficial "bible" of the world's navies.

Since the end of World War II, says Jane's in its newly published 1956-57 edition, Russia has built more submarines, more cruisers and more destroyers than all other nations combined.

Jane's, which has been keeping tabs on warship building throughout the world for 59 years, shows the United States still comfortably ahead of Russia in terms of overall naval strength

U. S. Emphasis On Atom

The United States is described as "intensely" active in the production of carrier and atomic-powered ships. Russia is even more active in building submarines and lighter surface ships, while Britain, which has not ordered a major warship since the end of World War II, has been steadily cutting back in almost all categories. As illustrated in the chart, Great Britain's cruiser strength has been lopped in half since 1946 while Russia jumped from eight to 30 and the United States hovered around 75. Russia now leads both the United States and Britain in submarines and has more than twice as many destroyers as Britain.

Subs Suit Red Purpose

Russia's neglect of the aircraft carrier is explained in terms of the strategy for which her fleet is designed. Her major war aim, says Jane's, would be to sever sea communications between the NATO powers and prevent Western warships and merchantmen from entering European and Asian waters.

For this purpose, the submarine is the prime weapon. The British and American navies, which are designed to assault land targets as well as enemy ships, place their greatest emphasis on the carrier.

Jane's acknowledges that information on Russian ships is difficult to get, but its reports indicate that the quality of the swiftly growing Soviet fleet is very good.

Many Large Subs

Over half of the Russian submarines are of the large or medium ocean-going type, says Jane's. Much of the new construction is patterned after the German U-boats captured at the end of World War II, and many are equipped with the snorkel underwater breathing device.

Jane's does not include reports, widely published elsewhere, that Russia may have atomic-powered submarines either in operation or under construction. But it says of the new Soviet cruisers and destroyers:

"These are modern and incorporate the latest technological equipment. They are fully manned in active commission and are continually undergoing rigorous training operations, demonstrating the important position the control of the sea holds in Soviet grand strategy."

Says Russ Proposal Would Put W. Europe At Mercy Of Reds

By FRANCES LEWINE

ASHEVILLE, N C (AP) — Vice President Nixon said last night Russia's proposal for Allied and Soviet troop withdrawals in Europe would "leave the free countries of Europe at the mercy of the Communist world."

He said Russia boss Nikita S. Khrushchev was playing "the old shell game" when he made the proposal.

Noting that the United States has always been ready "to meet the Soviet Union halfway on any reasonable basis" in disarmament talks, the vice president said: "We owe a duty to our allies and to ourselves not to be sucked into the old shell game trade of one horse for one rabbit, which is what Mr Khrushchev offered last Sunday when he suggested that we should withdraw our forces from Europe's 3,000 miles in return for the Soviet moving theirs from the satellite countries 300 miles away.

Draws Applause

Nixon made what was apparently a White House-approved reply to Khrushchev before the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

He drew applause when he acknowledged "there has been some waste and inefficiency" in our foreign aid program, but suggested that "when we consider the tremendous stakes involved, the remedy for these difficulties and errors is to try to do a more effective job and not to give up and let the Soviet Union start taking over the world."

The vice president and Mrs Nixon received a standing ovation from the audience of more than 2,000. Nixon playfully helped move a piano off the stage and offered congratulations to former President Truman on the birth of his grandson.

Baby Sitters Are Requiring Pools

CLAIM PEP-UP PILLS WILL NOT HELP ATHLETES

NEW YORK (AP)—Athletes and sports officials were on record today as saying they get their pep from training and physical conditioning not from pills as stated in a resolution by delegates of the American Medical Assn.

The AMA yesterday ordered a study by its trustees into "shocking" reports of dangerous abuse of potent pep-up pills by athletes. They called for a halt to any abuses of drugs to make players superathletes.

Dr Herbert Berger, chairman of the New York State Medical Society, said, "The recent rash of four-minute miles is no coincidence. When I was a college boy the four-minute mile was as unlikely as flying to the moon."

His society introduced the resolution.

Called "Ridiculous"

Don Bowden, University of California miler who was the first American to break the four-minute barrier, called the statements "ridiculous and silly."

"I don't believe anything could help you run a four-minute mile except top physical condition," he said.

Dr Berger said he thinks the worst abuse is by boxing, secondly by professional and college football and other athletes, and thirdly by high school athletes.

James A Farley Jr of the New York State Athletic Commission said, 'We have a competent and able medical staff checking fighters before and after every bout and I am convinced they could detect any violation of our rules which forbid the use of drugs before a fight."

Walt Byers, executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn, and well known track coach George Eastment of Manhattan both said they never heard of such a thing in intercollegiate athletics. Eastment said he would ask for an investigation when the college track coaches meet next week in Austin, Tex.

Explaining the medical association's move, Dr Berger said some drug addicts may get started by taking amphetamine and other stimulants while performing in athletics. "Amphetamine is by far the most dangerous drug existing today," he said adding that there are widespread reports it is being used throughout the country by either athletes themselves or their coaches.

Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League which televises many of its games, said, "I am just as much against indiscriminate use of pep pills as anybody else—but I never heard of their use in athletics."

YANKEE PRIDE RESPONDING TO RECENT JOLTS

CLEVELAND (AP)—The famous pride of the Yankees appears to have been hurt by a series of recent events—latest a scolding by their former shortstop Phil Rizzuto—and they've responded by winning three games in a row, bashing out 12 and 16 hits in the last two.

After Tuesday night's 7-4 victory here old Casey Stengel said that maybe the addition of ex-Yankee Charley (King Kong) Keller to the coaching staff had helped make the Yankees act more like Yankees.

After last night's 13-3 pasting of the Indians, Manager Stengel may be considering finding some sort of job for Scooter Rizzuto, who dropped a few remarks in a luncheon speech yesterday that reportedly shook up the world champs.

Phil Sounds Off

The Scooter, now a sports announcer, scooted into hot water with the undergraduates at his alma mater by saying the current Yankees "have been reading too many newspapers" and "think all the other players are going to roll over and play dead."

He also had a jab for Stengel, who, he said, contributed to a hurtful cockiness by saying in spring training that this year's team was "the greatest of all time."

"Now he probably wishes he could eat those words," Rizzuto said at a Cleveland Jaycee luncheon honoring Bob Feller, retired Tribe strikeout king.

LOOKING AHEAD

GAINED THREE POUNDS

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Billy Burke had to play 144 holes to win the 1931 U S Open golf title at Inverness. When it was over, runnerup George Von Elm reported he had lost 12 pounds. The cigar-smoking Burke said: "I gained three pounds."

Seeing Series Is Thrill For Hunter

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Shortstop Billy Hunter of the Kansas City Athletics says his greatest baseball thrill came last fall when he was with the Yankees and watched the Woorld Series from the bench.

"I didn't get to play last fall and because of a broken leg and missed the 1955 Series with the Yankees," says Hunter, "but being part of the World Series last fall was my top thrill. As a kid I thought the greatest thing that could happen to me was to be a part of the World Series."

BENCH PROVES BIG HELP IN REDLEGS' WIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —Manager Birdie Tebbetts, who has parlayed an assortment of baseball talent into a first-place ball club, was more than happy today about his bench.

Tebbetts long has been an outspoken believer in the school of thought that a strong bench can make or break a pennant contender. This has been especially true since his big gun—Ted Kluszewski—went on the disabled list with a bad back. Ted is due back in action next Monday.

Birdie used 'practically everybody but the traveling secretary last night as the Redlegs beat the Philadelphia Phillies 4-2.

Decided In 11th

The ball game virtually was sewed up by pinchhitter Jerry Lynch, who clubbed out an 11th-inning triple—his first extra base hit of the year—to bat home the third and deciding run.

Other noteworthy Tebbetts pinchhitter maneuvers last night included sending Art Schult in to bat for starter Hal Jeffcoat in the eighth. Schult singled.

On the pitching front, after Jeffcoat hurled a very creditable seven innings, Birdie called on righthander Tom Acker to take over.

LITTLE LEAGUE WORLD SERIES PLANS REVISED

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Little League Baseball Inc has announced the first major revision in the 10-year history of its World Series play.

The annual four-day summer World Series will be condensed to three days with the field of eight finalists cut to four.

Instead of eight districts qualifying entries for the Williamsport playoff, four separate regional tournaments will be held.

Pick Regional Sites

Sites for the regional playoffs will be New York City for the East, Louisville for the South, Chicago for the North and San Francisco for the West. Dates were not announced. Only winners in these regionals will make the trip to Williamsport, birthplace of organized baseball for 8-12 year-olds.

The World Series will start Wednesday, Aug 21 and end Friday, Aug 23. In previous years the championship game was played at the original Little League field on the outskirts of Williamsport on a Saturday.

Another new ruling will cut the field in all authorized tournaments, from the league level upward to four teams. There are about 4,300 official Little League nines in 47 states and a dozen foreign countries.

Paris has two circuses for children: the Cirque Medrano and the Cirque d Hiver, which run twelve months in the year.

MAXWELL GIVE TIPS TO YOUTHS

DETROIT (AP)—The biggest thing in hitting is getting to play regularly. You must do that to learn your weakness, to find out if it's the curve ball or the fast ball that will give you trouble.

Get a stance that feels natural. You can change the position of your bat in relation to the hands and the body. But you've got to have your bat in position to hit most any pitch.

Forget Long Ball

Youngsters should not try to become long ball hitters. Learn to use the hit and run play with a man on first, and try to hit behind the runner.

A youngster should learn to hit the ball to all fields, even if it means being a slap hitting.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Charley Maxwell, Detroit outfielder, entered the 1956 season with 224 average for 192 games over a four-year period. Then last season he got his chance to play regularly and hit 326, fourth best figure in the American League. He had 28 homers and 87 runs batted in.

Add $275 Millions For New Schools

HARRISBURG (AP)—An additional 275 million dollars was tacked last night on a proposal to increase the ceiling for state-aided school construction.

The new ceiling would be $1,200,000,000 in the 1960-61 school year on the basis of graduated increases annually. The limit under present law is 925 millions for the 1958-59 school year.

The house education committee sent the legislation to the floor to meet a growing demand for financial assistance from the state in the construction of new schools. The state now puts up about half of the money.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov Leader received a bill today to prohibit bars from cashing unemployment compensation checks. The measure was forwarded with 35-7 Senate approval.

Nearly three-fourths of Americans over 65 either have no income or less than $1,000 annual income, says a 20th Century Fund report.

The Mayflower II, replica of the Pilgrims ship will be berthed all summer at 41st Street, New York City.

MARRIAGE AND CALYPSO NOT IN PRESLEY PLANS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Elvis Presley, sitting on a couch with his current best girl, declared flatly that 'marriage and calypso are the farthest things from my mind."

The statement on marriage came entirely unsolicited when a reporter asked him yesterday if he planned to make a calypso record now that the Caribbean rhythms are making an inroad on the rock 'n' roll craze. (He doesn't.)

A few weeks ago a May on City newspaper reported that Presley planned to wed actress Yvonne Lime in Acapulco.

Was Out With Anne

'Man, the night that report came out I was out with Anne." He nudged pretty Anne Nevland, onetime Miss Texas. 'What did we do that night, honey?"

She reminded him that they had gone to a local movie house.

'Man, that's right. And you should have seen the faces drop on the people when they saw me in a movie with another girl than the one I was supposed to marry in Mexico. Where do those crazy reports come from?"

Presley Sandwich

He and the young actress sat in his dressing room along with a half-dozen friends with whom he went to high school in Memphis. It was lunchtime and Elvis ate what must henceforth be known as an Elvis Presley special sandwich. The concoction consisted of French fried potatoes, tomato and burnt bacon between two big slices of bread. A bottle of pop washed it down.

'Man," he said, "when I get married, it'll be no secret. I'll get married in my home town of Memphis and the whole town'll be there."

Elvis' deal at MGM is currently the talk of the industry. He's getting $250,000 plus 50 per cent of the profits for making "Jailhouse Rock."

BUTLER TO EXPAND

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind (AP) — The School of Religion of Butler University will be doubled in plant, enrollment and faculty under expansion plans mapped by its parent denomination, the Christian (Disciples of Christ) Churches. Six new buildings are to be added to the campus.

Youngsters should not try to become long ball hitters. Learn to use the hit and run play with a man on first, and try to hit behind the runner.

A youngster should learn to hit the ball to all fields, even if it means being a slap hitting.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Charley Maxwell, Detroit outfielder, entered the 1956 season with .224 average for 192 games over a four-year period. Then last season he got his chance to play regularly and hit .326, fourth best figure in the American League. He had 28 homers and 87 runs batted in.

Add $275 Millions For New Schools

HARRISBURG (AP)—An additional 275 million dollars was tacked last night on a proposal to increase the ceiling for state-aided school construction.

The new ceiling would be $1,200,000,000 in the 1960-61 school year on the basis of graduated increases annually. The limit under present law is 925 millions for the 1958-59 school year.

The house education committee sent the legislation to the floor to meet a growing demand for financial assistance from the state in the construction of new schools. The state now puts up about half of the money.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader received a bill today to prohibit bars from cashing unemployment compensation checks. The measure was forwarded with 35-7 Senate approval.

Nearly three-fourths of Americans over 65 either have no income or less than $1,000 annual income, says a 20th Century Fund report.

The Mayflower II, replica of the Pilgrims' ship, will be berthed all summer at 41st Street, New York City.

MARRIAGE AND CALYPSO NOT IN PRESLEY PLANS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Elvis Presley, sitting on a couch with his current best girl, declared flatly that "marriage and calypso are the farthest things from my mind."

The statement on marriage came entirely unsolicited when a reporter asked him yesterday if he planned to make a calypso record now that the Caribbean rhythms are making an inroad on the rock 'n' roll craze. (He doesn't.)

A few weeks ago a Mexico City City newspaper reported that Presley planned to wed actress Yvonne Lime in Acapulco.

Was Out With Anne

"Man, the night that report came out I was out with Anne." He nudged pretty Anne Neyland, onetime Miss Texas. "What did we do that night, honey?"

She reminded him that they had gone to a local moviehouse.

"Man, that's right. And you should have seen the faces drop on the people when they saw me in a movie with another girl than the one I was supposed to marry in Mexico. Where do those crazy reports come from?"

Presley Sandwich

He and the young actress sat in his dressing room along with a half-dozen friends with whom he went to high school in Memphis. It was lunchtime and Elvis ate what must henceforth be known as an Elvis Presley special sandwich. The concoction consisted of French fried potatoes, tomato and burnt bacon between two big slices of bread. A bottle of pop washed it down.

"Man," he said, "when I get married, it'll be no secret. I'll get married in my home town of Memphis and the whole town'll be there."

Elvis' deal at MGM is currently the talk of the industry. He's getting $250,000 plus 50 per cent of the profits for making "Jailhouse Rock."

BUTLER TO EXPAND

BILL PROVIDES FOR ELECTIONS ON MERGERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House has unanimously approved legislation to allow a school district to hold special elections on proposed mergers with other districts.

The bill would amend the 1949 school law authorizing mergers. Votes on mergers now can be taken only during a general election. Under the proposals a special election could be called 90 days after first merger petitons

Other bills passed on Tuesday would:

Include the Italian American War Veterans and the Polish Legion of American Veterans with other statewide veterans organizations for appropriations and information on burial of deceased service personnel—(201-0, to Senate).

Allow summary arrest by police officers in third class cities in traffic violation cases if the motorist is a nonresident of the state—(201-0, to Senate).

Require the Revenue Department to issue duplicate registration cards to motor vehicle owners on payment of a 50-cent fee—(189-19, to Senate).

Allow dump trucks hauling excavated material to exceed maximum weights by up to 10 per cent—(198-3, to Senate).

Other Measures

Give school districts up to 60 days to fill vacancies fo president, principal or superintendent of institutions, nstead of the present 30 days—(201-0, to Senate).

Luncheon On Capitol Hill

President Eisenhower takes a leg of chicken from his box lunch as he sits with House Minority Leader Joe Martin (R-Mass) on Capitol Hill Monday. ZOLI'S WIN IS SOURED BY VOTE

ROME (AP)—Christian Democrat Premier Adone Zoli's new one-party government won its first parliamentary vote of confidence Wednesday. But victory was soured by unsolicited Fascist - Monarchist support.

The 132-93 vote came after a stormy night Senate session in which Zoli blasted Communist and Fascist deputies alike and told them he did not want their help.

Word spread after the predawn vote that 69-year-old Zoli might resign because of the unwanted rightist support.

The Christian Democratic organ Il Popolo pointed out, however, that Zoli would have squeezed through with a one-vote majority if the 9 Monarchists and 8 Fascist votes he got had been cast against him

If he does stay on, he faces a similar test in the 590-seat Chamber of Deputies, probably this week. Since his party has only 263 seats there, he again will need outside help.

REVERSE SWITCH

The opening may be in the spring of 1958.

Hammerstein said that the main problem will be addition of plot complications, possibly another song or two.

RUSSIA NOW HAS SECOND LARGEST NAVY IN WORLD

LONDON (AP)—Russia, which has never built an aircraft carrier and last laid down the keel of a battleship in 1909 has replaced Great Britain as the world's second ranking naval power

This development, which comes as a sheck to many a naval traditionalist, is conceded for the first time this year by Jane's Fighting Ships, unofficial "bible" of the world's navies

Since the end of World War II, says Jane's in its newly published 1956-57 edition, Russia has built more submarines more cruisers and more destroyers than all other nations combined

Jane's which has been keeping tabs on warship building throughout the world for 59 years shows the United States still comfortably ahead of Russia in terms of overall naval strength

U. S. Emphasis On Atom

The United States is described as "intensely" active in the production of carrier and atomic-powered ships Russia is even more active in building submarines and lighter surface ships, while Britain, which has not ordered a major warship since the end of World War II, has been steadily cutting back in almost all categories As illustrated in the chart. Great Britain's cruiser strength has been lopped in half since 1946 while Russia jumped from eight to 30 and the United States hovered around 75 Russia now leads both the United States and Britain in submarines and has more than twice as many destroyers as Britain

Subs Suit Red Purpose

Russia's neglect of the aircraft carrier is explained in terms of the strategy for which her fleet is designed Her major war aim, says Jane's, would be to sever sea communications between the NATO powers and prevent Western warships and merchantmen from entering European and Asian waters.

For this purpose, the submarine is the prime weapon The British and American navies, which are designed to assault land targets as well as enemy ships, place their greatest emphasis on the carrier.

Jane's acknowledges that information on Russian ships is difficult to get, but its reports indicate that the quality of the swiftly growing Soviet fleet is very good

Many Large Subs

Over half of the Russian submarines are of the large or medium ocean-going type, says Jane's. Much of the new construction is patterned after the German U-boats captured at the end of World War II, and many are equipped with the snorkel underwater breathing device.

Jane's does not include reports, widely published elsewhere, that Russia may have atomic-powered submarines either in operation or under construction. But it says of the new Soviet cruisers and destroyers

"These are modern and incorporate the latest technological equipment. They are fully manned in active commission and are continually undergoing rigorous training operations, demonstrating the important position the control of the sea holds in Soviet grand strategy."

LEADER VOWS HE WILL STALL LEGISLATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader today pledged full support of Democratic efforts to force Republican concessions on the general appropriation bill by delaying other money-spending legislation.

But Leader denied GOP charges that he ordered the strategy which just about ruined the Republican June 15 final adjournment timetable.

"I was present when the decision was made but I did not make the proposal—it was made by a member of the General Assembly," Leader declared.

"I don't recall even commenting on it at that time but I certainly concur on what the (Democratic) leaders decided," he told his first news conference in three weeks.

Won't Help GOP

The strategy calls for House Democrats to refuse to help Republicans put up the necessary two-thirds vote needed to pass appropriations for state-aided hospitals and institutions not fully controlled by the state. A 24 million dollar bill for hospitals was defeated this way yesterday.

Leader said that if Democratic leaders are willing to "stick to it" and delay passage of appropriations it is acceptable to him.

"We have not given up our hopes (to get an adequate budget) by any stretch of the imagination."

Leader emphasized that "obviously" appropriations for such things as the mental health program, called preferred appropriations, must have priority over the hospital-aid type, called non-preferred appropriations.

Asked whether he would possibly veto the general appropriation bill if it wasn't acceptable, Leader replied: "I don't know what I'd do, I don't want to raise it as a threat or eliminate it as one of the many useful tools a governor has."

CANNOT CHANGE TAVERN HOURS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Liquor Control Board has notified its retail licensees that once they elect to operate on Daylight Time they cannot change to Standard Time.

The ruling was contained in enabling regulations for a new law allowing licensees in areas of Daylight Time an option on Daylight or Standard Time operating hours.

Because notice to the board is required only from bars electing Daylight hours, a licensee who changes to Standard Time could at any future date return to Daylight by notifying the board. After the notice he could not return to Standard, however.

The law became effective May 27 and made invalid a board ruling that bars across the state would operate by local time during the Daylight period this year. By operating on Standard Time, bars in Daylight areas now may close at 3 a. m. local time.

The laws does not give an extension of total hours.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is where we came in.

All that's been said in the past five days — by President Eisenhower and by Russia's Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Khrushchev — on banning nuclear weapons sounds like the 1956 presidential campaign all over again.

Bulganin and Eisenhower said yesterday what they said last October. And now, eight months later, the United States and Russia are no nearer agreement on banning nuclear weapons and their testing than they were then.

Eisenhower made it clear again yesterday — as he did last fall — this country would continue its tests until there is foolproof agreement on disarmament and banning nuclear weapons.

Last Sunday Khrushchev said Russia would be willing to start reaching toward a disarmament agreement with a first small step. And yesterday Bulganin said in a statement made public in Geneva: Russia was willing to agree to an "appropriate" agreement on the whole problem of disarmament . . . including agreement on an immediate end to the testing of nuclear weapons.

"First Small Step"

Last fall, in the midst of the presidential campaign, Bulganin stuck his nose in with a letter to Eisenhower which said: "Until the necessary agreement on banning atomic weapons has been reached, it would be advisable . . . to agree at least on the first step toward . . . the prohibition of tests of atomic and hydrogen weapons."

Catchword Is "Appropriate"

That first step Khrushchev talked about Sunday seemed taken word for word out of Bulganin's letter of last October. That letter was the second of its kind from Bulganin to Eisenhower. The first was in September 1956.

But the catchword in Bulganin's note was "appropriate." He talked of an appropriate agreement on the whole problem of disarmament. The trouble is, the United States and Russia have never been able to agree on what's "appropriate."

While the United States wants a disarmament agrement basd on a strong inspction system which will make cheating impossible, the Russians haven't wanted any part of really tight, foolproof controls.

Reds Can't Agree

And yesterday a Senate subcommittee, which has been studying disarmament, reported that it had asked 40 authorities on Russia, scattered through the United States, their opinion on this question: Would the Russians agree to the kind of tight inspection Eisenhower wanted:

The committee said most of the 40 think the present Russian leaders not only wouldn't but couldn't. The reason: letting in foreign inspectors would weaken their grip on the country.

Eisenhower told his news conference what he said last October: that this country would like a total ban on atomic weapon testing — provided it was part of a total disarmament agreement.

MANY PENDING MERGERS HINGE ON COURT RULE

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's antitrust victory over the Du Pont Co. and General Motors Corp., was heralded by some federal officials today as a "milestone" decision.

They said it may pave the way for tougher enforcement of the monopoly laws.

Many Mergers Pending

More than a score of antimerger cases, involving some of the largest corporations, are now pending. Many involve Section 7 of the Clayton Antitrust Act, the antimerger probision under which the court held that Du Pont must dispose of some or all of its vast GM stockholdings.

One high antitrust official said privately: "If facts in any of the pending cases are similar, the decision certainly will be cited by our attorneys in the trial of the cases."

The Federal Trade Commission is waging 15 antimerger cases. Three others have been closed with at least partial success for FTC.

Mergers Increasing

An FTC study in 1955 disclosed that the rate of business mergers has risen 300 per cent since 1949. Its findings helped to stimulate the Justice Department, as well as FTC, into more vigorous enforcement of the Clayton Act.

The Justice Department now has nevesremergcases pending, including the proposed joining of two leading steel corporations, Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. In another case it compelled the giant Hilton-Statler hotel chains to sell certain properties and halt their expansion in some cities.

Two Roosevelts Unhurt In Crash

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Undaunted by a crackup of their plane, Elliott and Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. planned to continue an aerial cattle-buying tour today.

Elliott said his eldest son Bill Roosevelt would fly here from Denver in another plane and pick them up. They planned to stop to see some cattle at Larned, Kan., on the way to Denver.

The sons of the late President and two other men escaped injury yesterday at Fort Scott, Kan., when Elliott's plane hit mud on a takeoff and skidded through a fence into some brush across the road. A Fort Scott pilot estimated the damage at $10,000.

MORE RAIN DUE FLOODED AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's weather pattern showed only minor changes today, with showers or thunderstorms indicated in widely scattered areas across the country.

The water-logged areas of the Southwest were in line for additional rainfall, increasing threats of further flooding in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

One wet belt stretched from the Southern Plains eastward to the Atlantic Coast and northward through the Middle Atlantic Coast region and Ohio Valley to the lower Great Lakes. Occasional rain was expected in the North Atlantic Coast states.

Hail and rain pelted Midwest areas yesterday as thunderstorms rumbled across the upper Mississippi Valley and western Great Lakes region. Strong winds lashed many areas. Rainfall in most places was light although it measured an inch in the Chicago area.

FILES SUIT TO STOP JAP TRIAL OF HIS BROTHER

Girard, 21, an Army specialist 3.C., of Ottawa, Ill., is accused in the death of a Japanese woman killed as she scavenged scrap on an Army firing range in Japan. The United States has agreed to permit trial in local civil courts instead of a U.S. court-martial.

The habeas corpus action here was filed in the name of the soldier's brother, Louis Girard, also of Ottawa, Ill.

Lack Jurisdiction

The petition, filed by attorneys Earl J. Carroll of New York and Dayton M. Harrington of Washington, contends Japanese courts lack jurisdiction.

The petition names, among other defendants, Secretary of Defense Wilson, Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of the Army Brucker.

The Japanise claimed jurisdiction on the ground that the firing was outside Girard's line of duty, though he had been assigned to guard some equipment on the reservation.

Calls Detention Illegal

The petition contends that Girard's detention by the Army pending trial in Japanese courts is "illegal and in violation of the Constitution and laws o fthe United States as well as the treaty rights and obligations of the United States."

Carroll, a 53-year-old former Air Force major, is a volunteer in the case. He has participatedin defense of other soldiers accused abroad.

SLAIN WOMAN'S MISSING MATE BEING SOUGHT

A 48-state alert has been issued for Earl William Persinger, 35-year-old husband of the dead woman, Mrs. Ina Persinger. Police said the search was started when it was learned Persinger has been missing from his East Eden home near Buffalo, N.Y., since May 20.

Mrs. Persinger, 30, was found shot to death Monday.

Police said Persinger is not wanted as a suspect but for questioning.

Authorities are also seeking John Sutton, 32, of Ogden, in connection with the death. Police said Sutton had been keeping company with Mrs. Persinger, mother of a 14-year-old son.

Parents Make Appeal

Sutton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton, sent out a message: "Son—please come home. Everything will be all right. Love, mother and dad."

The elder Suttons said their son borrowed $200 a week ago and said he was going to the seashore. He took a shotgun with him they said.

Mrs. Persinger's partly nude body was found on the floor of her apartment kitchen Monday. She had died of shotgun wounds.

The Suttons said John had been morose over his "lost" love after Mrs. Persinger broke off with him recently. Mrs. Persinger once swore out a warrant for Sutton's arrest on a threat charge but later withdrew it, police said.

Mrs. Persinger moved here not long ago from West Virginia. Her son is living with her sister, Mrs Pleva Holiday, in Winona, W. Va.

MACING COUNT IS DISMISSED

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A criminal court judge yesterday dismissed for lack of evidence charges of macing and conspiracy against a State Highways Dept. engineer.

L. J. Curfan, Pittsburgh district engineer, had been accused of conspiring to force and actually forcing subordinates to contribute to a political campaign fund.

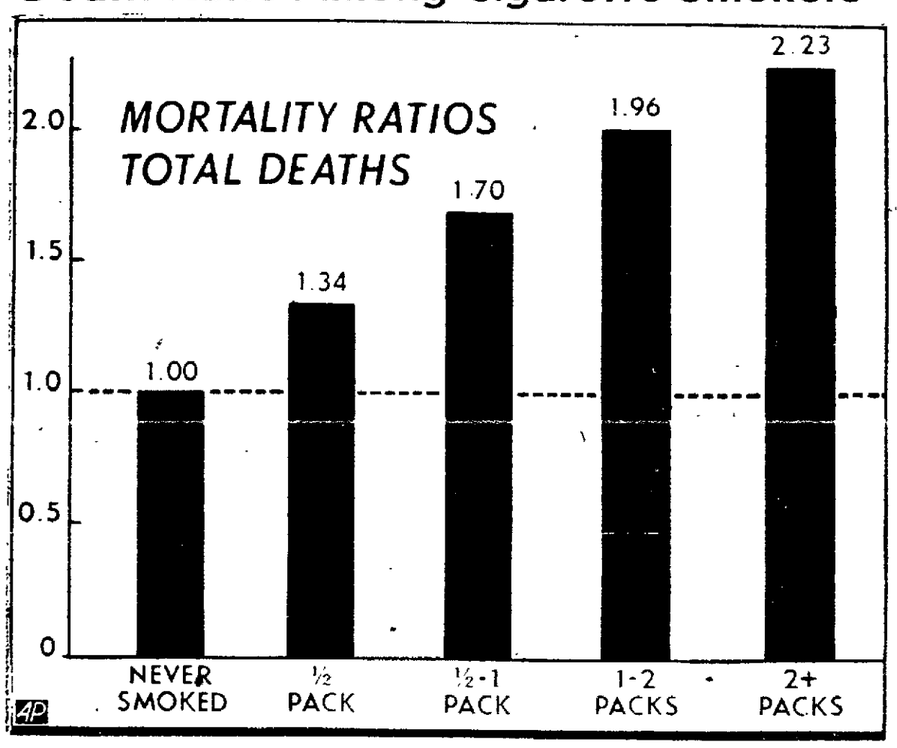
They are Michael Hertz, foreman at the nearby Aspinwall garage of the State Highways Dept.; Thomas McElheny, assistant maintenance superintendent for the department in Allegheny County; Oscar Hohing, former maintenance superintendent, and Alex Campbell, formerly Hohing's assistant.

The state called nine more witnesses yesterday who testified they were forced to contribute one per cent of their 1953 salaries to a 1954 Republican primary campaign fund under threat of losing their jobs in the highways department.

The state has rested its case.

Death Ratio Among Cigarette Smokers



This chart by the American Cancer Society was released in New York Tuesday with its report said to show that death rates from all causes increased markedly with amount of cigarette smoking. Lung cancer and heart diseases were most prominent causes. In four-year study of 188,000 men aged 50 to 70, the mortality ratios rose from 1.00 for men who never smoked, left column, all the way up to 2.23 or 123% higher for those who smoked two packs or more per day, right column. FIREMEN PLAN '57 CARNIVAL FOR AUG. 5-10

Alpha Fire Company No 1 furthered plans for the annual summer carnival at the monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the engine house. The carnival will take place August 5 through 10 on the community playground. The committee in charge of general arrangements includes Bernard M. Selby, chairman, Dennis S. Wallick and Walter C. Myers.

The carnival entertainment committee, consisting of Paul E. Altoff, chairman, and Henry E. Waltman, announced the special music secured for each evening of the carnival as follows: Monday, August 5, Woody and His Rhythm Rangers; August 6 Wagner's Little German Band; August 7, The Tones, from York; August 8, 101 Ranch Boys, of York; August 9, the Littlestown High School Band; August 10, Bobby Gross and the Range Riders.

The big parade will be held again this year in connection with the carnival on Friday, August 9, at 7 p.m. The committee in charge of arranging for the event is composed of Harry W. Badders, chairman, Fred C. Sentz, Henry E. Waltman, Bernard M. Selby and Kenneth W. Olinger. There will be rides, games, exhibits, refreshments and entertainment each evening.

To Parade Friday

The carnival book committee, Richard B. Hartlaub and Leslie Shinham, co-chairmen, distributed books to the company members and appointed the following firemen to assist on that committee: Edward L. Warner, Robert L. Snyder, James P. Hahn, Glenn E Ohler and Clair J. Redding.

The session on Tuesday was conducted by the president, George E. Hornberger, and the meeting opened with the group singing "America" and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Bills ordered paid amounted to $330.21 and receipts for the month, $15. Luther N. Lemmon was voted into membership upon recommendation of the investigating committee. Fire Chief Glenn E. Ohler reported that no calls were received since the May meeting.

Fred C. Sentz reported that the Uniform Rank won the first prize of $300 for being the best appearing marching unit with band accompaniment at the Lancaster County Firemen's parade, Saturday in Christiana. The unit will participate in the parade at Pennville on Friday, leaving the engine house at 6:15 p.m. and again next Thursday in the Taneytown parade, leaving at 6:15 p.m. Sentz, who is captain of the Uniform Rank, urged all members who have uniforms to appear regularly in the parades; if they do not wish to participate, return their uniforms to him; and if they want to join the Rank, uniforms are available, by contacting him.

Elect Delegate

Lloyd Harner was appointed to represent the company at the state firemen's annual convention sessions in Allentown. Announcement was made that the next quarterly meeting of the Adams County Firemen's Association will be held on Monday, June 24, 8 p.m. in York Springs. The meeting is being advanced one week, not to interfere with the July 4 vacation. The next session of the Alpha firemen will be held one week early, Tuesday, June 25, at 8 p.m., so that it does not fall during the following vacation week.

At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were served to the 57 members in attendance by Clyde E Harner, Harry M. Badders and James P. Hahn who will also serve as the refreshment committee at the June 25 meeting.

Congregational Night will be held by the Southern Methodist Church on Monday at 8 p.m., when election of officers will take place.

Calls Meeting

Cubmaster Stewart N. Long has called a meeting of the officials and den mothers of Pack No. 84 for Monday at 8 p.m. at the Legion Home, E. King St.

Mr. and Mrs. George Study, Odessa, Texas, arrived on Tuesday to spend some time with his mother, Mrs. Annie A. Kelly, S. Queen St. The trip was made by plane from Texas to Washington.

The Littlestown 4-H Club will meet on Monday at 1:30 p.m. in Grace Church Hall, Two Taverns. Persons interested in the club work are invited to attend, and each person going is asked to take a tape measure.

Miss Betty Wallick, a majorette with the Littlestown High School Band, will give baton twirling lessons at her home this summer. Persons interested in learning to twirl are asked to go to Miss Wallick's home, 174 W King St., on Friday afternoon.

COULDN'T CRY, WEEPS AT FOOD

He couldn't cry because disease had knocked out his tear glands. This also meant he had no normal moisture at all in his eyes. They became dry, scratched, ulcerated. He began going blind.

Surgeons stepped in. They intercepted a duct that brings saliva to the mouth, and switched it over to one eye at Veterans Administration Hospital in Cleveland.

The surgeons now plan to fix his right eye, which also was dried and damaged in the same way.

The man, a Negro, 24, suffered an eye condition known as xerophthalmia, as an aftermath of a serious skin disease.

OPPOSE REMOVAL OF JAMES MORGAN

MANSFIELD, Pa. (AP)—James G Morgan, president of Mansfield State Teachers College for the last 14 years, has submitted his resignation, effective July 16.

He had been asked to resign last Friday by the school's board of trustees.

Immediate opposition developed to the removal of Morgan, who began his career at Mansfield in 1921 as an instructor.

Sen. James S. Berger (R-Potter) called the request for his resignation "purely political." He said six of the board members appointed by Gov. Leader had never been confirmed by the Senate and that he would attempt to block confirmation.

A. F. Snyder, Dushore, one of the Republican minority board members, said insufficient notice had been given for the meeting when the request for Morgan's resignation was voted. He said majority members said they thought the president of the teachers college should hold a doctorate.

Snyder said Dr. Lewis Rathgeber, director of the Bureau of Private Schools in Veterans Education of the State Department of Public Instruction, was under consideration for the presidency to succeed Morgan.

Senate Receives Highway Measure

HARRISBURG (AP) — A bill directing the Highways Department to study the advisability of constructing a new highway in Chester County was ready for Senate floor action today.

The Highways Committee yesterday approved the House-passed measure. The proposed addition to the highways system would be an eight-mile stretch from the intersection of Route 23 and 83, west of Phoenixville, to near Valley Forge.

The bill would direct the department to give 'due regard" to the necessity and importance of such a link from a traffic viewpoint as well as the cost and feasibility.

OPPOSE FARE BOOST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia says a postponement in the effective date of a proposed increase in commuter railroad fares will give the city more time to prepare its opposition.

The Pennsylvania Railroad and the Reading Co. agreed yesterday to boost the fares July 16 instead of June 16 if approved by the Public Utility Commission. The fares would average 15 cents higher ranging to 25 per cent for four types of commuter tickets.

The increases would apply to the Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Harrisburg areas.

YOUNG ITALIAN SEWERS CALLED CATERINETTAS

ROME (AP)—For every famous designer in Europe, there are a hundred Caterinettas, the girls with the needle and thread.

Young seamstresses in Italy are called Caterinettas in honor of St. Catherine (Santa Caterina), patron saint of dressmakers.

Behind the scenes of the glamorous dress sohps there are workrooms full of these quiet, white-smocked girls who do the tedious work that goes into fine dressmaking. Their ages range from 14 to about 23. They are rarely seen or thought of by the elegant clients who pay hundreds of dollars for a glamorous dress.

Only now and then does a Caterinetta bring a dress in from the workroom and enjoy the rare privilege of watching the dressmaker fit a customer.

One "little Caterina," whose real name is Renata Ierdi, is typical of all. She dreams of becoming as great as her mistress, Micol Fontana, one of the sisters whose Fontana dresses are known everywhere. Now she earns a tiny salary of less than $2.00 a day as one of the Fontana's many sewing assistants.

Start Young

But at 21, Renata feels that she's come a long way. The girls begin young. Renata had only a few years of elementary school before she went to work. At 14 she was already an apprentice in a small dressmaking establishment.

Renata's earliest, fondest hope was for a chance to learn her trade in an important fashion house. She made the grade two years ago. Fontana advertised for girls and gave Renata Ierdi a job.

"What we are paid doesn't matter, it's the prestige," say grateful Renata, an attractive little brunetta who is dedicated to her work. "It means everything to my career to say I worked for Fontana."

A few of the prettiest Caterinettas aspire to be models so they can wear the exquisite clothes they help to make. But most are like Renata. They want only to become good dressmakers. They know they can't all become great. Many will be satisfied to open little fashion houses in their parents' living rooms. But they dream of chic ateliers and rich, famous ladies to dress.

Dreams Of Fame

These girls, like Renata, think about little else. At lunchtime they chatter about the latest fashions while they munch sandwiches at their workstables. After work, Renata goes straight home to design and sew for herself, her mother and sisters.

Sunday, her one day off, she spends at the sewing-machine. If she has a few extra lire or a gallant beau, she goes to the movies Sunday evening. Sometimes she's invited to a tea dance at the home of one of the other Fontana girls. She doesn't look for any other amusement. Sewing is her life.

Renata Ierdi has no fiance yet, but she knows she'll be a great asset to the lucky guy she marries. She has her trade, and she has a dream of future fame.

Husband And Wife Teach Each Other

Howard Caine is singing and dancing a lead role in the musical comedy "Damn Yankees." His wife, Joan-Ellen, is making her Broadway debut in a straight role in "Hotel Paradiso."

But Howard started his acting career as a dramatic actor, and Joan-Ellen began as a singer. (He is 31, hails from Nashville, Tenn. She is in her mid-20's, is a native New Yorker).

When the young couple first met she taught him singing in exchange for acting lessons. To bind the knowledge exchange, Howard taught her the intricacies of cookery — now the chore of preparing a meal is interchangeable when either is between engagements.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Jeanne Crain and her husband, Paul Brinkman, on the brink of divorce a year ago, are expecting their fifth child in November, her agent says. The couple hurled bitter charges at each other when Miss Crain filed for divorce, but the suit was dropped after a New Year's Eve reconciliation.

SLAIN WOMAN'S MISSING MATE BEING SOUGHT

A 48-state alert has been issued for Earl William Persinger, 35-year-old husband of the dead woman, Mrs. Ina Persinger. Police said the search was started when it was learned Persinger has been missing from his East Eden home near Buffalo, N.Y., since May 20.

Mrs. Persinger, 30, was found shot to death Monday.

Police said Persinger is not wanted as a suspect but for questioning.

Authorities are also seeking John Sutton, 32, of Ogden, in connection with the death. Police said Sutton had been keeping company with Mrs. Persinger, mother of a 14-year-old son.

Parents Make Appeal

Sutton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton, sent out a message: "Son—please come home. Everything will be all right. Love, mother and dad."

The elder Suttons said their son borrowed $200 a week ago and said he was going to the seashore. He took a shotgun with him they said.

Mrs. Persinger's partly nude body was found on the floor of her apartment kitchen Monday. She had died of shotgun wounds.

The Suttons said John had been morose over his "lost" love after Mrs. Persinger broke off with him recently. Mrs. Persinger once swore out a warrant for Sutton's arrest on a threat charge but later withdrew it, police said.

Mrs. Persinger moved here not long ago from West Virginia. Her son is living with her sister, Mrs. Pleva Holiday, in Winona, W. Va.

MACING COUNT IS DISMISSED

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A criminal court judge yesterday dismissed for lack of evidence charges of macing and conspiracy against a State Highways Dept. engineer.

L. J. Curran, Pittsburgh district engineer, had been accused of conspiring to force and actually forcing subordinates to contribute to a political campaign fund.

They are Michael Hertz, foreman at the nearby Aspinwall garage of the State Highways Dept.; Thomas McElheny, assistant maintenance superintendent for the department in Allegheny County; Oscar Hohing, former maintenance superintendent, and Alex Campbell, formerly Hohing's assistant.

The state called nine more witnesses yesterday who testified they were forced to contribute one per cent of their 1953 salaries to a 1954 Republican primary campaign fund under threat of losing their jobs in the highways department.

The state has rested its case.

FIREMEN PLAN '57 CARNIVAL FOR AUG. 5-10

Alpha Fire Company No 1 furthered plans for the annual summer carnival at the monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the engine house. The carnival will take place August 5 through 10 on the community playground. The committee in charge of general arrangements includes Bernard M. Selby, chairman, Dennis S. Wallick and Walter C. Myers.

The carnival entertainment committee, consisting of Paul E. Altoff, chairman, and Henry E. Waltman, announced the special music secured for each evening of the carnival as follows: Monday, August 5, Woody and His Rhythm Rangers; August 6, Wagner's Little German Band; August 7, The Tones, from York; August 8, 101 Ranch Boys, of York; August 9, the Littlestown High School Band; August 10, Bobby Gross and the Range Riders.

The big parade will be held again this year in connection with the carnival on Friday, August 9, at 7 p.m. The committee in charge of arranging for the event is composed of Harry W. Badders, chairman, Fred C. Sentz, Henry E. Walman, Bernard M. Selby and Kenneth W. Olinger. There will be rides, games, exhibits, refreshments and entertainment each evening.

To Parade Friday

The carnival book committee, Richard B. Hartlaub and Leslie Shinham, co-chairmen, distributed books to the company members and appointed the following firemen to assist on that committee: Edward L. Warner, Robert L. Snyder, James P. Hahn, Glenn E. Ohler and Clair J. Redding.

The session on Tuesday was conducted by the president, George E. Hornberger, and the meeting opened with the group singing "America" and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Bills ordered paid amounted to $330.21 and receipts for the month, $15. Luther N. Lemmon was voted into membership upon recommendation of the investigating committee. Fire Chief Glenn E. Ohler reported that no calls were received since the May meeting.

Fred C. Sentz reported that the Uniform Rank won the first prize of $300 for being the best appearing marching unit with band accompaniment at the Lancaster County Firemen's parade, Saturday in Christiana. The unit will participate in the parade at Pennville on Friday, leaving the engine house at 6:15 p.m. and again next Thursday in the Taneytown parade, leaving at 6:15 p.m. Sentz, who is captain of the Uniform Rank, urged all members who have uniforms to appear regularly in the parades; if they do not wish to participate, return their uniforms to him; and if they want to join the Rank, uniforms are available, by contacting him.

Elect Delegate

Lloyd Harner was appointed to represent the company at the state firemen's annual convention sessions in Allentown. Announcement was made that the next quarterly meeting of the Adams County Firemen's Association will be held on Monday, June 24, 8 p.m. in York Springs. The meeting is being advanced one week, not to interfere with the July 4 vacation. The next session of the Alpha firemen will be held one week early, Tuesday, June 25, at 8 p.m., so that it does not fall during the following vacation week.

At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were served to the 57 members in attendance by Clyde E. Harner, Harry M. Badders and James P. Hahn who will also serve as the refreshment committee at the June 25 meeting.

Congregational Night will be held by the Southern Methodist Church on Monday at 8 p.m., when election of officers will take place.

Calls Meeting

Cubmaster Stewart N. Long has called a meeting of the officials and den mothers of Pack No. 84 for Monday at 8 p.m. at the Legion Home, E. King St.

Mr. and Mrs. George Study, Odessa, Texas, arrived on Tuesday to spend some time with his mother, Mrs. Annie A. Kelly, S. Queen St. The trip was made by plane from Texas to Washington.

The Littlestown 4-H Club will meet on Monday at 1:30 p.m. in Grace Church Hall, Two Taverns. Persons interested in the club work are invited to attend, and each person going is asked to take a tape measure.

Miss Betty Wallick, a majorette with the Littlestown High School Band, will give baton twirling lessons at her home this summer. Persons interested in learning to twirl are asked to go to Miss Wallick's home, 174 W. King St., on Friday afternoon.

OPPOSE REMOVAL OF JAMES MORGAN

MANSFIELD, Pa. (AP)—James G Morgan, president of Mansfield State Teachers College for the last 14 years, has submitted his resignation, effective July 16.

He had been asked to resign last Friday by the school's board of trustees.

Immediate opposition developed to the removal of Morgan, who began his career at Mansfield in 1921 as an instructor.

Sen. James S. Berger (R-Potter) called the request for his resignation "purely political." He said six of the board members appointed by Gov. Leader had never been confirmed by the Senate and that he would attempt to block confirmation.

A. F. Snyder, Dushore, one of the Republican minority board members, said insufficient notice had been given for the meeting when the request for Morgan's resignation was voted. He said majority members said they thought the president of the teachers college should hold a doctorate.

Snyder said Dr. Lewis Rathgeber, director of the Bureau of Private Schools in Veterans Education of the State Department of Public Instruction, was under consideration for the presidency to succeed Morgan.

Senate Receives Highway Measure

HARRISBURG (AP) — A bill directing the Highways Department to study the advisability of constructing a new highway in Chester County was ready for Senate floor action today.

The Highways Committee yesterday approved the House-passed measure. The proposed addition to the highways system would be an eight-mile stretch from the intersection of Route 23 and 83, west of Phoenixville, to near Valley Forge.

The bill would direct the department to give "due regard" to the necessity and importance of such a link from a traffic viewpoint as well as the cost and feasibility.

OPPOSE FARE BOOST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia says a postponement in the effective date of a proposed increase in commuter railroad fares will give the city more time to prepare its opposition.

The Pennsylvania Railroad and the Reading Co. agreed yesterday to boost the fares July 16 instead of June 16 if approved by the Public Utility Commission. The fares would average 15 cents higher ranging to 25 per cent for four types of commuter tickets.

The increases would apply to the Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Harrisburg areas.

"What we are paid doesn't matter, it's the prestige," say grateful Renata, an attractive little brunetta who is dedicated to her work. "It means everything to my career to say I worked for Fontana."

A few of the prettiest Caterinettas aspire to be models so they can wear the exquisite clothes they help to make. But most are like Renata. They want only to become good dressmakers. They know they can't all become great. Many will be satisfied to open little fashion houses in their parents' living rooms. But they dream of chic ateliers and rich, famous ladies to dress.

Dreams Of Fame

These girls, like Renata, think about little else. At lunchtime they chatter about the latest fashions while they munch sandwiches at their worktables. After work, Renata goes straight home to design and sew for herself, her mother and sisters.

Sunday, her one day off, she spends at the sewing-machine. If she has a few extra lire or a gallant beau, she goes to the movies Sunday evening. Sometimes she's invited to a tea dance at the home of one of the other Fontana girls. She doesn't look for any other amusement. Sewing is her life.

Renata Ierdi has no fiance yet, but she knows she'll be a great asset to the lucky guy she marries. She has her trade, and she has a dream of future fame.

Husband And Wife Teach Each Other

Howard Caine is singing and dancing a lead role in the musical comedy "Damn Yankees." His wife, Joan-Ellen, is making her Broadway debut in a straight role in "Hotel Paradiso."

But Howard started his acting career as a dramatic actor, and Joan-Ellen began as a singer. (He is 31, hails from Nashville, Tenn. She is in her mid-20's, is a native New Yorker).

When the young couple first met she taught him singing in exchange for acting lessons. To bind the knowledge exchange, Howard taught her the intricacies of cookery — now the chore of preparing a meal is interchangeable when either is between engagements.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Jeanne Crain and her husband, Paul Brinkman, on the brink of divorce a year ago, are expecting their fifth child in November, her agent says. The couple hurled bitter charges at each other when Miss Crain filed for divorce, but the suit was dropped after a New Year's Eve reconciliation.

LEADER VOWS HE WILL STALL LEGISLATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov Leader today pledged full support of Democratic efforts to force Republican concessions on the general appropriation bill by delaying other money-spending legislation

But Leader denied GOP charges that he ordered the strategy which just about ruined the Republican June 15 final adjournment timetable.

"I was present when the decision was made but I did not make the proposal—it was made by a member of the General Assembly [illegible]

"I don't recall even commenting on it at that time but I certainly concur on what the (Democratic) leaders decided" he told his first news conference in three weeks

Won't Help GOP

The strategy calls for House Democrats to refuse to help Republicans put up the necessary two-thirds vote needed to pass appropriations for state-aided hospitals and institutions not fully controlled by the state A 24 million dollar bill for hospitals was defeated this way yesterday.

Leader said that if Democratic leaders are willing to "stick to it" and delay passage of appropriations it is acceptable to him.

"We have not given up our hopes (to get an adequate budget) by any stretch of the imagination."

Leader emphasized that "obviously" appropriations for such things as the mental health program, called preferred appropriations, must have priority over the hospital-aid type, called non-preferred appropriations.

Asked whether he would possibly veto the general appropriation bill if it wasn't acceptable, Leader replied "I don't know what I'd do, I don't want to raise it as a threat or eliminate it as one of the many useful tools a governor has"

CANNOT CHANGE TAVERN HOURS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Liquor Control Board has notified its retail licensees that once they elect to operate on Daylight Time they cannot change to Standard Time

The ruling was contained in enabling regulations for a new law allowing licensees in areas of Daylight Time an option on Daylight or Standard Time operating hours.

Because notice to the board is required only from bars electing Daylight hours, a licensee who changes to Standard Time could at any future date return to Daylight by notifying the board. After the notice he could not return to Standard, however.

The law became effective May 27 and made invalid a board ruling that bars across the state would operate by local time during the Daylight period this year. By operating on Standard Time, bars in Daylight areas now may close at 3 a m. local time.

The laws does not give an extension of total hours.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is where we came in.

All that's been said in the past five days — by President Eisenhower and by Russia's Premier Bulganin and Communist party boss Khrushchev — on banning nuclear weapons sounds like the 1956 presidential campaign all over again.

Bulganin and Eisenhower said yesterday what they said last October And now, eight months later, the United States and Russia are no nearer agreement on banning nuclear weapons and their testing than they were then.

Eisenhower made it clear again yesterday — as he did last fall — this country would continue its tests until there is foolproof agreement on disarmament and banning nuclear weapons

Last Sunday Khrushchev said Russia would be willing to start reaching toward a disarmament agreement with a first small step. And yesterday Bulganin said in a statement made public in Geneva Russia was willing to agree to an "appropriate" agreement on the whole problem of disarmament . . . including agreement on an immediate end to the testing of nuclear weapons.

"First Small Step"

Last fall, in the midst of the presidential campaign, Bulganin stuck his nose in with a letter to Eisenhower which said: "Until the necessary agreement on banning atomic weapons has been reached, it would be advisable . . . to agree at least on the first step toward . . . the prohibition of tests of atomic and hydrogen weapons"

Catchword Is "Appropriate"

That first step Khrushchev talked about Sunday seemed taken word for word out of Bulganin's letter of last October. That letter was the second of its kind from Bulganin to Eisenhower. The first was in September 1956.

But the catchword in Bulganin's note was "appropriate." He talked of an appropriate agreement on the whole problem of disarmament. The trouble is, the United States and Russia have never been able to agree on what's "appropriate"

While the United States wants a disarmament agrement basd on a strong inspction system which will make cheating impossible, the Russians haven't wanted any part of really tight, foolproof controls.

Reds Can't Agree

And yesterday a Senate subcommittee, which has been studying disarmament, reported that it had asked 40 authorities on Russia, scattered through the United States, their opinion on this question: Would the Russians agree to the kind of tight inspection Eisenhower wanted:

The committee said most of the 40 think the present Russian leaders not only wouldn't but couldn't The reason: letting in foreign inspectors would weaken their grip on the country.

Eisenhower told his news conference what he said last October: that this country would like a total ban on atomic weapon testing — provided it was part of a total disarmament agreement.

MANY PENDING MERGERS HINGE ON COURT RULE

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's antitrust victory over the Du Pont Co and General Motors Corp, was heralded by some federal officials today as a "milestone" decision.

They said it may pave the way for tougher enforcement of the monopoly laws.

Many Mergers Pending

More than a score of antimerger cases, involving some of the largest corporations, are now pending. Many involve Section 7 of the Clayton Antitrust Act, the antimerger provision under which the court held that Du Pont must dispose of some or all of its vast GM stockholdings.

One high antitrust official said privately: "If facts in any of the pending cases are similar, the decision certainly will be cited by our attorneys in the trial of the cases"

The Federal Trade Commission is waging 15 antimerger cases Three others have been closed with at least partial success for FTC.

Mergers Increasing

An FTC study in 1955 disclosed that the rate of business mergers has risen 300 per cent since 1949. Its findings helped to stimulate the Justice Department, as well as FTC, into more vigorous enforcement of the Clayton Act.

The Justice Department now has nevesremergcases pending, including the proposed joining of two leading steel corporations, Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co In another case it compelled the giant Hilton-Statler hotel chains to sell certain properties and halt their expansion in some cities.

Two Roosevelts Unhurt In Crash

Elliott said his eldest son Bill Roosevelt would fly here from Denver in another plane and pick them up They planned to stop to see some cattle at Larned, Kan, on the way to Denver.

The sons of the late President and two other men escaped injury yesterday a Fort Scott, Kan, when Elliott's plane hit mud on a takeoff and skidded through a fence into some brush across the road A Fort Scott pilot estimated the damage at $10,000.

MORE RAIN DUE FLOODED AREAS

Girard, 21, an Army specialist 3 C, of Ottawa, Ill., is accused in the death of a Japanese woman killed as she scavenged scrap on an Army firing range in Japan. The United States has agreed to permit trial in local civil courts instead of a U S court-martial.

The habeas corpus action here was filed in the name of the soldier's brother, Louis Girard, also of Ottawa, Ill.

Lack Jurisdiction

The petition, filed by attorneys Earl J. Carroll of New York and Dayton M Harrington of Washington, contends Japanese courts lack jurisdiction.

The petition names, among other defendants, Secretary of Defense Wilson, Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of the Army Brucker

The Japanese claimed jurisdiction on the ground that the firing was outside Girard's line of duty, though he had been assigned to guard some equipment on the reservation.

Calls Detention Illegal

The petition contends that Girard's detention by the Army pending trial in Japanese courts is "illegal and in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States as well as the treaty rights and obligations of the United States

Carroll, a 53-year-old former Air Force major, is a volunteer in the case He has participated in defense of other soldiers accused abroad

MAJORS HAVE MANY ROOKIES NOW PLAYING

NEW YORK (AP)—Most of the early season space on rookies was devoted to shortstop Andre Rodgers of the New York Giants and Tony Kubek, a New York Yankee shortstop-outfielder. But since the major league season opened these two have been shunted to the background.

"Kubek has been working in certain parks," says Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, "but I believe he will hit the best pitchers eventually.' In Tony's first nine games he was hitting .375 He fills in when Mickey Mantle has leg trouble or when Stengel feels the need of a young southpaw batter in left field

Cleveland has in Roger Maris a new left field prospect. He hit well (.321) in his first 13 games and three of his hits were home runs. At Indianapolis last year he hit 17 homers and batted .293 and was ticketed for San Diego this season He went so well in spring training that on April 9 Manager Kerby Farrell added him to the Indian roster.

Kansas City has been doing well with Milt Graff at second base, and Boston has come up with Frank Malzone on third base And the White Sox have found added speed and some hitting in Jim Landis, a right fielder.

Trotters Get Hold In Nova Scotia

SACKVILLE DOWNS, N S (AP) — Harness racing is getting to be popular in Nova Scotia Three tracks will be in operation this summer

Sackville Downs Raceway opened in late May and will continue through Nov. 11 with events nights It is the third track in this province and is 13 miles from Halifax

Racing at Truro is set for Tuesday and Friday nights until mid-October while the Cape Breton Raceway at Sydney will have 37 nights of racing on Monday and Thursday nights Each ... pari-mutuel ...

NELSON'S FAME DUE TO EAGLE IN 1939 OPEN

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH, Tex (AP) — Byron Nelson can still see that ball as it winged its way to the fourth green of the Philadelphia Country Club in 1939. It was one of the great shots in golf history—one that won for Nelson the National Open championship.

Nelson was one stroke ahead but he felt he had to be better than that to beat the brilliant Wood for his first big championship

Famous Iron Shot

Byron's drive on the 460-yard par 4 hole carried 240 yards Nelson then took out his 1 iron and let fly. The ball traveled almost on a line and didn't waver in its flight It landed on the green 12 feet from the cup and rolled in for the eagle that gave Nelson a 3-stroke lead.

That's the way it ended—Nelson 70, Wood 73

The eagle was not the only great shot for Nelson in that memorable tournament—the one in which Sam Snead took an eight on the last hole to knock himself out of contention Byron considers a putt he made as more vital and meaningful to him

"I played only fairly well in practice that year and the first round of the tournament found me three over par at the end of eight holes," Nelson recalls

"But I kept fighting and finally got a 72 for the round

"I was still away back and the course was very tough. There were four par 4 holes on which you had to use your woods to get to them. But I played well from there on shooting a steady 73 second round, a steady 71 third round, and on the final I had a 68 to finish in a tie with Wood and Shute at 284

Gained Reputation

"In the course of the tournament my irons were very good and it was here that I got the reputation of being a good long iron player I hit the pin six times during that tournament

"I made a sensational shot, in my own mind, in gaining a tie with Wood in the first playoff. It was on the 18th green and I had a 10-foot putt against a cross-grain with an 8 or 9-inch break that I had to make. Well, I made it, tied Wood and then in the second playoff came that eagle

"We parred the first hole but Wood went ahead on the second when his second shot was just six inches from the pin. But Wood 3-putted the third hole and I went one ahead with a birdie. So we reached the fourth hole where I made what was mechanically the finest shot of my career. But I shall never forget that putt—the one that I feel really led me to the championship."

Gordie Howe Has Big Year In Hockey

DETROIT (AP) — Gordie Howe, winner of the Hart Trophy for the third time in his illustrious 11-year career in the National Hockey League, had a big hockey season. He made $4,500 above his salary.

Howe, scoring champion of the Detroit Red Wings, received $1,000 for being a member of the champion Red Wings, picked up another $1,000 when he won the Art Ross Trophy as scoring champion, got another $1,000 for winning the Hart Trophy and $500 when the Red Wings beat the Boston Bruins in the semi-finals of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

VISHNESKY TO VA. TECH

FORK UNION, Va. (AP)—Bernie Vishnesky, 220-pound Fork Union Military Academy end, will go to Virginia Tech next fall. Vishnesky, considered one of the top prizes from the talent-laden Virginia military school circuit, has speed as well as size and is regarded as top-flight for both offense and defense.

WHAT GOT AWAY?

ONANCOCK, Va (AP) — James Lee Johnson of Onancock, caught a world record black drum—94½ pounds—but he is wondering about another fish which broke his line just before he landed the record fish. The previous record, 92 pounds, was caught at Cambridge Md. Johnson believes there must be bigger ones still in the water.

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin said Wednesday the Soviet Union is prepared to conclude a general agreement on the whole problem of disarmament as well as on any of the separate aspects of this problem

In an unprecedented personal message read on the opening day of the annual conference of the International Labor Organization Bulganin repeated previous Russian demands for peaceful collaboration and friendly relations among all nations

NEW YORK (AP)—Most of the early season space on rookies was devoted to shortstop Andre Rodgers of the New York Giants and Tony Kubek, a New York Yankee shortstop-outfielder. But since the major league season opened these two have been shunted to the background.

"Kubek has been working in certain parks," says Yankee Manager Casey Stengel, "but I believe he will hit the best pitchers eventually." In Tony's first nine games he was hitting .375. He fills in when Mickey Mantle has leg trouble or when Stengel feels the need of a young southpaw batter in left field.

Cleveland has in Roger Maris a new left field prospect. He hit well (.321) in his first 13 games and three of his hits were home runs. At Indianapolis last year he hit 17 homers and batted .293 and was ticketed for San Diego this season. He went so well in spring training that on April 9 Manager Kerby Farrell added him to the Indian roster.

Kansas City has been doing well with Milt Graff at second base, and Boston has come up with Frank Malzone on third base. And the White Sox have found added speed and some hitting in Jim Landis, a right fielder.

Trotters Get Hold In Nova Scotia

SACKVILLE DOWNS, N. S. (AP) — Harness racing is getting to be popular in Nova Scotia. Three tracks will be in operation this summer.

Sackville Downs Raceway opened in late May and will continue through Nov. 11 with events nights. It is the third track in this province and is 13 miles from Halifax.

Racing at Truro is set for Tuesday and Friday nights until mid-October while the Cape Breton Raceway at Sydney will have 37 nights of racing on Monday and Thursday nights. Each track has pari-mutuel wagering.

NELSON'S FAME DUE TO EAGLE IN 1939 OPEN

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Byron Nelson can still see that ball as it winged its way to the fourth green of the Philadelphia Country Club in 1939. It was one of the great shots in golf history—one that won for Nelson the National Open championship.

Nelson was one stroke ahead but he felt he had to be better than that to beat the brilliant Wood for his first big championship.

Famous Iron Shot

Byron's drive on the 460-yard par 4 hole carried 240 yards. Nelson then took out his 1 iron and let fly. The ball traveled almost on a line and didn't waver in its flight. It landed on the green 12 feet from the cup and rolled in for the eagle that gave Nelson a 3-stroke lead.

That's the way it ended—Nelson 70, Wood 73.

The eagle was not the only great shot for Nelson in that memorable tournament—the one in which Sam Snead took an eight on the last hole to knock himself out of contention. Byron considers a putt he made as more vital and meaningful to him.

"I played only fairly well in practice that year and the first round of the tournament found me three over par at the end of eight holes," Nelson recalls.

"But I kept fighting and finally got a 72 for the round.

"I was still away back and the course was very tough. There were four par 4 holes on which you had to use your woods to get to them. But I played well from there on shooting a steady 73 second round, a steady 71 third round, and on the final I had a 68 to finish in a tie with Wood and Shute at 284.

Gained Reputation

"In the course of the tournament my irons were very good and it was here that I got the reputation of being a good long iron player. I hit the pin six times during that tournament.

"I made a sensational shot, in my own mind, in gaining a tie with Wood in the first playoff. It was on the 18th green and I had a 10-foot putt against a cross-grain with an 8 or 9-inch break that I had to make. Well, I made it, tied Wood and then in the second playoff came that eagle.

"We parred the first hole but Wood went ahead on the second when his second shot was just six inches from the pin. But Wood 3-putted the third hole and I went one ahead with a birdie. So we reached the fourth hole where I made what was mechanically the finest shot of my career. But I shall never forget that putt—the one that I feel really led me to the championship."

Gordie Howe Has Big Year In Hockey

DETROIT (AP) — Gordie Howe, winner of the Hart Trophy for the third time in his illustrious 11-year career in the National Hockey League, had a big hockey season. He made $4,500 above his salary.

Howe, scoring champion of the Detroit Red Wings, received $1,000 for being a member of the champion Red Wings, picked up another $1,000 when he won the Art Ross Trophy as scoring champion, got another $1,000 for winning the Hart Trophy and $500 when the Red Wings beat the Boston Bruins in the semi-finals of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

VISHNESKY TO VA. TECH

FORK UNION, Va. (AP)—Bernie Vishnesky, 220-pound Fork Union Military Academy end, will go to Virginia Tech next fall. Vishnesky, considered one of the top prizes from the talent-laden Virginia military school circuit, has speed as well as size and it regarded as top-flight for both offense and defense.

WHAT GOT AWAY?

ONANCOCK, Va. (AP) — James Lee Johnson of Onancock, caught a world record black drum—94½ pounds—but he is wondering about another fish which broke his line just before he landed the record fish. The previous record, 92 pounds, was caught at Cambridge, Md. Johnson believes there must be bigger ones still in the water.

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin said Wednesday the Soviet Union is prepared to conclude "a general agreement on the whole problem of disarmament," as well as on any of the separate aspects of this problem.

In an unprecedented personal message read on the opening day of the annual conference of the International Labor Organization, Bulganin repeated previous Russian demands for "peaceful collaboration and friendly relations" among all nations.

U.S. AND RUSSIA FAR APART ON ATOMIC TESTS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Russia appeared to be about as far apart as ever today on the issue of calling off atomic weapons tests.

Statements made at almost the same time by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and President Eisenhower dramatized the deadlock which stands in spite of much recent optimism here about the possibility of a "first-step" disarmament agreement with the Russians in the next year or so.

Furthermore, President Eisenhower's expressed interest in ridding the world of atomic weapons—judged by all available evidence—seems to be a long way from realization.

Emphasizes Need

In answering questions at his news conference yesterday, Eisenhower said he would "like to allay all anxiety in the world by a total and complete ban on all testing, based upon total disarmament" in the field of nuclear weapons.

But he emphasized the requirement of an effective inspection system. He repeatedly stated that so long as there remains a chance that atomic weapons would be used in war, tests must be continued.

Early in his news conference he summarized the United States policy on testing in these words: "I have tried, and this government has tried, to make the abolition of tests a part of a general system of disarmament, controlled and inspected disarmament.

Bulganin Position

"If we can do that, we will be glad enough and very quickly to stop tests. But we do have the job of protecting the country."

At another point he said that tests could be ended as part of a first step toward disarmament only if the agreement also provided "that we were going to eliminate these things (atomic weapons) as weapons of war and there were an inspection system that could make sure that was coming about; otherwise, you couldn't do it."

The Soviet position, which American officials say always contains a considerable element of propaganda when stated publicly, was set forth by Bulganin in a message to a meeting of the International Labor Organization at Geneva.

Harden Position

"The Soviet Union . . . is ready," he said, "to conclude an appropriate agreement on the whole problem on disarmament as well as on its particular aspects, including an agreement on the immediate cessation of nuclear weapons tests."

He said that Russia has long sought "prohibition of atomic and hydrogen weapons." He did not emphasize as the President had done the element of inspection and policing.

In some ways the ideas expressed by Eisenhower seemed to harden the American position on testing, if they reflected any change at all.

LEADER NAMES 4 ENGINEERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader has named four engineers to head newly created divisional highways headquarters as part of the commonwealth's expanding road construction program.

Those named and their headquarters: I. E. Penrod, Clearfield; John J. Kelmar, Uniontown; Michael C. Daumit, Scranton, and Charles H. Miller, Harrisburg.

Penrod will supervise construction in the Franklin, Clearfield, Indiana and Pittsburgh districts. Kelmar will have charge of Uniontown and Hollidaysburg districts; Daumit, Scranton and Montoursville, and Miller, Allentown, Haverford and Harrisburg districts.

Penrod, of Johnstown, and Daumit, of Parma, Ohio, both will receive $8,138 annually in their new posts. Kelmar, McKeesport, and Miller, Lebanon, are being moved from other engineering jobs with the department to assume their new duties. Their salaries are $9,555 annually.

U.S. DESTROYER SAVES 5 FROM DISABLED BOAT

NEW SMYRNA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A destroyer, assigned to the Navy maneuvers to be witnessed by President Eisenhower, rescued five persons from a disabled yacht and helped tow the vessel to harbor yesterday.

"We would have sunk in another two or three hours, if the Navy hadn't gotten there," said John M. Stipp of Philadelphia, owner of the yacht Seriola.

His 46-foot vessel, bound for Wildwood, N.J., from Fort Lauderdale, sprang a bad leak Tuesday night but couldn't get out a distress call until today because of generator trouble.

A Navy seaplane spotted the Seriola at 10:30 a.m. 60 miles off the coast, and directed the destroyer USS Charles P. Cecil to it. Cecil crewmen estimate the craft was taking 150 gallons of water an hour. When the yacht arrived here, a foot of water covered its floorboards.

Stipp and his companions were reported in good shape. With him on the yacht were Herbert Weber, Preston Houseal, Bill Stott, and Jay Graves, all of Philadelphia.

Stipp said he will return to New Jersey via the inland waterway in several days after the yacht is repaired. Weber and Stott said their "vacation cruise" is over and they will return home on land.

The Cecil turned the yacht over to a Coast Guard rescue boat five miles off new Smyrna Beach which is about 100 miles south of Jacksonville. The Coast Guard boat completed the tow.

The destroyer, commanded by Cmdr. B. H. Stough Jr., returned to its station off Jacksonville. Today it will help screen the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga which will have President Eisenhower aboard.

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Referee William Lipkin has refused to lift restraints against the bank accounts of Bloomsburg, Pa., and Lakewood, N.J., egg companies on grounds they were started in business with funds of the bankrupt Farmers Exchange of Lakewood.

In further action yesterday, Lipkin also denied a petition by William Boone of Union, N.J., a farmer who sought payment of $9,324 for eggs he said he delivered to Toledo Bros., Inc., at Bloomsburg, just before bankruptcy proceedings were started against Farmers Exchange.

President Tells Press U.S. Will Have To Face Organized Or Clandestine Trade Abroad

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower discussed many subjects at his press conference Wednesday. Among those commented upon were:

CHINA TRADE — Discussing Britain's recent relaxation of restrictions on its trade with Communist China, Eisenhower said there are sharp differences among Americans as to whether this country should follow suit. The differences, he went on, involve an evaluation of the value of such trade.

The main point at issue, Eisenhower said, is whether there should be one set of restrictions on trade with Russia, and another tighter set of restrictions dealing with trade with Red China.

The President said he frankly does not see as much advantage in maintaining a differential as some others do. He thus indicated, without saying so specifically, that he might favor putting trade with China on the same basis as trade with Russia.

Cannot Stop Trade

Eisenhower also said he firmly believes that in the long run trade cannot be stopped. He said we are either going to have organized trade or clandestine trade.

GIRARD CASE — Discussing the U.S. decision to let Army Specialist 3 C. William S. Girard be tried by a Japanese court for the killing of a Japanese woman, Eisenhower said sometimes it is better to turn over such cases to the country of origin, rather than attempting to establish American jurisdiction

Eisenhower said that as commander in chief of the armed forces he has an obligation to see that justice is done. He added that Japan has been eminently fair in the handling of trials of American citizens, and that some 13,642 such cases have been turned over by Japan to American authorities, out of a total of 14,000 cases.

Go Through Channels

Eisenhower said that if injustice should develop in the Girard case, it then would be taken up with Japan through diplomatic channels.

JURY TRIAL—Asked for comment on the Senate Judiciary Committee's action in approving the idea of trial by jury in any civil rights contempt case, Eisenhower quoted the late Chief Justice William Howard Taft as having said in 1908 that if anyone ever tried to put a jury trial between a court order and enforcement of it, he would be welcoming anarchy.

Eisenhower said he would take Taft's opinion rather than one reached in the heat of partisan argument.

Favors Gas Explosion

NATURAL GAS — Eisenhower said he favors any reasonable bill which would encourage exploration for natural gas resources. He added that any such bill would be as much in the interest of the consumer as it would be in the interest of producers.

But he does object, the President added, to any public utility control over natural gas wells.

DISARMAMENT—Harking back to Khrushchev's Sunday statements about the Soviet Union being willing to take a first step toward disarmament, a reporter asked Eisenhower whether the Kremlin leader's remarks offered any encouragement that an agreement will be reached.

We can only hope so, Eisenhower replied. He said anew that the current London disarmament talks apparently reflect a more serious effort to get something done than ever before.

Describes Leadership

LEADERSHIP — Eisenhower was asked to describe the role of a president as leader of his party. He replied the leader is supposed to translate the party platform pledges into a legislative program, in cooperation with Congress and the presidential staff. Once the program is established, he said, the president has a responsibility to use all effective means to get it enacted.

A reporter told Eisenhower that Harry Truman and Franklin D. Roosevelt had been strong leaders as presidents. He asked whether Eisenhower put himself in that category.

With a slow smile, the President replied that he would not go into comparisons.

Says Nixon Deserves Home

Eisenhower also was questioned as to whether he thought a realignment of political parties was desirable. Smiling again, he replied that he is a busy man, is working hard, and doesn't have time for such stuff.

VICE PRESIDENT — Asked whether the government should provide an official residence for vice presidents, Eisenhower said that if the vice president is a man like the present one, Richard M. Nixon, he ought to have such a residence.

The way Nixon has acted in the interest of the United States, he certainly deserves an official home, Eisenhower said.

Won't Go To Russia

A good part of the conference dealt with the fallout situation, but it touched also on these other subjects:

KHRUSHCHEV — Eisenhower made it clear he does not look with any favor on suggestions that he make an effort to go on Russian television and radio to reply to Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev The Soviet leader was on American TV last Sunday.

Eisenhower, in discussing the matter, spoke of how the Soviets could "jam" any American reply, but said if that potential obstacle and others could be eliminated for sure, then certainly some American official would accept an invitation to answer Khrushchev.

There wasa big round of laughter when a reporter noted that a grandson was born today to former President Truman. The newsman asked whether Eisenhower thought the Truman grandson would grow up to live under socialism.

Laughs Off Socialism

That was an allusion to Khrushchev's prediction Sunday that American grandchildren will live under socialism, or the Communist form of government.

Joining in the laughter, Eisenhower said that if the child grows up in the next 3½ years it will not be under socialism; that he (the President) certainly is going to battle hard in the remainder of his second term to see that there is no swing to socialism in the United States.

POLITICS — A reporter reminded Eisenhower that Meade Alcorn, Republican national chairman, said yesterday the party is having "some difficulty" obtaining funds from previous large contributors because of the size of the administration's spending program. Eisenhower replied somewhat sharply that it might be better for some who are complaining about the budget to look up the facts instead of listening to partisan speeches.

Asks A Question

Eisenhower then put a rhetorical question himself, asking what the size of the budget would be today if some members of the political opposition—the Democrats—had been able to put over some of the programs they had advocated in the past.

FORMOSA — Eisenhower said the recent anti-American rioting on Formosa does not mean there is any need for a reassessment of relations between the U. S. and Nationalist China. Eisenhower added that Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek promptly apologized for the rioting and shouldered the blame for the incident.

WINGED PURSUIT — Ireland's Noel Cantwell is a study in balance as he moves after the loose ball during World Cup football match with England at London's Wembley Stadium.

HARRISBURG (AP)—State construction of two bridges over Nesquehoning Creek and tracks of the Central Railroad of New Jersey in Mauch Chunk Twp., Carbon County, was authorized on Tuesday by the Public Utility Commission.

The commission said the two-lane spans would cost about $800,000 and would be built by the Highways Department. It ordered that work be completed by March 31, 1959.

COMPLETE JURY FOR TRIAL OF 9 IN 'PIKE FRAUD

HARRISBURG (AP) — A Dauphin County jury of eight men and four women was completed Wednesday to try nine men charged with defrauding the Pennsylvania Turnpike commission of 19½ million dollars.

Defense lawyers and state prosecutors spent more than 2½ hours choosing the final five jurors to round out the panel. Two alternates remain to be picked before witnesses are called.

Eight of the 12 jurors are more than 65 with 7 retired men, 1 widow, 3 housewives and a 28-year-old Korean veteran on the jury.

Lawyers for both sides screened 25 prospective jurors before completing the panel. The jury picking began Tuesday with selection of seven jurors.

Attorneys believe the trial may last "six or more weeks"

Dist. Atty. Huette F. Dowling of Dauphin County said he and Vincent Panati, special deputy attorney general, addressed the court late Wednesday to outline the charges against the nine defendants.

Then each of the 15 defense lawyers will be given the chance to outline his case.

Panati said a deputy attorney general from the Justice Department and the head of the State Elections Bureau probably will be the first witnesses.

He identified them as Harrington Adams, a deputy attorney general and Albert E. Eberman, director of the Elections Bureau.

NEWTON, Mass. (AP)—Isaac G. Swope, 54, son of Gerard Swope, retired president of General Electric Co., a nephew of Herbert Bayard Swope, and a research electrical engineer connected with the Lincoln Laboratory of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, died Monday. He was born in St. Louis.

INVERNES, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Hay Hastings, 55, once a Ziegfeld Follies star, and whose first husband was actor Richard Barthelmess, died Tuesday.

The American eel is the only fish that lives and grows in fresh water, but goes into the salty ocean to spawn.

Senator Mahany To Leave Assembly

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Rowland B Mahany, Republican floor leader, said Tuesday night he was "retiring" from the General Assembly at the end of his present term.

"This is not any formal announcement but it is pretty generally understood that this is my last session," he told Senate colleagues during closing day ceremonies. He is completing his second four-year term.

The closing day ceremonies were traditional only and included gifts to party leaders and a buffet supper. Actual adjournment is not expected before mid-June.

Sen M. Harvey Taylor, who was celebrating his 81st birthday, was elected to his seventh consecutive term as president protempore for the interval between sessions.

HARRISBURG (AP) — A Dauphin County jury of eight men and four women was completed Wednesday to try nine men charged with defrauding the Pennsylvania Turnpike commission of 19½ million dollars.

Defense lawyers and state prosecutors spent more than 2½ hours choosing the final five jurors to round out the panel. Two alternates remain to be picked before witnesses are called.

Eight of the 12 jurors are more than 65 with 7 retired men, 1 widow, 3 housewives and a 28-year-old Korean veteran on the jury.

Lawyers for both sides screened 25 prospective jurors before completing the panel. The jury picking began Tuesday with selection of seven jurors.

Attorneys believe the trial may last "six or more weeks."

Dist. Atty. Huette F. Dowling of Dauphin County said he and Vincent Panati, special deputy attorney general, addressed the court late Wednesday to outline the charges against the nine defendants.

Then each of the 15 defense lawyers will be given the chance to outline his case.

Panati said a deputy attorney general from the Justice Department and the head of the State Elections Bureau probably will be the first witnesses.

He identified them as Harrington Adams, a deputy attorney general and Albert E. Eberman, director of the Elections Bureau.

HARRISBURG (AP)—State construction of two bridges over Nesquehoning Creek and tracks of the Central Railroad of New Jersey in Mauch Chunk Twp., Carbon County, was authorized on Tuesday by the Public Utility Commission.

The commission said the two-lane spans would cost about $800,000 and would be built by the Highways Department. It ordered that work be completed by March 31, 1959.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEWTON, Mass. (AP)—Isaac G. Swope, 54, son of Gerard Swope, retired president of General Electric Co., a nephew of Herbert Bayard Swope, and a research electrical engineer connected with the Lincoln Laboratory of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, died Monday. He was born in St. Louis.

INVERNES, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Hay Hastings, 55, once a Ziegfeld Follies star, and whose first husband was actor Richard Barthelmess, died Tuesday.

The American eel is the only fish that lives and grows in fresh water, but goes into the salty ocean to spawn.

Senator Mahany To Leave Assembly

HARRISBURG (AP)—Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader, said Tuesday night he was "retiring" from the General Assembly at the end of his present term.

"This is not any formal announcement but it is pretty generally understood that this is my last session," he told Senate colleagues during closing day ceremonies. He is completing his second four-year term.

The closing day ceremonies were traditional only and included gifts to party leaders and a buffet supper. Actual adjournment is not expected before mid-June.

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, who was celebrating his 81st birthday, was elected to his seventh consecutive term as president protempore for the interval between sessions.

U.S. AND RUSSIA FAR APART ON ATOMIC TESTS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Russia appeared to be about as far apart as ever today on the issue of calling off atomic weapons tests.

Statements made at almost the same time by Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and President Eisenhower dramatized the deadlock which stands in spite of much recent optimism here about the possibility of a "first-step" disarmament agreement with the Russians in the next year or so.

Furthermore, President Eisenhower's expressed interest in ridding the world of atomic weapons—judged by all available evidence—seems to be a long way from realization.

Emphasizes Need

In answering questions at his news conference yesterday, Eisenhower said he would "like to allay all anxiety in the world by a total and complete ban on all testing, based upon total disarmament" in the field of nuclear weapons.

But he emphasized the requirement of an effective inspection system. He repeatedly stated that so long as there remains a chance that atomic weapons would be used in war, tests must be continued.

Early in his news conference he summarized the United States policy on testing in these words: "I have tried, and this government has tried, to make the abolition of tests a part of a general system of disarmament, controlled and inspected disarmament.

Bulganin Position

"If we can do that, we will be glad enough and very quickly to stop tests. But we do have the job of protecting the country."

At another point he said that tests could be ended as part of a first step toward disarmament only if the agreement also provided "that we were going to eliminate these things (atomic weapons) as weapons of war and there were an inspection system that could make sure that was coming about; otherwise, you couldn't do it."

The Soviet position, which American officials say always contains a considerable element of propaganda when stated publicly, was set forth by Bulganin in a message to a meeting of the International Labor Organization at Geneva.

Harden Position

"The Soviet Union . . . is ready," he said, "to conclude an appropriate agreement on the whole problem on disarmament as well as on its particular aspects, including an agreement on the immediate cessation of nuclear weapons tests."

He said that Russia has long sought "prohibition of atomic and hydrogen weapons." He did not emphasize as the President had done the element of inspection and policing.

In some ways the ideas expressed by Eisenhower seemed to harden the American position on testing, if they reflected any change at all.

LEADER NAMES 4 ENGINEERS

Those named and their headquarters: I. E. Penrod, Clearfield; John J. Kelmar, Uniontown; Michael C. Daumit, Scranton, and Charles H. Miller, Harrisburg.

Penrod will supervise construction in the Franklin, Clearfield, Indiana and Pittsburgh districts. Kelmar will have charge of Uniontown and Hollidaysburg districts; Daumit, Scranton and Montoursville, and Miller, Allentown, Haverford and Harrisburg districts.

Penrod, of Johnstown, and Daumit, of Parma, Ohio, both will receive $8,138 annually in their new posts. Kelmar, McKeesport, and Miller, Lebanon, are being moved from other engineering jobs with the department to assume their new duties. Their salaries are $9,555 annually.

U.S. DESTROYER SAVES 5 FROM DISABLED BOAT

NEW SMYRNA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A destroyer, assigned to the Navy maneuvers to be witnessed by President Eisenhower, rescued five persons from a disabled yacht and helped tow the vessel to harbor yesterday.

"We would have sunk in another two or three hours, if the Navy hadn't gotten there," said John M. Stipp of Philadelphia, owner of the yacht Seriola.

His 46-foot vessel, bound for Wildwood, N.J., from Fort Lauderdale, sprang a bad leak Tuesday night but couldn't get out a distress call until today because of generator trouble.

A Navy seaplane spotted the Seriola at 10:30 a.m. 60 miles off the coast, and directed the destroyer USS Charles P. Cecil to it. Cecil crewmen estimate the craft was taking 150 gallons of water an hour. When the yacht arrived here, a foot of water covered its floorboards.

Stipp and his companions were reported in good shape. With him on the yacht were Herbert Weber, Preston Houseal, Bill Stott, and Jay Graves, all of Philadelphia.

Stipp said he will return to New Jersey via the inland waterway in several days after the yacht is repaired. Weber and Stott said their "vacation cruise" is over and they will return home on land.

The Cecil turned the yacht over to a Coast Guard rescue boat five miles off new Smyrna Beach which is about 100 miles south of Jacksonville. The Coast Guard boat completed the tow.

The destroyer, commanded by Cmdr. B. H. Stough Jr., returned to its station off Jacksonville. Today it will help screen the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga which will have President Eisenhower aboard.

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Referee William Lipkin has refused to lift restraints against the bank accounts of Bloomsburg, Pa., and Lakewood, N.J., egg companies on grounds they were started in business with funds of the bankrupt Farmers Exchange of Lakewood.

In further action yesterday, Lipkin also denied a petition by William Boone of Union, N.J., a farmer who sought payment of $9,324 for eggs he said he delivered to Toledo Bros., Inc., at Bloomsburg, just before bankruptcy proceedings were started against Farmers Exchange.

EXPLODE BOMB FROM BALLOON 500 FEET HIGH

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The United States Wednesday exploded a baby nuclear device from a balloon 500 feet about Yucca Flat.

The explosion, touched off at 4:15 a.m., was barely discernible at Las Vegas, about 70 miles away.

The Atomic Energy Commission said officials at the control point about 15 miles from the balloon saw a brief flash and several seconds later the usual mushroom appeared. It rose slowly to above 6,000 feet.

Dr. Gerald W. Johnson, test director from the University of California's radiation laboratory at Livermore, Calif., whch designed the device, said from the technical viewpoint the test "was successful."

Newsmen 60 Miles Away

Observers said the shot, third in the summer series, appeared smaller than the one fired last Sunday, which was estimated at about two kilotons. A kiloton is the equivalent of 1,000 tons of TNT.

A flash was seen first, then a brief fireball followed by another higher flash of light. Newsmen theorized the second fash could have been the balloon igniting.

The balloon, 67 feet in diameter and made of plastic, was anchored by four steel cables. Elaborate safety devices made sure the balloon did not escape.

Minimum Follows

Radioactive fallout — the subject of worldwide concern — was expected to be a minimum, the AEC said.

About 45 experiments, including 16 on military effects, were conducted.

One experiment, using several rabbits, was to determine the sensitivity of the eye to nuclear flash.

Eighteen aircraft, most on support missions, flew in the area.

The next shot will be fired June 10th. This will also be from a balloon, the AEC said.

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A Navy Regulus guided missile went out of control Tuesday and crashed on the Mojave Desert with a tremendous explosion, sending up what observers called "a miniature atomic cloud."

The 33-foot supersonic missile, designed to be fired from submarines and warships, did not carry a warhead, a Navy spokesman said.

No one was hurt and no facilities were damaged. The missile, launched from here, crashed on a test range about 70 miles away.

Residents at the town of Ridgecrest said a mushroom-type cloud rose from the blast. The Navy said the explosion was caused when the jet fuel ignited.

The missile was under radio control but the Navy said the control failed.

URGES SCHOOL SUBSIDY BILL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh urges "bipartisan effort" in both houses of the General Assembly to enact what he calls an adequate school subsidy bill.

The mayor sent wires on Tuesday to George Bloom, GOP state chairman, and Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chief, asking that they lend assistance to the defeat of proposed amendments to a school subsidy bill.

"I cannot overstate the importance of such action, not only to Pittsburgh schools but to the 40 per cent of Pennsylvania's school districts which would be drastically short-changed by (House) Bill 183 as amended May 24," Lawrence declared.

The amendments, Lawrence said, will result in a five million dollar deficit for the Pittsburgh school system over the next five years.

He said the original bill, without the amendments, would provide sufficient money to pay for a mandated teacher salary increase.

23 Cars Of Long Freight Leave Rails

Steel dumped from the derailed cars blocked both eastbound tracks of the PRR main line for a time. Railroad officials immediately began detouring eastbound traffic on the westbound tracks.

No one was injured. Railroad authorities were still investigating the cause of the accident but said they felt it might have been due to a hot journal box. They estimated it would be mid afternoon before all the debris was cleared from the eastbound tracks.

EAVESDROPPING ON JURIES TO BE OUTLAWED

HARRISBURG (AP)—A House proposal to outlaw eavesdropping on jury deliberations gained Senate approval on Tuesday 48-1 and was returned to the House for agreement in an amendment.

If enacted the bill would fix a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine and a year's imprisonment for persons convicted of intentionally listening in on a grand, petit or special jury.

As approved in the House 131-56 in February the measure would have applied to eavesdropping done "knowingly." The proposal was prompted by a university study of grand jury deliberations made in Chicago several years ago without the knowledge of the jurors.

One Dissenter

The measure was sponsored by Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins (R—Cameron), a former district attorney. The only dissenter in Senate action was Sen. Thomas A. Ehrgood (R—Lebanon).

Other bills passed by the Senate would:

Allow school districts to borrow up to 15 per cent instead 10 per cent of the assessed value of taxable property (48-1, to secretary of state).

There are about 100 islands in Hawaii, but only seven are inhabited.

QUITS COLLEGE PREXY OFFICE

Lewis M. Stevens, chairman of the institution's board of trustees, said Dr. Bond has been named president honorarius for life and given a year's sabbatical leave. No announcement was made concerning a successor.

Dr. Bond was assigned the task of completing for publication a history of the Negro university and also will work on a series of lectures he is to deliver at Harvard University. He was recently named Alexander J. Inglis lecturer in education at Harvard for the coming scholastic year.

Gov. Leader, who delivered the commencement address, was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of laws and 53 undergraduates and 5 seminary students received degrees in course.

Mozzarella cheese is now available in many grocery markets. Try this Italian way with it; rub a slice of crusty bread with a clove of garlic; add a slice of Mozzarella and an anchovy fillet and broil until the cheese melts.

PRICKLY HEAT RASHES LOOK LIKE MEASLES

The Associated Press

"Doctor, I think my baby has measles. He's got a terrible rash."

Mrs. Tombly's voice on the phone certainly sounded worried. "Could you come over right away, please?"

"Is he coughing?" the doctor asked.

"No," she said.

"Does he have a fever?"

"Yes, he ate most of it."

"I don't believe he has measles," reassured the doctor, "and I think it would be quite safe for you to bring him here. Speak to the nurse when you come in, so that we can isolate him until we find out what he does have."

This as only the fifth phone call that morning that ran almost word for word the same.

First Warm Days

The weather had suddenly become very warm—really hot. It was early in the season for such heat. The babies were dressed for cooler weather and they just became too warm. An adult or an older child would have thrown off the extra wraps, but the babies were securely fastened into their warm clothing.

One child had an extensive rash over most of his body. Most of the others had the rash confined to the neck, shoulders and face. The rash consisted of tiny red bumps on a skin that showed an over-all blush. The babies were uncomfortable. The skin itched and hurt a little but aside from the discomfort of the skin none of these babies was sick.

A mother needs to be on the alert to dress her baby according to the temperature and not to the calendar. Sudden warm days mean summer weight clothing.

Summer Precautions

There are a few special precautions for dressing a baby in warm weather. Anything waterproof is very hot. If you yourself have ever had to lie on a rubber sheet in hot weather you will remember how uncomfortable you were. Of course you must protect the crib mattress from getting soaked and you will have to use some kind of waterproof protection. But put a good thick quilted pad—not waterproof—between the waterproof sheet and the baby. If it is very hot, better use two such quilted pads. Of course you will have to wash these quilted pads frequently, but you will keep your baby more comfortable.

Rubber or plastic pants are a great convenience. They are fine to use if your baby's skin does not become irritated. They too are hot and some babies just cannot stand protective pants in hot weather. It may be necessary to use nothing at all over the diaper. However many a baby who get a rash when waterproof pants are put on him can do very well with knit wool soakers. You might think that because they are wool such pants would be hotter than the plastic ones. The peculiar thing is they are not, because they are porous, absorb moisture and permit better circulation of air.

Rough Going For Stork In Storm

Mrs Donald Yasgar, who lives only a few blocks from the Little Falls hospital, had to finish her trip in an automobile wrecker when the family car and a police escort bogged down.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gunderson of Nearby Bowlus barely made it to the hospital. The Gundersons used a truck.

Wonderful for a fruit salad both lemon and pineapple juice and given zest with a sweet brown prepared mustard.

FUND RAISERS

NEW YORK (AP) — The Episcopal Churchmen for South Africa, a laymen's group, has begun a fund-raising drive to aid the Anglican Church's missionary efforts among native Africans.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — You can't keep a bright child down Warren Ketcham, associate professor of education at University of Michigan, says "it's about as possible to stop a cannonball as to stop a gifted child when he's going some place."

Prof Ke[illegible] "Bright children have burning curiosity about things. They have a persistence and a drive toward their own goals that are just wonderful to behold."

130,000 Refugees Have Been Resettled

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — The World Council of Churches reports some 180,000 refugees have tramped out of Hungary in the five months following late October, 1956. Of these, about 130,000 have been resettled.

Some 30,000 went to the United States, 21,000 to Great Britain, 17,000 to Canda, 9,000 to France, 10,000 to Switzerland, 6,000 to Australia, and 11,000 to Germany. Some 35,000 are still in Austria.

To help the World Council, churches around the world have given more than half a million dollars earmarked for Hungarian relief. About one-third of the sum came from the United States.

CALLING ALL CARS

MCALESTER, Okla. (AP) — McAlester Police Lt. Elmer Durant investigated a disturbance at a drive-in theater caused when a stranger grabbed the public address system microphone.

The man yelled:

"Ah, ha. At last I've caught you two together."

LITERALLY

YUMA, Colo. (AP) — Mrs. Betty Jo Seedorf is careful now about what she tells her son, Ricky. Not long ago, she handed Ricky a dollar bill and told him to "share it with your sister, Cheryl." Ricky did. He and Cheryl turned up moments later, each clinging to half of the bill.

Use your kitchen scissors to notch those scooped-out orange halves. Use these "cups" to hold cranberry sauce when you are serving roast chicken or turkey.

PRICKLY HEAT RASHES LOOK LIKE MEASLES

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
The Associated Press

"Doctor, I think my baby has measles. He's got a terrible rash."

Mrs. Tombly's voice on the phone certainly sounded worried. "Could you come over right away, please?"

"Is he coughing?" the doctor asked.

"No," she said.

"Does he have a fever?"

"Well, I haven't taken his temperature, but I don't believe he has."

"Did he eat his breakfast?"

"Yes, he ate most of it."

"I don't believe he has measles," reassured the doctor, "and I think it would be quite safe for you to bring him here. Speak to the nurse when you come in, so that we can isolate him until we find out what he does have."

This as only the fifth phone call that morning that ran almost word for word the same.

First Warm Days

It was the first really warm summer day. Every one of these babies had nothing more serious than prickly heat.

The weather had suddenly become very warm—really hot. It was early in the season for such heat. The babies were dressed for cooler weather and they just became too warm. An adult or an older child would have thrown off the extra wraps, but the babies were securely fastened into their warm clothing.

One child had an extensive rash over most of his body. Most of the others had the rash confined to the neck, shoulders and face. The rash consisted of tiny red bumps on a skin that showed an over-all blush. The babies were uncomfortable. The skin itched and hurt a little but aside from the discomfort of the skin none of these babies was sick.

A baby is more susceptible to temperature changes than an older person whose skin is thicker and tougher.

A mother needs to be on the alert to dress her baby according to the temperature and not to the calendar. Sudden warm days mean summer weight clothing.

Summer Precautions

There are a few special precautions for dressing a baby in warm weather. Anything waterproof is very hot. If you yourself have ever had to lie on a rubber sheet in hot weather you will remember how uncomfortable you were. Of course you must protect the crib mattress from getting soaked and you will have to use some kind of waterproof protection. But put a good thick quilted pad—not waterproof—between the waterproof sheet and the baby. If it is very hot, better use two such quilted pads. Of course you will have to wash these quilted pads frequently, but you will keep your baby more comfortable.

Rubber or plastic pants are a great convenience. They are fine to use if your baby's skin does not become irritated. They too are hot and some babies just cannot stand protective pants in hot weather. It may be necessary to use nothing at all over the diaper. However many a baby who get a rash when waterproof pants are put on him can do very well with knit wool soakers. You might think that because they are wool such pants would be hotter than the plastic ones. The peculiar thing is they are not, because they are porous, absorb moisture and permit better circulation of air.

130,000 Refugees Have Been Resettled

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — The World Council of Churches reports some 180,000 refugees have tramped out of Hungary in the five months following late October, 1956. Of these, about 130,000 have been resettled.

Some 30,000 went to the United States, 21,000 to Great Britain, 17,000 to Canda, 9,000 to France, 10,000 to Switzerland, 6,000 to Australia, and 11,000 to Germany. Some 35,000 are still in Austria.

To help the World Council, churches around the world have given more than half a million dollars earmarked for Hungarian relief. About one-third of the sun came from the United States.

CALLING ALL CARS

MCALESTER, Okla. (AP) — McAlester Police Lt. Elmer Durant investigated a disturbance at a drive-in theater caused when a stranger grabbed the public address system microphone.

The man yelled:

"Ah, ha. At last I've caught you two together."

LITERALLY

YUMA, Colo. (AP) — Mrs. Betty Jo Seedorf is careful now about what she tells her son, Ricky. Not long ago, she handed Ricky a dollar bill and told him to "share it with your sister, Cheryl." Ricky did. He and Cheryl turned up moments later, each clinging to half of the bill.

Use your kitchen scissors to notch those scooped-out orange halves. Use these "cups" to hold cranberry sauce when you are serving roast chicken or turkey.

Rough Going For Stork In Storm

Mrs. Donald Yasgar, who lives only a few blocks from the Little Falls hospital, had to finish her trip in an automobile wrecker when the family car and a police escort bogged down.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gunderson of Nearby Bowlus barely made it to the hospital. The Gundersons used a truck.

Wonderful for a fruit salad both lemon and pineapple juice and given zest with a sweet brown prepared mustard.

FUND RAISERS

NEW YORK (AP) — The Episcopal Churchmen for South Africa, a laymen's group, has begun a fund-raising drive to aid the Anglican Church's missionary efforts among native Africans.

Warren Ketcham, associate professor of education at University of Michigan, says "it's about as possible to stop a cannonball as to stop a gifted child when he's going some place."

Prof. Ketcham reported, "Bright children have burning curiosity about things. They have a persistence and a drive toward their own goals that are just wonderful to behold."

EXPLODE BOMB FROM BALLOON 500 FEET HIGH

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The United States Wednesday exploded a baby nuclear device from a balloon 500 feet about Yucca Flat.

The explosion, touched off at 4:15 a.m. was barely discernible at Las Vegas, about 70 miles away.

The Atomic Energy Commission said officials at the control point about 15 miles from the balloon saw a brief flash and several seconds later the usual mushroom appeared. It rose slowly to above 6,000 feet.

Dr. Gerald W. Johnson, test director from the University of California's radiation laboratory at Livermore, Calif., which designed the device, said from the technical viewpoint the test "was successful."

Newsmen 60 Miles Away

Observers said the shot, third in the summer series, appeared smaller than the one fired last Sunday, which was estimated at about two kilotons. A kiloton is the equivalent of 1,000 tons of TNT.

A flash was seen first, then a brief fireball followed by another higher flash of light. Newsmen theorized the second fash could have been the balloon igniting.

The balloon, 67 feet in diameter and made of plastic, was anchored by four steel cables. Elaborate safety devices made sure the balloon did not escape.

Minimum Follows

Radioactive fallout — the subject of worldwide concern — was expected to be a minimum, the AEC said.

About 45 experiments, including 16 on military effects, were conducted.

One experiment, using several rabbits, was to determine the sensitivity of the eye to nuclear flash.

Eighteen aircraft, most on support missions, flew in the area.

The next shot will be fired June 10th. This will also be from a balloon, the AEC said.

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A Navy Regulus guided missile went out of control Tuesday and crashed on the Mojave Desert with a tremendous explosion, sending up what observers called "a miniature atomic cloud."

The 33-foot supersonic missile, designed to be fired from submarines and warships, did not carry a warhead, a Navy spokesman said.

No one was hurt and no facilities were damaged. The missile, launched from here, crashed on a test range about 70 miles away.

Residents at the town of Ridgecrest said a mushroom-type cloud rose from the blast. The Navy said the explosion was caused when the jet fuel ignited.

The missile was under radio control but the Navy said the control failed.

URGES SCHOOL SUBSIDY BILL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh urges "bipartisan effort" in both houses of the General Assembly to enact what he calls an adequate school subsidy bill.

The mayor sent wires on Tuesday to George Bloom, GOP state chairman and Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chief, asking that they lend assistance to the defeat of proposed amendments to a school subsidy bill.

"I cannot overstate the importance of such action, not only to Pittsburgh schools but to the 40 per cent of Pennsylvania's school districts which would be drastically short-changed by (House) Bill 183 as amended May 24," Lawrence declared.

The amendments, Lawrence said, will result in a five million dollar deficit for the Pittsburgh school system over the next five years.

He said the original bill, without the amendments, would provide sufficient money to pay for a mandated teacher salary increase.

23 Cars Of Long Freight Leave Rails

Steel dumped from the derailed cars blocked both eastbound tracks of the PRR main line for a time. Railroad officials immediately began detouring eastbound traffic on the westbound tracks.

No one was injured. Railroad authorities were still investigating the cause of the accident but said they felt it might have been due to a hot journal box. They estimated it would be mid afternoon before all the debris was cleared from the eastbound tracks.

EAVESDROPPING ON JURIES TO BE OUTLAWED

HARRISBURG (AP)—A House proposal to outlaw eavesdropping on jury deliberations gained Senate approval on Tuesday 48-1 and was returned to the House for agreement in an amendment.

If enacted the bill would fix a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine and a year's imprisonment for persons convicted of intentionally listening in on a grand, petit or special jury.

As approved in the House 131-56 in February the measure would have applied to eavesdropping done "knowingly." The proposal was prompted by a university study of grand jury deliberations made in Chicago several years ago without the knowledge of the jurors.

One Dissenter

The measure was sponsored by Rep. Edwin W. Tompkins (R—Cameron), a former district attorney. The only dissenter in Senate action was Sen. Thomas A. Ehrgood (R—Lebanon).

Other bills passed by the Senate would:

Outlaw the sale of retreated tires not bearing labels identifying them as retreads (49-0, to House).

Allow school districts to borrow up to 15 per cent ahead 10 per cent of the assessed value of taxable property (48-1, to secretary of state).

Require general assembly approval for all increases in public assistance benefits after June 30 (28-18, to House).

Crew members on boats hunting seals off the Atlantic Coast are paid according to their catch. They average each about $5 per day.

There are about 100 islands in Hawaii, but only seven are inhabited.

QUITS COLLEGE PREXY OFFICE

Lewis M. Stevens, chairman of the institution's board of trustees, said Dr. Bond has been named president honorarius for life and given a year's sabbatical leave. No announcement was made concerning a successor.

Dr. Bond was assigned the task of completing for publication a history of the Negro university and also will work on a series of lectures he is to deliver at Harvard University. He was recently named Alexander J. Inglis lecturer in [illegible] Harvard for the coming scholastic year.

Gov. Leader, who delivered the commencement address, was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of laws and 53 undergraduates and 5 seminary students received degrees in course.

Mozzarella cheese is now available in many grocery markets. Try this Italian way with it; rub a slice of crusty bread with a clove of garlic; add a slice of Mozzarella and an anchovy fillet and broil until the cheese melts.

MOVIE ACTOR WILL NOT WED ACTRESS WIFE

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Wanted: a wife; by talented, handsome, blue-eyed movie star, 5 ft. 11 in., 168 pounds, dark brown hair, blue eyes, age 31. Qualifications required: Sense of humor, knowledge of the culinary arts, willingness to raise a family, interest in husband's pastimes, pleasant, happy face — not necessarily beautiful. No actresses need apply.

That's an ad Cliff Robertson could run if he were not so modest. Cliff has made up his mind about his dream girl — and he wants to get married. The only thing is, he can't find the girl.

Why? He explains:

"I meet actresses mainly, and I'm determined I'll never marry one. They have good qualities but too many frailties — neurotic determination, obsession for fame. The very things that make them good actresses weaken their possibilities as good wives. They must have a certain kind of drive in their own interests that keeps them from sharing with others. It's kind of a paradox."

It's all right for the boys who marry for glamor. It gives them an important feeling, says Cliff. But an actor wants to come home to a smiling, happy face, not one that is pouting over the same work problems he encounters. He isn't sorry he's waited to take a wife.

"American men," he says, "marry too young. They mature later in life than European men, and then they become restless with their humdrum existence, one reason why our divorce rate is so high."

Wants A Home

Cliff was a big hit in "Picnic" and "Autumn Leaves" in which he played opposite Joan Crawford, and recently starred in "The Girl Most Likely," in which he got his first opportunity to sing and dance.

"Acting is a hard life," he says, "and I want to relax when I get home. What I want is a woman who needs a man, who wants to depend on him, so that if I died tomorrow it would really make a difference to her. I want her to be a home type. She doesn't need to scrub floors. I hope to be able to afford a cook, but she should be able to take over the cooking in any emergency.

Wants Family

"I've never had brothers and sisters myself, so I want a family. She'll need a sense of humor, a disposition that is well-adjusted to her personality, and she should go along with my pastimes. I like to sail, and I'm getting interested in fishing."

He'd like his wife to be young, mainly because she'll be "emotionally better suited to marriage." He'd like a girl who hasn't been spoiled by too much attention and who will respect his suggestions about her clothes. He explains:

"I'm tired of flamboyancy. I see plenty of it on the stage. My wife must dress in good taste, never over-dress and never object when I make suggestions about her clothes."

No Nagging, Please

"A wife should act as if she cares about her husband, not correct his grammar or interrupt his story telling," says he. "Maybe she has heard the story 100 times before but she should care enough to listen again."

There are ways to tip off a husband that he has had one drink too many or maybe is boring his friends. A friendly look into his eyes or a lift of the eyebrow might do it, but "fidgeting with the silver, coughing or nervously trying to change the subject won't help."

"Brigadoon" Revival Proves A Bonanza

NEW YORK (AP) — "Brigadoon" is turning out to be a bonanza for the City Center, a non-profit enterprise that is always looking for a nest-egg.

A two-week revival of the Frederick Lowe-Alan Jay Lerner musical was wildly hailed by the critics and became a boxoffice sellout.

Plans were immediately made for it to continue its run at the Adelphia theater, with City Center sharing in the profits.

Plan Campaign Rehearsal Rules

NEW YORK (AP) — Peeved at what's been happening, Actors Equity has launched a campaign to stop what it regards as evasions of rules concerning rehearsal time for stage shows.

The union, which represents all performing dramatic artists, said it had discovered some acting schools rehearse shows as a pretext for classroom exercises, and persuade hopefuls to rehearse for several weeks before signing a formal contract.

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward G. Robinson has extended his contract to be hit show "Middle of the Night" and says a show spokesman, "undoubtedly will tour" with it next year.

BLOOMFIELD, Ind. (AP)—Richard M. Richeson, superintendent of schools, says the schools aren't going to the dogs, but too many dogs are going to the schools.

He appealed to students to make their dogs stay home.

FASHION BOOM HITS INDIA'S MUD VILLAGES

NEW DELHI (AP) — Elusive secrets of high fashion are touching India's mud villages as the country expands foreign sales of handloom cloth.

Sophistication is the order of the day in foreign markets, a government spokesman says. Handloom weavers and craftsmen in mud huts must keep step with ever-changing fashions of foreign countries if exports continue to grow.

Production of handloom cloth, a tourist favorite, is climbing. Foreign sales are rising. Modern handlooms are coming into use. Weavers are banding into co-operatives virtually forced there by government money.

Much interest in handloom fabrics has been created in the American market. A team of American experts recently toured India and emphasized quality cloth.

In the shifting world of fashion traditional designs have had to a certain extent make room for new lines in patterns and designs, according to Indian government experts, who point out:

The government, pushing farther into the weaving industry as it is doing in most industries, t establishing weaving centers where artists will create designs to meet changing tastes. These designs will be furnished to weavers. A center in Bombay is operating now and others will begin soon.

The government, attempting to speed up the rise of exports, is virtually forcing weavers into co-operatives. Co-op members get government help. "Private enterprise" weavers shift for themselves.

The Indian government plans to spend 390 million rupees (124 million U.S. dollars) to promote handloom weaving during the second five-year plan. Only co-op members will get shares of this.

Well over one million weavers are in cooperatives now, a shift of 400,000 into the program in three and one-half years.

Exports to the U.S., United Kingdom, Ceylon, Malaya, and the Sudan totaled close to 60 million yards in 1956, a rise of four million yards over the 1955 figure.

The exports were valued at almost 81 million rupees (17 million dollars).

TRADITIONAL U.S. FOOD GOOD FOR JULY 4 HOLIDAY

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
The Associated Press

If you're picnicking at home on Independence Day you may want to serve some traditional American foods.

How about a big casserole of baked beans topped with onion rings and franks? Or crumb gingerbread with lemon sauce? This gingerbread is offered at a well-known chain of restaurants that specializes in American dishes. You can try our version of it; or if you are short on time, you can bake gingerbread from a mix and serve it with vanilla ice cream and fudge sauce.

Crumb Gingerbread

Ingredients: 2¼ cups sifted flour, ¼ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, 1½ teaspoons cinnamon, ¾ teaspoon salt, ½ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup old-fashioned molasses, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon baking soda. Lemon Sauce, whipped cream cheese.

Method: Sift together flour, sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon and salt. Add butter; cut in with two knives or pastry blender to resemble coarse meal. Mix molasses, water and baking soda. Alternate crumbs and liquid in a greased 8 by 8 by 2-inch square pan, beginning and ending with crumbs. Stir gently only 2 or 3 times with a fork. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 1 hour; remove and top each square with Lemon Sauce and whipped cream cheese. Makes 9 servings.

Lemon Sauce

Ingredients: 2 tablespoons cornstarch, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 cups boiling water, 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, ¼ cup butter or margarine.

Method: Mix together cornstarch, sugar and salt in 1-square saucepan. Gradually stir in boiling water. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and is thickened and clear. Remove from heat; stir in grated lemon rind, lemon juice and butter. Serve warm. Makes 2¼ cups.

Uncovers Story On Stonewall Jackson

VICKSBURG, Miss. (AP) — Edwin C. Bearss, historian at Vicksburg National Military Park, says he has uncovered a new story of Confederate Gen. Thomas (Stonewall) Jackson which he has been unable to authenticate but which he is reasonably certain is true.

The story:

After successfully repulsing a Federal drive at Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13, 1862, Jackson proposed a night attack, relatively rare in those days.

"But," an aide said, "in the darkness, how will we be able to distinguish our men from the enemy?"

HERE AND THERE

Not often is a cow victor over the iron horse. But it happened recently in France. The cow held up three trains, two of them expresses, for more than two hours when its hoof became wedged between rails. Track walkers had to dismantle the line to free Bossy.

• • •

Just who first called a railway engine an "iron horse" has been a matter of controversy. Some students of railroad lore have attributed the descriptive term to Sitting Bull, Chief of the Sioux Indian trib. But what must be one of the earliest references is found in Thomas Tredgold's "Practical Treatise on Rail-Roads and Carriages," published in London in 1825, which states: "The Hatton Railway is one of the principal ones. On it a train of from 13 to 17 wagons is impelled by a locomotive high pressure engine called by the people there an iron horse."

• • •

The last street cars in Mexico City have been retired, ending a 54-year service. Ceremonies staged by the Electric Transport Service, city officials, newsmen and artists highlighted the final run of the last car to the company's junk yard.

• • •

Among mementos Princess Margeret of England brought back from her royal tour of Africa were two gifts made in the East Africa Railways and Harbours Workshop at Nairobi. One was an antique brass oil lamp acquired by the Uganda Railway when the first line was laid in 1896.

The lamp was modernized by conversion to electricity and the addition of a handpainted parchment shade. A map of Africa on the shade indicates places visited by the Princess. The design also includes the coat of arms of the East African Railways and Harbours with an illuminated title beneath it. The other gift was an inkstand made of blue plastic and bearing a short length of track and the undercarriage of a locomotive, scaled down to one-thirtieth of size.

• • •

When remodeling of the South African Railways' station at Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia, is completed, a long-held distinction will be lost. For many years the station platform has been known as the second longest in the world, its 2,437 feet being topped only by the 2,470-foot-long platform in Storvik, Sweden. Modernization of the Bulawayo station will reduce the length of the platform to approximately 1,630 feet.

• • •

As a memorial to the pioneers of railway development in the Malayan Peninsula, an old wooden coach now has a permanent home on the platform at Ipoh station, Perak. Malayans had no railroads until 1885, when the first line of the Perak State Railway was opened. It was only eight miles long. Following the success of this line, the peninsula knew rapid railroad expansion, and in 1901 state railways were amalgamated as the Federated Malay States Railways. At recently-held ceremonies, the Sultan of Perak opened the exhibition of the veteran railway car, built in 1892.

• • •

"A good place to be during an atomic fall-out would be a railway car," states the Canadian National Railways Magazine for August, 1956. The magazine further says, "Experiments conducted by the Defense Research Board with radio-active cobalt suspended in Canadian National Railways' and Canadian Pacific Railways' coaches showed that people inside would be relatively safe, much safer than in an automobile."

• • •

A representative of the Korean National Railway, on a visit to the United States to study American railroading, chose the Rio Grande line because of its similarity to that of his own country. The Rio Grande has a track mileage of 2,099; the Korean National Railway covers 2,164 miles. Likewise the countryside through which Korean trains run resembles the mountains and plains crossed by the Rio Grande, so that the American railroad offered an excellent field for study of traffic operations. The Korean railroader, Yong S. Lee, of Seoul, was transportation coordinator for the United Nations forces during the Korean war.

• • •

To the delight of railway enthusiasts, a steam engine more than half a century old soon will run again on lines of the Western Region of British Railways. The old locomotive, named City of Truro, became famous when, on May 9, 1904, it broke a record by attaining a speed of 102.3 miles an hour on the old Great Western Railway. Some twenty-five years later, the engine was retired and placed on exhibition in the York Railway Museum, England. When put back to work, it will haul excursion trains chartered by rail-fan societies and clubs.

• • •

Think it's just a cartoonist's wacky idea to draw railroad tracks with a telephone pole right smack in the middle? Well, just such a picture came to life recently in Wellington, New Zealand. Rushing construction of a new siding, workmen laid rails on each side of a telephone pole, omitting a few ties. But, they came back and took out the pole before the tracks was put in service.

• • •

The future of European railroads is bright, according to Louis Armand, chairman of the board of the French National Railroad. On a recent visit to the United States, Mr. Armand expressed the opinion that, because of the density of population in Western Europe and the short distance between major cities, trains will for a long time offer the best means of travel for short trips. He pointed out that creation of a number of international rail associations has made possible rapid and efficient train operation from one country to another. Mr. Armand cited Europe, an international pool of 140,000 freight cars; Eurofima, a pool of financial resources for the purchase of equipment; and Trans Europ Express, a network of fast train services between the major cities of Europe.

RENTS CHAIRS

Hess, 24, noticed that every morning about 80 people line up hours before the boxoffice opens, in hopes of being able to purchase one of the 30 standee tickets sold for each performance.

He rented three dozen camp chairs (12 a month) and began retailing comfort. He sets up business each morning at 5 o'clock, shuts down at 10 a.m. He charges $1 per customer, averages about 30 sitters a day.

MOVIE ACTOR WILL NOT WED ACTRESS WIFE

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Wanted: a wife; by talented, handsome, blue-eyed moviestar, 5 ft. 11 in., 168 pounds, dark brown hair, blue eyes, age 31. Qualifications required: Sense of humor, knowledge of the culinary arts, willingness to raise a family, interest in husband's pastimes, pleasant, happy face — not necessarily beautiful. No actresses need apply.

That's an ad Cliff Robertson could run if he were not so modest. Cliff has made up his mind about his dream girl — and he wants to get married. The only thing is, he can't find the girl.

Why? He explains:

"I meet actresses mainly, and I'm determined I'll never marry one. They have good qualities but too many frailties — neurotic determination, obsession for fame. The very things that make them good actresses weaken their possibilities as good wives. They must have a certain kind of drive in their own interests that keeps them from sharing with others. It's kind of a paradox."

It's all right for the boys who marry for glamor. It gives them an important feeling, says Cliff. But an actor wants to come home to a smiling, happy face, not one that is pouting over the same work problems he encounters. He isn't sorry he's waited to take a wife.

"American men," he says, "marry too young. They mature later in life than European men, and then they become restless with their humdrum existence, one reason why our divorce rate is so high."

Wants A Home

Cliff was a big hit in "Picnic" and "Autumn Leaves" in which he played opposite Joan Crawford, and recently starred in "The Girl Most Likely," in which he got his first opportunity to sing and dance.

"Acting is a hard life," he says, "and I want to relax when I get home. What I want is a woman who needs a man, who wants to depend on him, so that if I died tomorrow it would really make a difference to her. I want her to be a home type. She doesn't need to scrub floors. I hope to be able to afford a cook, but she should be able to take over the cooking in any emergency.

Wants Family

"I've never had brothers and sisters myself, so I want a family. She'll need a sense of humor, a disposition that is well-adjusted to her personality, and she should go along with my pastimes. I like to sail, and I'm getting interested in fishing."

He'd like his wife to be young, mainly because she'll be "emotionally better suited to marriage." He'd like a girl who hasn't been spoiled by too much attention and who will respect his suggestions about her clothes. He explains:

"I'm tired of flamboyancy. I see plenty of it on the stage. My wife must dress in good taste, never over-dress and never object when I make suggestions about her clothes."

No Nagging, Please

"A wife should act as if she cares about her husband, not correct his grammar or interrupt his story telling," says he. "Maybe she has heard the story 100 times before but she should care enough to listen again."

There are ways to tip off a husband that he has had one drink too many or maybe is boring his friends. A friendly look into his eyes or a lift of the eyebrow might do it, but "fidgeting with the silver, coughing or nervously trying to change the subject won't help."

"Brigadoon" Revival Proves A Bonanza

NEW YORK (AP) — "Brigadoon" is turning out to be a bonanza for the City Center, a non-profit enterprise that is always looking for a nest-egg.

A two-week revival of the Frederick Lowe-Alan Jay Lerner musical was wildly hailed by the critics and became a boxoffice sellout.

Plans were immediately made for it to continue its run at the Adelphia theater, with City Center sharing in the profits.

Plan Campaign Rehearsal Rules

NEW YORK (AP) — Peeved at what's been happening, Actors Equity has launched a campaign to stop what it regards as evasions of rules concerning rehearsal time for stage shows.

The union, which represents all performing dramatic artists, said it had discovered some acting schools rehearse shows as a pretext for classroom exercises, and persuade hopefuls to rehearse for several weeks before signing a formal contract.

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward G. Robinson has extended his contract in the hit show "Middle of the Night" and, says a show spokesman, "undoubtedly will tour" with it next year.

BLOOMFIELD, Ind. (AP)—Richard M. Richeson, superintendent of schools, says the schools aren't going to the dogs, but too many dogs are going to the schools.

He appealed to students to make their dogs stay home.

MEN HAVE OWN IDEAS IN HOME COLOR SCHEMES

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Does your home have male-appeal?

You don't know what that is?

Mrs. Estelle Wright Bobbs—who as a hotel housekeeper specializes in catering to men of all types, including movie stars like Bing Crosby, Cary Grant, Frank Sinatra, John Kerr and others—is happy to explain:

"Women worry too much about how their homes look instead of how comfortable they are. It's easy to tell that men are fussier than they seem when they are away from home. Then a man is likely to have no qualms about asking for a room with a different color scheme or decor—sometimes because it reminds him too much of home."

Mrs. Bobbs speaks as an expert, having been executive housekeeper at the Hotel Westbury in New York for 12 years, and in hotels in Cleveland, Chicago, Pittsburgh, San Francisco before that.

Favorite Colors

"Men do not like anything gaudy," she says "although they love color. Red, gray, dark green, yellow are favorites. Most men abhor peach, dislike pink. They all like comfortable chairs, good reading lamps, a table for odd articles such as their alarm clock, cuff links, a magazine. They enjoy having their bed turned down, and having robe, pajamas and slippers left out, and a handkerchief put in the pocket of tomorrow's suit.'

They frequently complain of home color schemes when confronted with one they like, Mrs. Bobbs says. One big gripe seems to be that they are not consulted about their home decor. All they do is pay the bills. She thinks men may leave home because it is badly furnished.

Mrs. Bobbs, who is in charge of decorating 420 rooms, says it is not difficult to please a man and still keep charm in a room so that women may enjoy it. She has learned that over the years fulfilling their little requests that sometimes make the room looks cozier than before.

Two Chairs for Bing

Bing, she says, is easy to make happy with two big comfortable chairs. Cary likes his room furnished in period style, more like a study to remind him of home. Mrs. Bobbs has on occasion played valet to Frank Sinatra, ironing his suit in an emergency. "He likes to make sure the shoulders are well-rounded" she says, illustrating that men are fussy about the little things.

Mrs. Bobbs' incidental information about male comforts includes these tidbits:

If a man sleeps alone he enjoys a large double bed. If he's married he prefers twin beds. He likes a separate light over his own bed. He enjoys masculine sized soap, big enough to handle, towels that are huge (even if he throws them on the floor when he's finished using them).

Convenient Place

He likes to be sure he has a convenient place to plug in his electric razor, a good-sized mirror for shaving. He likes a mirror in the bedroom too so that he won't have to dress in the bathroom. He also likes separate compartments for his furnishings, shirts, ties, etc., and he gets very annoyed if a dresser drawer sticks.

FIRMNESS IS BASIC IN DOG TRAINING PLAN

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Does your home have that hang-dog look?

It's easy to tell if you qualify. Just inspect the furniture for dog hairs, the rugs for stains, and lastly that old lap lounger, man's best friend, for leaping insects.

In many a home where the family is trying to "put on the dog," Fido has nipped the scheme in the bud, acquiring Dad's comfortable easy chair at the fireplace even before they put the Oriental rugs down.

What to do about this destroyer of good will who is adored by all the family?

"You've got to be firm in handling him much as you love him" says Jack Greenberg, who makes a profession of studying proper care of dogs. He explains:

Scold the Dog

"At the first sign that he wants to make his bed on an easy chair or couch, push him to the floor and scold him. When you go out of the house, set mousetraps on the chairs and sofa. If he should get on them, he'll spring the traps and get startled but he won't get hurt."

Some dog owners, says Greenberg, are not consistent toward their animal. Scold him when he's wrong, praise him when he's right, he says. Don't push him off a chair one time when you have company, and then let him sit there another time because he looks so appealing. Stick to the same tone of voice and word for disapproval. If you use the word "no," don't switch to "don't" another time, he advises. (After all Fido may not have read Webster's.)

Housebreaking Easy

Housebreaking is easy for alert homemakers, Greenberg says. "If you train the puppy to paper, it's best to leave a scrap behind when disposing of the soiled papers. The puppy's sense of smell will lead him back to the spot he's used before."

When "mistakes" happen have a stain preventive on hand, such as a product that can neutralize the bleaching action of the waste matter and kill the odor.

A vacuum cleaner is good for picking up shedding hair. A dry sponge or brush made of sticky tape (wind it around your hand) will pick up hair. It's a good idea, though to brush the dog frequently, collecting the hair on the brush before it gets on household effects. Tests at Sergeant's Dog Care Center, where Greenberg is resarch director, have shown that excessive shedding may also be caused by avitaminosis or lack of fat in the diet.

Free Of Odor

You can keep your home free from that doggy odor by bathing Fido frequently, Greenberg advises. "If your dog has fleas go to work on him and your house immediately," Greenberg says. "Dust scratch powder over the area surrounding his bed to kill eggs that may have fallen into cracks and crevices. When fleas, lice and ticks are prevalent, keep them off by dusting the dog with powder before he goes back into the house," he adds.

In short, men do not want to be bothered with little difficulties.

Actor John Kerr is the exception almost to the twin-bed-for-married-men rules. He says:

"Mrs. Bobbs always makes sure I get the largest bed in the Westbury when I visit there with my wife. She also makes sure I get king-size bath towels."

Sentenced To 60 Days

PROBE SAFETY OF AUTO RACING

HARRISBURG (AP)—The deaths of two children at a Memorial Day auto race in Clarion County has prompted four lawmakers to call for an investigation of racing safety measures.

The children were killed by a wheel which spun from a car into a crowd of spectators at Shippenville. Three persons were injured.

"This tragedy vividly portrays the need for adequate protection of spectators at stock car races, and shows the need for supervision of the operators of stock car races," four Republican representatives said in a resolution.

They called for an investigation by Gov. Leader's Highway Safety Conference of the safeguards provided at stock car races.

The four are Reps. Paige Varner (R-Clarion), Raymond E. Wilt (R-Allegheny), Samuel Mahan (R-Butler) and Willard F. Agnew (R-Allegheny) Their resolution was introduced in the House Tuesday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adventist University has been chosen as the name of the new Seventh-day Adventist University to be located in the Washington area.

Ernest D. Dick, former president of the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, will be president. The seminary will become one of two major schools of the new institution.

Work will begin on the new campus as soon as a decision is made on location, officials say.

At last money does grow on trees! And the guy who's done it (wouldn't you guess?) is Sgt. Bilko. Fact is, Bilko's gone and raised 10 lovely Money Trees with a total of $32,000 in real cash sprouting on 'em. And you may win one just by writing a last line for a jingle about new gentle Joy—the one liquid that makes dishwashing almost nice.
It's easy to enter! Lots of fun, too. The first thing to do is buy a can of Joy and read the label. Then try Joy and see how it takes the greasiness out of dishwashing. You'll get lots of ideas that can help you write a winning last line. So take the money-saving Joy coupon below to your dealer today and get started. Print your last line in the entry blank below.
Laugh with Sgt. Bilko on the Phil Silvers Show each Tuesday night on the CBS Television Network
FOLLOW THESE EASY RULES
1. Complete the JOY jingle shown at the right. Print your last line to the jingle in the entry blank or on one side of a sheet of paper. Print your name and address plainly.
2. Mail to "Money Tree," Dept. C, Box 24, Cincinnati 99, Ohio. You can enter the contest as often as you like, but each entry must be accompanied by the number you copy from the bottom of any size JOY can.
3. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight, September 30, 1957, and must be received not later than October 15, 1957.
4. Entries will be judged for originality, rhyme, metre and aptness in completing the jingle. The judges' decision will be final. Except for incidental help from family and friends, entries must be wholly the work of the person in whose name the entry is submitted. Entries prepared in whole or in part by professional or compensated contest writers, schools, or services will be disqualified.
Only one prize will be awarded to any person. Duplicate prizes awarded in case of ties. No entries returned. Entries, contents, and ideas therein belong unqualifiedly to Procter & Gamble for any and all purposes.

Does your home have that hang-dog look?

It's easy to tell if you qualify. Just inspect the furniture for dog hairs, the rugs for stains, and lastly that old lap lounger, man's best friend. for leaping insects.

In many a home where the family is trying to "put on the dog," Fido has nipped the scheme in the bud, acquiring Dad's comfortable easy chair at the fireplace even before they put the Oriental rugs down.

What to do about this destroyer of good will who is adored by all the family?

"You've got to be firm in handling him much as you love him" says Jack Greenberg, who makes a profession of studying proper care of dogs. He explains:

Scold the Dog

"At the first sign that he wants to make his bed on an easy chair or couch, push him to the floor and scold him. When you go out of the house, set mousetraps on the chairs and sofa. If he should get on them, he'll spring the traps and get startled but he won't get hurt."

Some dog owners, says Greenberg, are not consistent toward their animal. Scold him when he's wrong, praise him when he's right, he says. Don't push him off a chair one time when you have company, and then let him sit there another time because he looks so appealing. Stick to the same tone of voice and word for disapproval. If you use the word "no," don't switch to "don't" another time, he advises. (After all Fido may not have read Webster's.)

Housebreaking Easy

Housebreaking is easy for alert homemakers, Greenberg says. "If you train the puppy to paper, it's best to leave a scrap behind when disposing of the soiled papers. The puppy's sense of smell will lead him back to the spot he's used before."

When "mistakes" happen have a stain preventive on hand, such as a product that can neutralize the bleaching action of the waste matter and kill the odor.

A vacuum cleaner is good for picking up shedding hair. A dry sponge or brush made of sticky tape (wind it around your hand) will pick up hair. It's a good idea, though to brush the dog frequently, collecting the hair on the brush before it gets on household effects Tests at Sergeant's Dog Care Center, where Greenberg is research director, have shown that excessive shedding may also be caused by avitaminosis or lack of fat in the diet.

Free Of Odor

You can keep your home free from that doggy odor by bathing Fido frequently, Greenberg advises. "If your dog has fleas go to work on him and your house immediately," Greenberg says. "Dust scratch powder over the area surrounding his bed to kill eggs that may have fallen into cracks and crevices When fleas, lice and ticks are prevalent, keep them off by dusting the dog with powder before he goes back into the house," he adds.

Sentenced To 60 Days

PROBE SAFETY OF AUTO RACING

HARRISBURG (AP)—The deaths of two children at a Memorial Day auto race in Clarion County has prompted four lawmakers to call for an investigation of racing safety measures

The children were killed by a wheel which spun from a car into a crowd of spectators at Shippenville Three persons were injured

"This tragedy vividly portrays the need for adequate protection of spectators at stock car races, and shows the need for supervision of the operators of stock car races," four Republican representatives said in a resolution.

They called for an investigation by Gov. Leader's Highway Safety Conference of the safeguards provided at stock car races.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Adventist University has been chosen as the name of the new Seventh-day Adventist University to be located in the Washington area

Ernest D Dick, former president of the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, will be president The seminary will become one of two major schools of the new institution.

Work will begin on the new campus as soon as a decision is made on location, officials say.

HOOD COLLEGE GIRL, REFUGEE, WINS FULBRIGHT

FREDERICK, Md. (AP)—A success story of our times is that of Mara Eksteins, Latvian refugee and Hood College senior, who has been chosen to return to her native Europe as an American student ambassador of good will.

Mara, who became an American citizen only a year ago, has won a Fullbright scholarship for study of French at the University of Paris.

Now looking like a typical American college girl, pretty Mara has packed a great deal of drama into her short life. It began 13 years ago, in 1944, when her family fled their native Latvia during the Russian invasion of the little Baltic country. With her parents and her brother Juris, little Mara made a frenzied flight to freedom via the Baltic Sea, settling near Leipzig, Germany. Here Mara and her brother attended a German school, subjected to the Nazi regimentation, while her father worked as a farmer.

When the war was over, the Eksteins were moved to another international camp nearby, and once again found themselves in Russian territory. Once again they fled the Iron Curtain and spent wour years in a Latvian colony established by the American occupation forces.

Mara was ready to enter high school when the family, sponsored by the World Lutheran Federation, boarded a crowded refugee ship for New York. They spoke little English and at first found the New World frightening.

Now the Eksteins live in Clear Spring, Md., where Mara was graduated from high school and won a four-year scholarship to Hood College.

GALLANT MAN HAS OPINION ON NEXT RACE

By FRANK ECK

My name is Gallant Man and I'm a 3-year-old bay colt. I was bred in England by Aga and Aly Khan. I came to this country in May 1955—as a yearling. I've been here two years and nobody seems to understand me.

I'd like to get one thing straight. I'm no second horse. It looks that way, I know—second in the Wood at Jamaica and second in the Derby at Louisville.

It's been said that Jockey Bill Hartack, who beat me with Iron Liege in the Derby, has a way with horses. Well, I'd like to be a horse who has a way with a jockey. So far I'm the most misunderstood horse of the year.

Ralph Lowe, a rancher-oil man from Kent, Tex., bought me and about seven other yearlings for around $200,000. We came over to this country hoping to win some big races.

Raced At Hollywood

I was put in a van last May (1956) after blue grassing it around Lexington, Ky., for almost a year. I wound up at Santa Anita but raced at Hollywood Park in California. I won my third start. Nobody liked me. I was a little guy and paid 49 to 1. Then Johnny Nerud became my trainer and I shipped to Belmont Park on Long Island. I won there at 47 to 1. I had a nice two-month rest and shipped to Florida.

I was a nice Christmas present, winning at Tropical Park at 4 to 1 on Christmas Day. People began liking me. Nine days later I began my 3-year-old career. People made me the favorite over Gen. Duke and ten other horses. I showed them they made no mistake, winning by six lengths, doing six furlongs in 1:09.2.

Then I made it four straight 16 days later. When I tried to win a fourth time in five weeks I didn't have it. So my trainer rested me instead of running me in the Flamingo. At Jamaica on April 6 I closed fast at six furlongs, finishing fourth against King Hairan and Missile, horses I had beaten. But this time I needed the race, and I wanted more distance.

Lost Close Finish

I got my wish on April 20 in the Wood. It was one mile and an eighth and Johnny Choquette, who had ridden me since Christmas, was up. All I did at 8 to 1 was run Bold Ruler to a thin nostril in 1:48.4 record time. I was leading down the stretch but that Bold Ruler puffed his lip right at the wire. Some people thought I lost ground and some thought Johnny made his move too soon. At the half I was five lengths out of it. I should have been closer.

Pulled In Derby

Well, Johnny got suspended a few days later and they got me a new Derby rider, Willie Shoemaker. The Shoe had me back of the Derby pack, 13 lengths off at the half, 9½ off at three-quarters and f off at the mile. But I was coming. I even got my nose in front and then Shoe stood up in the irons to ease me up and we still had almost a 16th of a mile to go. (Shoemaker was suspended 15 days for his mistake.)

I should have won both races.

I know I can beat Bold Ruler and Iron Liege, and Federal Hill can't go over a mile. Gen. Duke is the one I fear in the Belmont Stakes on June 15. But I think I can beat him, too, if I get a jockey who will let me run my own race.

Before the Derby, Mr. Lowe had a dream that I would lose the Derby just the way Shoemaker lost it. He told Trainer Nerud about the dream and he told Shoemaker. But nobody told me.

So if I ever get back to Kentucky where I some day hope to take up residence at one of those lush breeding farms and raise some sons and daughters I'll have quite a story to tell my kids. I hope they believe me.

Not often is a cow victor over the iron horse. But it happened recently in France. The cow held up three trains, two of them expresses, for more than two hours when its hoof became wedged between rails. Track walkers had to dismantle the line to free Bossy.

Just who first called a railway engine an "iron horse" has been a matter of controversy. Some students of railroad lore have attributed the descriptive term to Sitting Bull, Chief of the Sioux Indian trib. But what must be one of the earliest references is found in Thomas Tredgold's "Practical Treatise on Rail-Roads and Carriages," published in London in 1825, which states: "The Hatton Railway is one of the principal ones On it a train of from 13 to 17 wagons is impelled by a locomotive high pressure engine called by the people there an iron horse."

The last street cars in Mexico City have been retired, ending a 54-year service. Ceremonies staged by the Electric Transport Service, city officials, newsmen and artists highlighted the final run of the last car to the company's junk yard.

Among mementos Princess Margeret of England brought back from her royal tour of Africa were two gifts made in the East Africa Railways and Harbours Workshop at Nairobi. One was an antique brass oil lamp acquired by the Uganda Railway when the first line was laid in 1896.

The lamp was modernized by conversion to electricity and the addition of a handpainted parchment shade. A map of Africa on the shade indicates places visited by the Princess. The design also includes the coat of arms of the East African Railways and Harbours with an illuminated title beneath it. The other gift was an inkstand made of blue plastic and bearing a short length of track and the undercarriage of a locomotive, scaled down to one-thirtieth of size.

When remodeling of the South African Railways' station at Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia, is completed, a long-held distinction will be lost. For many years the station platform has been known as the second longest in the world, its 2,437 feet being topped only by the 2,470-foot-long platform in Storvik, Sweden. Modernization of the Bulawayo station will reduce the length of the platform to approximately 1,630 feet.

As a memorial to the pioneers of railway development in the Malayan Peninsula, an old wooden coach now has a permanent home on the platform at Ipoh station, Perak. Malayans had no railroads until 1885, when the first line of the Perak State Railway was opened. It was only eight miles long. Following the success of this line, the peninsula knew rapid railroad expansion, and in 1901 state railways were amalgamated as the Federated Malay States Railways. At recently-held ceremonies in the State of Perak opened the exhibition of the veteran railway car, built in 1892.

"A good place to be during an atomic fall-out would be a railway car," states the Canadian National Railways Magazine for August, 1956. The magazine further says, "Experiments conducted by the Defense Research Board with radio-active cobalt suspended in Canadian National Railways' and Canadian Pacific Railways' coaches showed that people inside would be relatively safe, much safer than in an automobile."

A representative of the Korean National Railway, on a visit to the United States to study American railroading, chose the Rio Grande line because of its similarity to that of his own country. The Rio Grande has a [illegible] miles. Likewise the countryside through which Korean trains run resembles the mountains and plains crossed by the Rio Grande, so that the American railroad offered an excellent field for study of traffic operations. The Korean railroader, Yong S. Lee, of Seoul, was transportation coordinator for the United Nations forces during the Korean war.

To the delight of railway enthusiasts, a steam engine more than half a century old soon will run again on lines of the Western Region of British Railways. The old locomotive, named City of Truro, became famous when, on May 9, 1904, it broke a record by attaining a speed of 102.3 miles an hour on the old Great Western Railway. Some twenty-five years later, the engine [illegible] exhibition in the York Railway Museum, England. When put back to work, it will haul excursion trains chartered by railfan societies and clubs.

Think it's just a cartoonist's wacky idea to draw railroad tracks with a telephone pole right smack in the middle? Well, just such a picture came to life recently in Wellington, New Zealand. Rushing construction of a new siding, workmen laid rails on each side of a telephone pole, omitting a few ties. But, they came back and took out the pole before the tracks was put in service.

The future of European railroads is bright, according to Louis Armand, chairman of the board of the French National Railroad. On a recent visit to the United States, Mr. Armand expressed the opinion that, because of the density of population in Western Europe and the short distance between major cities, trains will for a long time offer the best means of travel for short trips. He pointed out that creation of a number of international rail associations has made possible rapid and efficient train operation from one country to another. Mr. Armand cited Europe, an international pool of 140,000 freight cars; Eurofima, a pool of financial resources for the purchase of equipment; and Trans Europ Express, a network of fast train services between the major cities of Europe.
